Axelrad, 1984      On the Scent with Sherlock Holmes Walter Shepherd, 1978      The Routledge Handbook of Literary Geographies Neal Alexander, David Cooper, 2024-08-09 The Routledge Handbook of Literary Geographies provides a comprehensive overview of recent research and a range of innovative ways of thinking literature and geography together It maps the history of literary geography and identifies key developments and debates in the field Written by leading and emerging scholars from around the world the 38 chapters are organised into six themed sections which consider differing critical methodologies keywords and concepts literary geography in the light of literary history a variety of places spaces and landforms the significance of literary forms and genres and the role of literary geographies beyond the academy Presenting the work of scholars from different disciplinary backgrounds each section offers readers new angles from which to view the convergence of literary creativity and geographical thought Collectively the contributors also address some of the major issues of our time including the climate emergency movement and migration and the politics of place Literary geography is a dynamic interdisciplinary field dedicated to exploring the complex relationships between geography and literature This cutting edge collection will be an essential resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students in both Geography and Literary Studies and scholars interested in the evolving interface between the two disciplines      The Universal Sherlock Holmes Ronald Burt De Waal, 1994      Creating Heritage for Tourism Catherine Palmer, Jacqueline Tivers, 2018-07-27 What does heritage mean in the twenty first century Traditional ideas of heritage involve places where objects landscapes people and ideas are venerated and reproduced over time as an inheritance for future generations To speak of heritage is to speak of a relationship between the past the present and the future However it is a past recreated for economic gain hence sectors such as culinary tourism ecotourism cultural tourism and film tourism have employed the heritage label to attract visitors This interdisciplinary book furthers understanding on how heritage is socially constructed interpreted and experienced within different geographic and cultural contexts in both Western and non Western settings Subjects discussed include Welsh linguistic heritage tango mushroom tourism Turkish coffee literary tourism and the techniques employed to construct tourist accommodation By focusing upon heritage creation in the context of tourism the book moves beyond traditional debates about authentic heritage to focus on how something becomes heritage for use in the present This timely volume will be of interest to students and researchers in tourism heritage studies geography museum studies and cultural studies      Perfume Megan Volpert, 2022-03-24 Object Lessons is a series of short beautifully designed books about the hidden lives of ordinary things Our sense of smell is crucial to our survival We can smell fear disease food Fragrance is also entertainment We can smell an expensive bottle of perfume at a high end department store Perhaps it reminds us of our favorite aunt A memory in a bottle is a powerful thing Megan Volpert's Perfume carefully balances the artistry with the science of perfume The science takes us into the neurology of scent receptors how taste is mostly smell the biology of illnesses that impact scent sense and the chemistry of making and copying perfume The artistry of perfume involves the five scent families and symbolism subjectivity in perfume preference perfume marketing strategies iconic scents and perfumers why the industry is so secretive and Volpert's own experiments with making perfume Object Lessons is published in partnership with an essay series in The Atlantic

The Sign of the Four Arthur. Conan Doyle, Darryl Jones, 2023 As a dense yellow fog swirls through London Sherlock Holmes sits in a cocaine induced haze at 221B Baker Street His mood is only lifted by a visit from a beautiful but distressed young woman whose father vanished ten years before The ensuing investigation involves a wronged woman stolen Indian treasure a helpful dog and a love affair

The Sign of the Four SIR ARTHUR CONAN DOYLE, Choi Hyun, 2016-06-02 The Sign of the Four 1890 also called The Sign of Four is the second novel featuring Sherlock Holmes written by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle Doyle wrote four novels and 56 stories starring the fictional detective The story is set in 1888 The Sign of the Four has a complex plot involving service in East India Company India the Indian Rebellion of 1857 a stolen treasure and a secret pact among four convicts the Four of the title and two corrupt prison guards It presents the detective's drug habit and humanizes him in a way that had not been done in the preceding novel A Study in Scarlet 1887 It also introduces Doctor Watson's future wife Mary Morstan Sir Arthur Conan Doyle described how he was commissioned to write the story over a dinner with Joseph M Stoddart managing editor of an American publication Lippincott's Monthly Magazine at the Langham Hotel in London on 30 August 1889 Stoddart wanted to produce an English version of Lippincott's with a British editor and British contributors The dinner was also attended by Oscar Wilde who eventually contributed The Picture of Dorian Gray to the July 1890 issue Doyle discussed what he called this golden evening in his 1924 autobiography Memories and Adventures The novel first appeared in the February 1890 edition of Lippincott's Monthly Magazine as The Sign of the Four or The Problem of the Sholtos five word title appearing in both London and Philadelphia The British edition of the magazine originally sold for a shilling and the American for 25 cents Surviving copies are now worth several thousand dollars Over the following few months in the same year the novel was then republished in several regional British journals These re serialisations gave the title as The Sign of Four The novel was published in book form in October 1890 by Spencer Blackett again using the title The Sign of Four This edition was illustrated by Charles H M Kerr The title of both the British and American editions of this first book edition omitted the second the of the original title Different editions over the years have varied between the two forms of the title with most editions favouring the four word form The actual text in the novel nearly always uses the Sign of the Four the five word form to describe the symbol in the story although the four word form is used twice by Jonathan Small in his narrative at the end of the story As with the first story A Study in Scarlet produced two years previously The Sign of the Four was not particularly successful to start with It was the short stories published from 1891 onwards in Strand Magazine that made household names of Sherlock Holmes and his creator reference Wikipedia The

