Printer And His Craft:

The Printer and His Craft Helen Wodzicka,1972 The Lost World of the Craft Printer Maggie Holtzberg,1992
She finds that a significant number of printers independently developed similar responses to the deskilling of their craft and the threat of unemployment Demonstrating a widespread consistency in themes and expressive forms in the printers occupational narratives Holtzberg Call shows that what once served as the printers rhetoric of tradition is now their rhetoric of displacement Initiation rites long apprenticeships a complex and peculiar jargon and a gallery of legendary figures once bound hot metal printers into a specialized highly regarded occupational folk community The hot metal printers lore has survived in an exemplary form that functions as a source of reconciliation with the demise of their craft Holtzberg Call analyzes how and why the printers traditionalize and idealize their work experience drawing parallels between the shift from mechanical to computer typesetting and an equally disconcerting transition in the nineteenth century when Linotype deposed handset type She also shares her knowledge of the many aspects of hot metal printing culture from the life of the tramp printer to the meanings of various printing terms to the operation of a Linotype machine One gains a sense of the conditions in the old type shops where long hours excessive heat and poorly ventilated fumes from solvent ink and molten lead were the crucible in which camaraderie pride and fulfillment were forged The Printer's Trial Gail Jarrow,2006 In a hot crowded courtroom in colonial New York on an August day in 1735 a jury found printer John Peter Zenger innocent of the charge of seditious libel against the British royal governor The verdict established the political precedent for the right of people to criticize their government in print and helped shape the Bill of Rights more than fifty years later Combining narrative with voices from primary sources the book shows the conflict between characters that led to this momentous trial in American history From publisher description The Lost World of the Craft Printer Maggie Holtzberg,1992 The American Printer ,1928 The British Printer ,1893 American Printer and Bookmaker ,1903 The Inland Printer ,1908 Advertising & Selling and the Advertising Agency ,1928 The Printers' International Specimen Exchange ,1885 Inland Printer, American Lithographer ,1883 The Pacific Printer ,1916 The Printing Art ,1912 The Graphic Arts and Crafts Year Book ,1912 British and Colonial Printer and Stationer ,1919 The Chicago Printer ,1883 Printers' Circular and Stationers' and Publishers' Gazette ,1889 Advertising Fortnightly ,1927 Advertising & Selling ,1927 Printing Art ,1912
