International Photography Awards 2024 Book Category Documentation through photographs and interviews of those who survived the unique Nazi ghetto camp located at Terezín Czech Republic Dennis Carlyle Darling has photographed and interviewed hundreds of Holocaust survivors who spent time at the German transit camp and ghetto at Terezín a former eighteenth century military garrison located north of Prague Many of the prisoners were kept there until they could be transported to Auschwitz or other camps but unlike German captives elsewhere they were allowed to participate in creative activities that the Nazis used for propaganda purposes to show the world how well they were treating Jews Although it was not classified as a death camp more than 33 000 prisoners died at Terezín from hunger disease and mistreatment In Borrowed Time Darling reveals Terezín as a place of painful contradictions through striking and intimate portraits that retrace time and place with his subjects the last remnants of those who survived the experience Returning to sites of painful memories with his interview subjects to photograph them Darling respectfully depicts these survivors and tells their stories

Steven Spielberg's Children Linda Ruth Williams, 2025-08-12 Why has Steven Spielberg's work been so often identified with childhood and children How does the director elicit such complex performances from his young actors Steven Spielberg's Children is the first book to investigate children childhood and Spielberg's employment of child actors together and in depth Through a series of lively readings of both the celebrated performances he elicits from his young stars in films such as E.T. The Extra Terrestrial A.I. Artificial Intelligence and Empire of the Sun as well as less discussed roles in films such as War of the Worlds The BFG and Jurassic Park this book shows children to be key players in the director's articulation of childhood since the 1970s Steven Spielberg's Children presents children and childhood in some surprising ways not only analyzing boyhood and girlhood according to Spielberg but considering children as alien adult children who refuse to grow up and children who aren't even human It discusses the way in which children have served to cast Spielberg as a sentimentalist but also how they are more frequently framed as complex cruel and canny The child might be dangled as bait in an exploitation horror scenario Jaws might become the image of universal higher beings Close Encounters of the Third Kind or might be a young cultural creator like the director was himself The Fabelmans born with a camera glued to his eye The child on both sides of the camera is a resonant image signifying all that adult culture wants it to be yet resisting this through authorship of their own stories The book also looks at Spielberg's young actors in the long history of child stars in theater and cinema and how Spielberg's children have fared as performers and celebrities The Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal, 1992 Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom What Do Children and Young Adults Read Next? Janis Ansell, Pam Spencer Holley, 2002 Lists books by subject and title and recommends what book children and young adults should read next based on their previous likes and dislikes International Handbook of Multigenerational Legacies of Trauma Yael Danieli, 2013-03-09 In this extraordinary new text an international array of scholars explore the enduring legacy of such social shocks as war genocide slavery tyranny crime and disease Among the cases addressed are instances of genocide in Turkey Cambodia and Russia the plight of the families of Holocaust survivors atomic bomb survivors in Japan and even the children of Nazis the long term effects associated with the Vietnam War and the war in Yugoslavia and the psychology arising from the legacy of slavery in America The Witness and the Body in Auschwitz Bozena

Karwowska,2023-10-16 The Witness and the Body in Auschwitz Early Literary Accounts of the Camp Experience examines bodily descriptions from early testimonies of concentration camp survivors focusing on questions related to meanings of corporeality as well as to Holocaust researchers and links the discourse of the body with a social cartography of the Auschwitz camp complex The heart of the book is comprised of memory based texts written by survivors in the early years after the war The early texts discussed were written in Polish and while some became internationally recognized others remain virtually unknown especially outside of Poland These early memoirs and literary works help navigate the space of the Auschwitz camp complex from the perspective of the victims based on their experiences and decipher those areas devoid of narratives spaces of total annihilation Literary accounts and early testimonies allow us to map the space of the camp differently than through the documents produced by the Nazi perpetrators Such a social cartography also includes specific gendered differences and allows Karwowska to critically analyze sensitive questions related to the body gender and sexuality of a prisoner Irena's Children Tilar J. Mazzeo,2016-09-27 From the New York Times bestselling author of The Widow Clicquot comes an extraordinary and gripping account of Irena Sendler the female Oskar Schindler who took staggering risks to save 2 500 children from death and deportation in Nazi occupied Poland during World War II In 1942 one young social worker Irena Sendler was granted access to the Warsaw ghetto as a public health specialist While she was there she began to understand the fate that awaited the Jewish families who were unable to leave Soon she reached out to the trapped families going from door to door and asking them to trust her with their young children Driven to extreme measures and with the help of a network of local tradesmen ghetto residents and her star crossed lover in the Jewish resistance Irena ultimately smuggled thousands of children past the Nazis She made dangerous trips through the city's sewers hid children in coffins snuck them under overcoats at checkpoints and slipped them through secret passages in abandoned buildings But Irena did something even more astonishing at immense personal risk she kept a secret list buried in bottles under an old apple tree in a friend's back garden On it were the names and true identities of these Jewish children recorded so their families could find them after the war She could not know that more than ninety percent of their families would perish Irena's Children a fascinating narrative of the extraordinary moral and physical courage of those who chose to fight inhumanity with compassion Chaya Deitch author of Here and There Leaving Hasidism Keeping My Family is a truly heroic tale of survival resilience and redemption The Young Victims of the Nazi Regime Simone Gigliotti,Monica Tempian,2016-05-05

