Follett wrote his first international bestseller Eye of the Needle when he was 25 years old. He has since been one of the most consistent international best-selling authors with approximately 130 million copies of his books sold worldwide. His manifold influences on the thriller genre includes the pioneering use of strong female characters in espionage stories and the development of the historical thriller as a new form of novel exemplified by Winter of the World. This book is an investigation of Follett's development as an author and of the craft of writing and the negotiation of serious versus popular literary value from his earliest short stories and screenplays through his mature thrillers and entertainment fiction. Unpublished materials are also considered including his notes, business and personal correspondence, unpublished drafts, journal entries, and outlines. Follett's dramatic shift to writing historical fiction may be his most enduring legacy. Pillar of Fire, 1914      On the Eagles' Wings EBELE P. ONWUACHU, 2014-09-08 On the Eagles Wings is a practical book that one can easily identify with as it exposes the practical issues that affect the outcome of decisions that people make while they face different challenges in life. This book outlines the principles that individuals must pay attention to in order to make a wise choice in critical moments when they are faced with a difficult decision. It also exposes common pitfalls that could make situations worse if they are not carefully avoided like making hasty decisions. When an individual is faced with a dilemma if the person is not strong in the Lord, he or she can easily be blown about by every wind of doctrine, easily deterring one from reaching his goal. On the Eagles Wings can be used as a point of reference by anyone going through difficult times or facing having to make a life-altering decision. This book is written based on biblical facts and references as well as on true stories shared by Christians who have lived through hard times and have now shared the experiences that helped to ground them in the Lord. People go through different challenges in life. The most important thing while going through these trials is not so much the challenge itself but instead how each individual tackles the situation. This is what makes the difference and grants the person victory. As Christians, we know that our faith is rooted in the Lord.
