Printmaking in the Age of Rembrandt Clifford S. Ackley, 1981 Printmaking in the Age of Rembrandt Clifford S. Ackley, Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, 1981 Printmaking in the Age of Rembrandt, 1980* Printmaking in the Age of Rembrandt, 1981* Educational Programs, 1980 The Prints of Michael Mazur with a Catalogue Raisonné 1956-1999 T. Victoria Hansen, Barry Walker, Clifford S. Ackley, Lloyd Schwartz, 2000 This magnificent volume brings together essays from four different leading authorities covering various aspects of Mazur's life and career along with a comprehensive catalogue raisonne of his prints 44 colour 121 b w illustrations Drawings from the Age of Bruegel, Rubens, and Rembrandt William W. Robinson, 2016-08-02 This superb book presents 100 notable examples from the Harvard Art Museums distinguished collection of Dutch Flemish and Netherlandish drawings from the 16th to 18th century Featuring such masters as Pieter Bruegel the Elder Peter Paul Rubens and Rembrandt van Rijn the volume showcases beautiful color illustrations accompanied by insightful commentary on prevalent styles and techniques Genres that define this artistic period landscape scenes of everyday life portraiture and still life are explored in detail The book also presents the results of new conservation and technical study including infrared analysis and scientific examinations of drawing materials This revelatory new research has allowed previously illegible underdrawings and inscriptions in many of the artworks to surface for the first time shedding light on longstanding mysteries of production and provenance Printmaking in the Age of Rembrandt Clifford S. Ackley, Museum of Fine Arts (Boston, Mass.), 1980 Printmakers of the Baroque Susan Dixon, 2014 The essays in this volume complement the recent exhibition of Printmakers of the Baroque 17th Century Explorations of Space and Light at La Salle University Art Museum during winter 2013 2014 Co curated by La Salle Associate Professor of Art History Dr Susan Dixon the exhibition also provided a foundation for a Baroque art history course taught in spring 2014 This catalogue includes essays and labels written by undergraduate students enrolled in the course along with reproductions of all 40 artworks included in the exhibition The Ashgate Research Companion to Dutch Art of the Seventeenth Century Wayne Franits, 2017-07-05 Despite the tremendous number of studies produced annually in the field of Dutch art over the last 30 years or so and the strong contemporary market for works by Dutch masters of the period as well as the public's ongoing fascination with some of its most beloved painters until now there has been no comprehensive study assessing the state of research in the field As the first study of its kind this book is a useful resource for scholars and advanced students of seventeenth century Dutch art and also serves as a springboard for further research Its 19 chapters divided into three sections and written by a team of internationally renowned art historians address a wide variety of topics ranging from those that might be considered traditional to others that have only drawn scholarly attention comparatively recently Prints and Printmaking Antony Griffiths, 1996 Introductory text that touches on the basics of various printmaking techniques and briefly describes the history of each Old Age in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance Albrecht Classen, 2012-02-14

After an extensive introduction that takes stock of the relevant research literature on Old Age in the Middle Ages and the early modern age the contributors discuss the phenomenon of old age in many different fields of late antique medieval and early modern literature history and art history Both Beowulf and the Hildebrandslied both Wolfram von Eschenbach's Parzival and Titivolt both the figure of Merlin and the trans European tradition of Perceval Peredur Parzival then the figure of the vetula in a variety of medieval French English and Spanish texts and of the Old Man in The Stricker's Daniel both the treatment of old age in Langland's Piers the Plowman and in Jean Gerson's sermons are dealt with Other aspects involve late antique epistolary literature early modern French farce in light of Disability Studies the social role of old impotent men in sixteenth and seventeenth century Netherlandish paintings and the scientific discourse of old age and health since the 1500s The discourse of Old Age proves to have been of central importance throughout the ages so the critical examination of the issues involved sheds intriguing light on the cultural history from late antiquity to the seventeenth century The Age of Rubens & Rembrandt Art Gallery of South Australia, Julie Robinson, 1993 Print Culture in Early Modern France Carl Goldstein, 2012-02-13 In this book Carl Goldstein examines the print culture of seventeenth century France through a study of the career of Abraham Bosse a well known printmaker book illustrator and author of books and pamphlets on a variety of technical subjects The consummate print professional Bosse persistently explored the endless possibilities of print single sheet prints combining text and image book illustration broadsides