Touching Surfaces Anca Cristofovici, 2009 Who isn t seduced by the idea of an affinity between aging and aesthetics Yet when does aging truly begin What attributes does the aesthetic embrace Looking into startling photographic art of the past three decades this book is prompted by such questions and turns them into a meditation on how aesthetics mediates our relation to time The photographic approach of the corporeal is at the center of the book Within a phenomenological framework Cristofovici brings into focus the physical and the psychic body to read aging as a process of change and becoming over time Her understanding of aging sees beyond difference into larger patterns of perceptions that we share Offering valuable insights into aging as a process of subject construction this book will be of interest to students and scholars of visual culture photography art history age studies and theories of knowledge This cross disciplinary study that puts theory to the test of life s and art s paradoxes in an evocative style will also appeal to a wider readership interested in how photography and aging illuminate each other

The Creators Daniel J. Boorstin, 1993-09-28 By piecing the lives of selected individuals into a grand mosaic Pulitzer Prize winning historian Daniel J Boorstin explores the development of artistic innovation over 3 000 years A hugely ambitious chronicle of the arts that Boorstin delivers with the scope that made his Discoverers a national bestseller Even as he tells the stories of such individual creators as Homer Joyce Giotto Picasso Handel Wagner and Virginia Woolf Boorstin assembles them into a grand mosaic of aesthetic and intellectual invention In the process he tells us not only how great art and great architecture and philosophy is created but where it comes from and how it has shaped and mirrored societies from Vedic India to the twentieth century United States

A Spectacular Secret Jacqueline Goldsby, 2020-09-15 This incisive study takes on one of the grimmest secrets in America s national life the history of lynching and more generally the public punishment of African Americans Jacqueline Goldsby shows that lynching cannot be explained away as a phenomenon peculiar to the South or as the perverse culmination of racist politics Rather lynching a highly visible form of social violence that has historically been shrouded in secrecy was in fact a fundamental part of the national consciousness whose cultural logic played a pivotal role in the making of American modernity To pursue this argument Goldsby traces lynching's history by taking up select mob murders and studying them together with key literary works. She focuses on three prominent authors: Ida B. Wells, Barnett Stephen Crane, and James Weldon Johnson, and shows how their own encounters with lynching influenced their analyses of it. She also examines a recently assembled archive of evidence lynching photographs to show how photography structured the nation's perception of lynching violence before World War I. Finally, Goldsby considers the way lynching persisted into the twentieth century, discussing the lynching of Emmett Till in 1955 and the ballad elegies of Gwendolyn Brooks to which his murder gave rise. An empathic and perceptive work, A Spectacular Secret will make an important contribution to the study of American history and literature. Orange Coast Magazine is the oldest continuously published lifestyle magazine in the region, bringing together Orange County's most affluent coastal communities through smart fun and timely editorial content, as well as compelling photographs and design. Each issue features an award-winning blend of celebrity and newsmaker profiles, service journalism, and authoritative articles on dining, fashion, home design, and travel. North American Women Artists of the Twentieth Century, Jules Heller, Nancy G. Heller, 2013-12-19. First Published in 1997, North American Women Artists of the Twentieth Century: A Biographical Dictionary was created to fill a gap of there being a comprehensive reference work like this available, even though the bibliography in English on various aspects of the history of women artists has grown exponentially during the past ten years. As researchers, the editors have been frustrated many times by being unable to locate basic information about many of the artists included in this volume, especially those working outside the United States. This leads directly to another reason for producing this particular kind of reference book: to try and create a better understanding between and among the artists and art audiences in these countries. America's National Gallery of Art, Philip Kopper, National Gallery of Art (U.S.), 2016-10-04. America's National Gallery of Art, a 75th anniversary history of the nation's art museum, founded by Andrew W. Mellon and opened to the public on March 17, 1941. Presenting an overview of the Gallery's first fifty years and a thematic look at the transformation the museum has undergone since 1992, the book offers extensive photographic essays that highlight the West Building, newly renovated East Building, and Sculpture Garden, as well as the magnificent art collection and selected special exhibitions. The book includes accounts of the founding benefactors and four directors: David Finley, John Walker, J. Carter Brown, and now Earl A. Powell III, and discusses the Gallery's historic 2014 agreement to accept custody of the collections of the Corcoran Gallery of Art. The Print Collector's Newsletter, 1989.
