Imperial Grunts Robert D. Kaplan,2006-09-12 A fascinating unprecedented first hand look at the soldiers on the front lines on the Global War on Terror Plunging deep into midst of some of the hottest conflicts on the globe Robert D Kaplan takes us through mud and jungle desert and dirt to the men and women on the ground who are leading the charge against threats to American security These soldiers fighting in thick Colombian jungles or on dusty Afghani plains are the forefront of the new American foreign policy a policy being implemented one soldier at a time As Kaplan brings us inside their thoughts feelings and operations these modern grunts provide insight and understanding into the War on Terror bringing the war which sometimes seems so distant vividly to life State ,1995 Restless Valley Philip Shishkin,2019-06-18 This award winning foreign correspondent s vivid account of Central Asia s recent history reads like a novel but is the stuff of hard won journalism Gary Shteyngart author of Absurdistan Here are the stories of two revolutions a massacre of unarmed civilians a civil war a drug smuggling highway brazen corruption schemes contract hits and larger than life characters who may be villains heroes or possibly both Restless Valley is a gripping contemporary chronicle of Central Asia from a veteran journalist with extensive experience in the region Both Kyrgyzstan and Uzbekistan have struggled with the challenges of post Soviet independent statehood and both became entangled in America s Afghan campaign when the United States built military bases within their borders Meanwhile the region was becoming a key smuggling hub for Afghanistan s booming heroin trade

Through the eyes of local participants the powerful and the powerless Shishkin reconstructs how Kyrgyzstan and Uzbekistan have ricocheted between extreme repression and democratic strivings how alliances with the United States and Russia have brought mixed blessings and how Stalin's legacy of ethnic gerrymandering continues to incite conflict today The weird the strange the corrupt and the grand are all evident Shishkin relentlessly pursues and then tells the stories of the most corrupt and powerful and also the most sincere and admirable characters who inhabit these mountains Ahmed Rashid The New York Review of Books

Uzbekistan Reuel R. Hanks, 1999 This is the first annotated bibliography devoted to English language source material on Uzbekistan The volume focuses on publications that have appeared in the last two decades although older works of particular importance are also included Over 500 entries cover all aspects of Uzbekistan's history geography politics way of life people and culture

Victory Undone Carter Andress, Malcolm McConnell, 2014-10-20 Here is a dramatic first person account of how the United States won the war in Iraq only to see the peace lost by an unengaged administration with Iraqis terrorized and the new caliph of ISIS promising I'll see you in New York Military contractor Carter Andress was the ultimate boots on the ground civilian in Iraq While reporters aid workers diplomats and even U.S. soldiers were often cut off from the ground truth in Iraq by the blast walls protecting the Green Zone and our bases Andress was in the thick of things driving through insurgent infested territory negotiating with hostile tribes and witnessing the transformation of Iraq from chaos and violence to a stable multi ethnic multi sectarian democracy that needed only minimal American support to defend itself support however that thanks to the Obama administration was not forthcoming A page turner of a story but also an incredibly important account of what actually happened in the Iraq War and afterwards Victory Undone is a book every American needs to read

Film and Identity in Kazakhstan

Rico Isaacs,2018-02-07 Cinema and nationalism are two fundamentally modern phenomena but how have films shaped our understanding of the creation the imagining of Central Asian nations Here Rico Isaacs uses cinema as an analytical lens to explore how the Kazakh national identity has been constructed and contested Drawing on an analysis of Kazakh films from the last century and featuring new interviews with directors and critics involved in the Central Asian film industry his book traces the construction of nationalism within Kazakh cinema from the country s inception as a Soviet Republic to a modern independent nation Isaacs identifies four narratives since the collapse of the Soviet Union a warrior like ethnic narrative rooted in the 18th Century struggles against the Mongolian Oirat tribes a civic inspired narrative cemented in the Stalinist deportations of the 1930s and 40s a religious narrative founded within the mystic and philosophical religion of Tengrism and the cult of the Sky God and a socio economic narrative which roots Kazakh nationhood and identity in contemporary social divisions the lived day to day experiences of ordinary citizens and the struggles they face with authority These last two tropes demonstrate how cinema has emerged as a site of dissent against the country s authoritarian regime under President Nazarbayev Film and Identity in Kazakhstan advances our understanding of Kazakhstan and nationalism by demonstrating the multiple and inessential character of each and illustrates the important role of cinema in contesting political power in the post Soviet space Crater's Edge Michal Giedroyc,Norman Davies,2010-05-01 In September 1939 as a 10 year old boy Michal Giedroyc watched the Russian security police seize his home in Eastern Poland His father a senator and judge was imprisoned while his mother with Michal and his two sisters were left on the streets of the local town to fend for themselves Later they were transported in cattle trucks to the wastes of Soviet Siberia with hundreds of thousands of other deportees Here by the will of the rulers of the Soviet Empire we were to toil and die Eighteen months of deprivation and hunger on a collective farm brought them to the brink of extinction Exhausted half starved and ill Michal s mother and her children set off on a second grueling journey that would take them across Central Asia to Persia the Middle East and finally England In one dramatic incident their survival hinged remarkably on the just two simple objects a potato and a penknife The Ends of the Earth Robert D. Kaplan,1997-01-28 Author of Balkan Ghosts Robert D Kaplan now travels from West Africa to Southeast Asia to report on a world of disintegrating nation states warring nationalities metastasizing populations and dwindling resources He emerges with a gritty tour de force of travel writing and political journalism Whether he is walking through a shantytown in the Ivory Coast or a death camp in Cambodia talking with refugees border guards or Iranian revolutionaries Kaplan travels under the most arduous conditions and purveys the most startling truths Intimate and intrepid erudite and visceral The Ends of the Earth is an unflinching look at the places and peoples that will make tomorrow s headlines and the history of the next millennium Kaplan is an American master of travel writing from hell Pertinent and compelling New York Times Book Review An impressive work Most travel books seem trivial beside it Washington Post Book World Britain

Enforcing the Peace, 1918-1923 John D Grainger,2025-01-30 Details the British Navy s efforts during the post Great War period facing challenges in the Near East from the Russian Revolution to Turkish resurgence under Mustafa Kemal The end of the Great War in the Near East began with the Turkish Armistice but was not complete until the final peace treaty in 1923 During that five year period the British Navy dealt with the overspill from the Russian Revolution in the Caucasus the Caspian Sea and Central Asia as well and then in the Aegean Sea and the Straits confronting the resurgent Turkish forces under Mustafa Kemal The British in India were very concerned about Bolshevik activities in Central Asia and had sent two battalions of Indian troops under a British general to attempt to cope with it They were successful in battle against larger forces but politically they were unable to reach any sort of settlement They were withdrawn when an Afghan war broke out A second expedition was sent early in 1918 from Iraq through Persia to gain control of the oil fields at Baku in Azerbaijan The object here was to prevent the oil falling into German or Turkish hands This was an expedition at the limit of military capabilities but it did succeed in seizing Baku and preventing a German conquest In the process ships in the Caspian Sea were captured and turned into a Caspian Sea flotilla to fight Russian Bolshevik advances These adventures happened before the Turkish Armistice Constantinople had been occupied but holding it became increasingly difficult and required the use of considerable forces mainly British The other allies gradually faded away or adopted the Turkish side The resurgence of Turkish power in Anatolia eventually led to a tense confrontation between British and Turkish forces at Chanak on the Dardanelles and a difficult negotiation between generals The result was a truce British withdrawal from all occupied areas and the collapse of the Lloyd George government in Britain which was prepared to indulge in another war over the issues
