Prisoners Of Faith A View From Within

Steven Barkan, George J. Bryjak

Prisoners Of Faith A View From Within:

Prisoners of Faith Nirmala Srinivasan, 1989-10 Prisoners of Faith describes and analyzes the ethnic life force of Muslims and Christians which determines their private public identity orientations as individual members of India's two largest minority communities Srinivasan successfully presents the case for conceptualizing minorities in terms of individual perceptions and awareness and synthesises phenomenology and Marxism for the study of personal identity as a social structure and process

Prisoners of Faith Nirmala Srinivasan, 1989

God in Captivity Tanya Erzen, 2017-03-07 An eye opening account of how and why evangelical Christian ministries are flourishing in prisons across the United States It is by now well known that the United States incarceration rate is the highest in the world What is not broadly understood is how cash strapped and overcrowded state and federal prisons are increasingly relying on religious organizations to provide educational and mental health services and to help maintain order And these religious organizations are overwhelmingly run by nondenominational Protestant Christians who see prisoners as captive audiences Some twenty thousand of these Evangelical Christian volunteers now run educational programs in over three hundred US prisons jails and detention centers Prison seminary programs are flourishing in states as diverse as Texas and Tennessee California and Illinois and almost half of the federal prisons operate or are developing faith based residential programs Tanya Erzen gained inside access to many of these programs spending time with prisoners wardens and members of faith based ministries in six states at both male and female penitentiaries to better understand both the nature of these ministries and their effects What she discovered raises questions about how these ministries and the people who live in prison grapple with the meaning of punishment and redemption as well as what legal and ethical issues emerge when conservative Christians are the main and sometimes only outside forces in a prison system that no longer offers even the pretense of rehabilitation Yet Erzen also shows how prison ministries make undeniably positive impacts on the lives of many prisoners men and women who have no hope of ever leaving prison can achieve personal growth a sense of community and a degree of liberation within the confines of their cells With both empathy and a critical eye God in Captivity grapples with the questions of how faith based programs serve the punitive regime of the prison becoming a method of control behind bars even as prisoners use them as a lifeline for self transformation and dignity

Islam in Prison Matthew Wilkinson, Lamia Irfan, Muzammil Quraishi, Mallory Schnewly Purdie, 2022-12-06 Are you a prison officer who feels nervous about dealing with Muslims on the wings Are you a prison chaplain who wants to know how your chaplaincy affects the lives of prisoners Are you a policymaker who needs a robust base of evidence for Islam in prison Are you an academic or a journalist seeking ground breaking social science in a contentious field Based on original evidence from 279 Muslim prisoners and 79 prison officers we explore how Muslims come to be incarcerated how the practice of Islam affects prison life and rehabilitation the types of Islam and the effects of Islamic conversion in prison and the professional practice of officers and chaplains We also investigate the common belief that incarceration fosters Islamist extremism and suggest improvements to faith provision and rehabilitative opportunities for Muslim prisoners

When Texas Prison Scams Religion Michael G. Maness, 2023-05-22

When Texas Prison Scams Religion exposes corruption in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice especially in the abuse of religion In many ways this book is a literature review of 1 800 plus works that defends freedom of conscience in prison while exposing the unconstitutionality of the seminary program that buys faith with favor from prisoners The state veritably ordains the prisoner a Field Minister that represents the offices of the Governor TDCJ Director and wardens throughout the prison Therein TDCJ lies about neutrality in a program all about Christian missions and lies again in falsely certifying elementary Bible students as counselors Why is the director sponsoring psychopaths counseling psychopaths In fact TDCJ pays 314 million a year to UTMB for psychiatric care and receives not a single report of the care given and worse for UTMB generates no reports itself The underbelly TDCJ s executive culture of cover up is exposed TDCJ has hired the lowest qualified of the applicant pool many times in the last 25 years and regularly destroys statistics on violence TDCJ Dir Collier led the prison to model Louisiana Warden Burl Cain the most scandal ridden in penal history according to a host of published news stories for 20 years Therein Collier led TDCJ to favor the smallest segment of religious society within Evangelical Dominionism Texas has no business endorsing the truth of any religion over another We close with a proposal that utilizes the 400 000 000 hours of officer contact over ten years as a definitive influence in contrast to a commissioner that spends less than 10 minutes on each decision Maness has been lobbying Austin for 15 years to definitively access staff for his 100 000 Mothers 1% Certainty Parole Texas Constitutional Amendment which would revolutionize prison culture and save Texans millions of the dollars