During the Nazi regime many children and young people in Europe found their lives uprooted by Nazi policies resulting in their relocation around the globe The Young Victims of the Nazi Regime represents the diversity of their experiences covering a range of non European perspectives on the Second World War and aspects of memory This book is unique in that it places the experiences of children and youth in a transnational context shifting the conversation of displacement and refuge to countries that have remained under examined in a comparative context Featuring essays from an international range of experts this book analyses the key themes in three sections the migration of children to countries including England Canada Australia New Zealand Kenya and Brazil the experiences of young people who remained in Nazi Europe and became victims of war displacement and deportation and finally the challenges of rebuilding lives and representing traumas in the aftermath of war In its comparisons between Jewish and non Jewish experiences and how these intersected and diverged it revisits debates about cultural genocide through the separation of families and communities as well as contributing new perspectives on forced labour families and the Holocaust and Germans as war victims The Junior Bookshelf ,1992

What Do We Tell the Children? Critical Essays on Children's Literature Ciara Ní Bhroin, Patricia Kennon, 2012-03-15 This peer reviewed collection of critical essays on children's literature addresses contemporary debates regarding what constitutes suitable texts for young audiences The volume examines what adult writers tell their child readers with particular focus on the following areas the representation of sexuality gender and the body the treatment of death and trauma concepts of race prejudice and national identity and the use of children's literature as a tool for socializing acculturating politicizing and educating children The focus of the collection is on Irish and international fiction addressed at readers from mid childhood to young adulthood One section of the book examines what child readers were told in the past while another section examines young readers capacity for self invention through the participatory culture of the twenty first century Topics explored include the controversial issue of teenage prostitution and the commodification of the male body in contemporary young adult fiction the allure of celebrity and the impact of today's surveillance culture on young people the representation of the Holocaust for young readers and representations of Muslim characters and culture in a post 9 11 mediascape This collection which offers insights into a range of literary constructions and representations of childhood will be a valuable resource for students and scholars working in children's literature youth culture and childhood studies Contributors Jane Suzanne Carroll Norma Clarke Shehrazade Emmambokus Michele Gill Marnie Hay Eimear Hegarty Nora Maguire Kerry Mallan Anne Markey Kimberley Reynolds Beth Rodgers Kay Sambell This is the fifth publication of the Irish Society for the Study of Children's Literature ISSCL It follows the Society's publication of Studies in Children's Literature 1500 2000 Dublin Four Courts Press 2004 Treasure Islands Studies in Children's Literature Dublin Four Courts Press 2006 Divided Worlds Studies in Children's Literature Dublin Four Courts Press 2007 and Young Ireland's Studies in Children's Literature Dublin Four Courts Press 2011 Politics and Time Michael J. Shapiro, 2016-09-06 Catastrophic events like the bombing of Hiroshima Hurricane Katrina's devastation of New Orleans and drone strikes periodically achieve renewed political significance as subsequent developments summon them back to public awareness But why and how do different conceptions of time inform and challenge these key events and the narratives they create In this book Michael J Shapiro provides an approach to politics and time that unsettles official collective histories by introducing analyses of lived experience articulated in cinematic televisual musical and literary genres His investigation is framed by questions of our responsibility to acknowledge those victims of violence and catastrophe who have failed to rise above the threshold of public recognition Ultimately by focusing on time as an active force shaping our conception of political life we can deepen our understanding of complex political dynamics and improve the theories and methods we rely on to interpret them This bold and original book will be of interest to students and scholars of political theory cultural studies and cinema studies looking for a new perspective on the temporal aspects of political life The Buchenwald Child Bill Niven, The Palgrave