Sign of the Four     Scents and Sensibility Catherine Maxwell, 2017-10-20 This lively accessible book is the first to explore Victorian literature through scent and perfume presenting an extensive range of well known and unfamiliar texts in intriguing and imaginative new ways that make us re think literature's relation with the senses Concentrating on aesthetic and decadent authors Scents and Sensibility introduces a rich selection of poems essays and fiction exploring these texts with reference to both the little known cultural history of perfume use and the appreciation of natural fragrance in Victorian Britain It shows how scent and perfume are used to convey not merely moods and atmospheres but the nuances of the aesthete or decadent's carefully cultivated identity personality or sensibility A key theme is the emergence of the olfactif the cultivated individual with a refined sense of smell influentially represented by the poet and critic Algernon Charles Swinburne who is emulated by a host of canonical and less well known aesthetic and decadent successors such as Walter Pater Edmund Gosse John Addington Symonds Lafcadio Hearn Michael Field Oscar Wilde Arthur Symonds Mark Andr Raffalovich Theodore Wratislaw and A Mary F Robinson This book explores how scent and perfume pervade the work of these authors in many different ways signifying such diverse things as style atmosphere influence sexuality sensibility spirituality refinement individuality the expression of love and poetic creativity and the aura of personality dandyism modernity and memory A coda explores the contrasting twentieth century responses of Virginia Woolf and Compton Mackenzie to the scent of Victorian literature     Sherlock's Veiled Secret K. C. Brown, 1996 THE STORY It is 1920 Violet Sheridan a young sculptress is summoned to meet Sherlock Holmes who is now retired and keeping bees in Sussex Violet hopes that the great man has invited her in order to commission a bust of himself but instead he     Fat Ollie's Book Ed McBain, 2003-01-02 This lively novel the fifty second in the award winning 87th Precinct series follows the exploits of Ed McBain's most beloved and foul mouthed detective Fat Ollie Weeks All at once Fat Ollie Weeks had a truly brilliant idea But as any real writer could tell you that's how inspiration strikes with the sudden force of a violent crime Known more for his foul mouth and short temper than his way with words Detective Weeks has written a novel But just as Isola is rocked by the murder of a mayoral candidate the only copy of Ollie's manuscript is stolen and an all too real adventure begins as a thief follows Ollie's fictional blueprint to find a 2 million cache of nonexistent diamonds Now the 87th Precinct races to bring poetic justice to a cold blooded assassin and someone's about to add another chapter to the colorful career of Ollie Weeks a cop who's never played by the book     Writing the Urban Jungle Joseph McLaughlin, 2000 Much has been written about the effects of British culture on colonized people but this study suggests that the influence worked both ways Focusing on the relationship between literature and metropolitan culture it discusses the cultural confusion caused by bringing the foreign home     The Sign of the Four Arthur Conan Doyle, 1900     A Study in Scarlet and The Sign of Four Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, 2012-03-05 Two bizarre tales the first marks the beginning of the illustrious Holmes and Watson crime solving partnership the second leads the investigative pair on a terrifying mission to the dark heart of London     The Hound of the Baskervilles Arthur Conan Doyle, 2018-06-29 Dr James Mortimer asks Sherlock Holmes for advice following the death of his friend Sir Charles Baskerville Sir Charles was found dead on the grounds of his Devonshire estate Baskerville Hall Mortimer now fears for Sir Charles's nephew and sole heir Sir Henry Baskerville who is the new master of Baskerville Hall The death was attributed to a heart attack but Mortimer is suspicious because Sir Charles died with an expression of horror on his face and Mortimer noticed the footprints of a gigantic hound about 50 yards from where Sir Charles lay dead The Baskerville family has supposedly been under a curse since the era of the English Civil War when ancestor Hugo Baskerville allegedly offered his soul to the devil for help in abducting a woman and was reportedly killed by a giant spectral hound Sir Charles believed in the curse and was apparently fleeing from something in fright when he died Intrigued Holmes meets with Sir Henry newly arrived from Canada

The Smell of Risk Hsuan L. Hsu, 2020-12-15 A timely exploration of how odor seeps into structural inequality Our sense of smell is a uniquely visceral and personal form of experience As Hsuan L. Hsu points out smell has long been spurned by Western aesthetics as a lesser sense for its qualities of subjectivity volatility and materiality But it is these very qualities that make olfaction a vital tool for sensing and staging environmental risk and inequality Unlike the other senses smell extends across space and reaches into our bodies Hsu traces how writers artists and activists have deployed these embodied biochemical qualities of smell in their efforts to critique and reshape modernity's olfactory disparities The Smell of Risk outlines the many ways that our differentiated atmospheres unevenly distribute environmental risk Reading everything from nineteenth century detective fiction and naturalist novels to contemporary performance art and memoir Hsu takes up modernity's differentiated atmospheres as a subject worth sniffing out From the industrial revolution to current day environmental crises Hsu uses ecocriticism geography and critical race studies to for example explore Latinx communities exposed to freeway exhaust and pesticides Asian diasporic artists response to racialized discourse about Asiatic odors and the devastation settler colonialism has reaped on Indigenous smellscape In each instance Hsu demonstrates the violence that air maintenance control and conditioning enacts on the poor and the marginalized From nineteenth century miasma theory to the synthetic chemicals that pervade twenty first century air Hsu takes smell at face value to offer an evocative retelling of urbanization public health and environmental violence