placards almanacs theses and pamphlets Bosse had a profound understanding of print technology as a fundamental agent of change Unlike previous studies which have largely focused on the printed word this book demonstrates the extent to which the contributions of an individual printmaker and the visual image are fundamental to understanding the nature and development of early modern print culture Journey through Landscape in Seventeenth-Century Holland: The Haarlem Print Series and Dutch Identity, The sets of landscape etchings produced in the second decade of the seventeenth century by Claes Jansz Visscher Esaias van den Velde Willem Buytewech and Jan van de Velde drew on and contributed to a print culture that played a key role in defining Dutch landscape Examination of these printed landscape series as part of a wide ranging print culture underscores the consistent interrelationship of landscape history and politics To varying degrees the contemporaneous descriptive geographies histories allegorical tableaux didactic prints and poetic anthologies considered in this study provide parallels for the prints serial structure journey theme and commemorative motifs Moreover as part of a wider enterprise of Dutch self definition they provide cultural guidelines for the interpretation of landscape in prints and paintings Levesque's study of the Dutch seventeenth century experience of place is two tiered She addresses the journey through landscape as an interpretive framework the spatial structure of knowledge the benefits of travel from the point of view of humanists and the growth of a Dutch national self consciousness expressed through landscape She also provides a close reading of the structure and motifs in the print series of Claes Jansz Visscher Esaias van den Velde Willem Buytewech and Jan van de Velde Rembrandt's

Religious Prints Charles M. Rosenberg, 2017-09-11 A stunning catalogue of the seventy religious prints from the 2017 exhibition featuring detailed background information on each piece Rembrandt's stunning religious prints stand as evidence of the Dutch master's extraordinary skill as a technician and as a testament to his genius as a teller of tales Here several virtually unknown etchings collected by the Feddersen family and now preserved for the ages at the University of Notre Dame are made widely available in a lavishly illustrated volume Building on the contributions of earlier Rembrandt scholars noted art historian Charles M Rosenberg illuminates each of the seventy religious prints through detailed background information on the artist's career as well as the historical religious and artistic impulses informing their creation Readers will enjoy an impression of the earliest work The Circumcision 1625-26 the famous Hundred Guilder Print the enigmatic eighth state of Christ Presented to the People one of a handful of examples of the very rare final posthumous state of The Three Crosses and an impression and counterproof of The Triumph of Mordecai From the joyous epiphany of the coming of the Messiah to the anguish of the betrayal of a father Jacob by his children from choirs of angels waiting to receive the Virgin into heaven to the dog who defecates in the road by an ancient inn The Good Samaritan Rembrandt's etchings offer a window into the nature of faith aspiration and human experience ranging from the ecstatically divine to the worldly and mundane Ultimately these prints modest intimate fragile objects are great works of art which like all masterpieces reward us with fresh insights and discoveries at each new encounter Despite many reliable catalogues of Rembrandt etchings very few have focused on the religious content of these prints The outstanding range of the Feddersen Collection offers an excellent occasion for closer examination of Rembrandt's development as a printmaker but also as a spiritual devout Christian especially evident from his thoughtful return to the same subjects across his career Charles Rosenberg and his team at the Snite Museum deserve our thanks for fresh analysis of Rembrandt's religious prints combined with the latest scholarship on the artist and his etchings output Rembrandt scholars but also all lovers of the artist will want to consult this important catalogue Larry Silver author with Shelley Perlove of Rembrandt's Faith Church and Temple in the Dutch Golden Age Rembrandt's etchings of religious themes capture the emotional heart of their subjects through a uniquely inventive approach to both technique and content The seventy prints gathered by Jack and Alfrieda Feddersen span the full range of Rembrandt's production and offer an outstanding resource for appreciation and research This catalogue tells the fascinating story of how the collection was formed and brings a fresh analysis to each print Charles Rosenberg's extensive catalogue entries will be useful reading for anyone interested in the history of European art and one of its most talented practitioners Rembrandt van Rijn Stephanie Dickey Queen's University

Rembrandt's Reading Amy Golahny, 2003 Though Rembrandt's study of the Bible has long been recognized his interest in secular literature has been relatively neglected In this volume Amy Golahny uses a 1656 inventory to reconstruct Rembrandt's library discovering anew how his reading of history contributed to his creative process In the end Golahny places Rembrandt in the learned vernacular culture of seventeenth century Holland painting a picture of a pragmatic reader whose attention to historical texts strengthened his rivalry with Rubens for visual drama and narrative erudition Dawn of the Golden Age Wouter T. Kloek, Rijksmuseum (Amsterdam, Pays-Bas), Rijksmuseum (Netherlands), J. Bruyn, Hessel Miedema, Christian Schuckman, 1993-01-01 Designed as a catalogue for an exhibition at the Rijksmuseum in 1994 this offers a survey of the paintings drawings prints sculpture and applied art produced 1580 1620 The book contains five essays followed by a catalogue which reproduces work from the era along with data on the artists The Oxford History of Western Art Martin Kemp, 2000 The Oxford History of Western Art is the new authority on the development of visual culture in the West over the last 2700 years from the classical period to the end of the twentieth century OHWA is an innovative and challenging reappraisal of how the history of art can be presented and understood None of the currently available general histories of art offers the wealth of perspectives and cross media references of this book Through a carefully devised modular structure readers are given insights not only into how and why works of art were created but also how works in different media relate to each other across time Here uniquely is not the simple linear story of art but a rich series of stories told from varying viewpoints The founding principle of the book has been to use carefully selected groupings of pictures to give readers a sense of the visual texture of the various periods and episodes covered The 167 illustration groups supported by explanatory text and picture captions create a sequence of visual tours not merely a procession of individually great works viewed in isolation but juxtapositions of significant images that powerfully convey a sense of the visual environments in which works of art need to be viewed in order to be understood and appreciated The aim throughout has been to make the shape and nature of these visual presentations a stimulating and rewarding experience allowing readers to become active participants in the process of interpretation and synthesis Another key feature of the narrative is the re definition of traditional period boundaries Rather than relying on conventional labels such as Medieval Renaissance Baroque etc five major phases of significant historical change are established that unlock longer and more meaningful continuities The art of classical antiquity from c 600 BC to the fall of Rome in AD 410 The establishment of visual culture in Europe from 410 to 1527 the sack of papal Rome European visual regimes from 1527 to 1770 The era of revolutions 1770 to 1914 Modernism and after 1914 to 2000 This new framework shows how the major religious and secular functions of art have been forged sustained transformed revived and revolutionized over the ages how the institutions of Church and State have consistently aspired to make art in their own image and how the rise of art history itself has come to provide the dominant conceptual framework within which artists create patrons patronize collectors collect galleries exhibit dealers deal and art historians write The text has been written by a team of 50 specialist authors working under the direction of Professor Martin Kemp one of the UK's most distinguished art historians Whilst bringing their own expertise and vision to their sections each author was also asked to relate their text to a number of unifying themes and issues including written evidence physical contexts patronage viewing and reception techniques gender and racial issues centres and peripheries media and condition the notion of art and current presentations Though the coverage of topics focuses on European notions of art and their transplantation and transformation in North America space is also given to cross fertilizations with other traditions including the art of Latin America the Soviet Union India Africa and Afro Caribbean Australia and Canada Professor Kemp and his team similarly deal generously with the applied arts and reproductive media such as photography and prints The result is a vibrant vigorous and revolutionary account of Western art serving both as an inspirational introduction for the general reader and an authoritative source of reference and guidance for students The Figurative Works of Chen Hongshou (1599-1652) Tamara Heimarck Bentley, Hongshou Chen, 2012 Despite the importance of Chen Hongshou 1599 1652 as an artist and scholar of the late Ming period until now no full length study in English has focused on his work Author Tamara H Bentley takes a broadly interdisciplinary approach treating Chen s oeuvre in relation to literary themes and economic changes and linking these larger concerns to visual analyses In so doing Bentley sheds new light not only on Chen but also on an important cultural moment in the first half of the seventeenth century when Chinese scholar artists began to direct their work towards anonymous public markets