The Angola Prison Seminary Michael Hallett, Joshua Hays, Byron Johnson, Sung Jang, Grant Duwe, 2016-08-05

Corrections officials faced with rising populations and shrinking budgets have increasingly welcomed faith based providers offering services at no cost to help meet the needs of inmates Drawing from three years of on site research this book utilizes survey analysis along with life history interviews of inmates and staff to explore the history purpose and functioning of the Inmate Minister program at Louisiana State Penitentiary aka Angola America s largest maximum security prison This book takes seriously attributions from inmates that faith is helpful for surviving prison and explores the implications of religious programming for an American corrections system in crisis featuring high recidivism dehumanizing violence and often draconian punishments A first of its kind prototype in a quickly expanding policy arena Angola s unique Inmate Minister program deploys trained graduates of the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary in bi vocational pastoral service roles throughout the prison Inmates lead their own congregations and serve in lay ministry capacities in hospice cell block visitation delivery of familial death notifications to fellow inmates sidewalk counseling and tier ministry officiating inmate funerals and delivering care packages to indigent prisoners Life history interviews uncover deep level change in self identity corresponding with a growing body of research on identity change and religiously motivated desistance The concluding chapter addresses concerns regarding the artworks and layout keep you guessing as to what is going to be around the next corner Gill's reflective poetry interspersed examines the role and the emotions of the chaplain Gill's book should be a guide to prison chaplaincy as it gives a window to humanising the dehumanised The book reminds us that there is a person behind the wall isolated and hurting who needs peace and grace without diminishing the effect of their actions or the damage caused to others and the need for justice The stories that are included are varied and poignant tasmaniananglican.com.au Raw and real confronting and challenging brutally honest tinged with touches of humour and provides the reader with a valuable insight into a prisoner's life The book is beautifully produced colourful and easy to read crosslight.org.au A timely and realistic introduction to and insight into a system that most people are not exposed to Paul's book is a passionate and accurate insight into life on the inside It looks at the process of incarceration and its effects on people This is a good book and highly recommended The Melbourne Anglican This attractively colourful edition shines a light not only into the depths of prison life but into the innermost thoughts and feelings of its inmates A powerful account occasionally confronting yet laced with humour and pathos It is raw and real confronting and challenging brutally honest tinged with touches of humour providing the reader with a valuable insight into a prisoner's life behind the razor wire beautifully produced colourful and easy to read Reverend Graham Wright Senior Prison Chaplain for the Anglican Diocese of Perth

American Prisoners of War in Southeast Asia United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on National Security Policy and Scientific Developments, 1971 Faith, Ideology and Fear Gabriele Marranci, 2020-09-08 Based on four years anthropological research within prisons and Muslim communities in the UK this book offers a unique discussion of the relationship between the experience of prison among Muslims and the formation of religious identity Gabriele Marranci thoroughly examines Muslim religious life in prison the work of Muslim chaplains and imams and the overall impact that they have on Muslim prisoners providing an analysis of the current prison policies aiming to prevent radicalisation and discusses the counterproductive results of an increasing young Muslim presence in prisons as well as the reaction of the Muslim communities to this increase Marranci suggests that the prison environment and increasing restrictions therein are linked to the fear of radicalization and are facilitating identity processes in which Islam turns into an ideology This important study goes on to make a thorough examination of the lives of former Muslim prisoners showing how they are particularly vulnerable to extremists recruitment and explaining the dynamics which have led in certain cases to their recommitting offences or embarking on a path of radicalization

American Prisoners of War in Southeast Asia: 1971. 2 v United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on National Security Policy and Scientific Developments, 1971 The American Prison Francis T. Cullen, Mary K. Stohr, 2014 For the first time in four decades prison populations are declining and politicians have reached the consensus that mass imprisonment is no longer sustainable At this unique moment in the history of corrections the opportunity has emerged to discuss in meaningful ways how best to shape efforts to control crime and to intervene effectively with offenders The American Prison Imagining a Different Future by Francis T Cullen Cheryl Lero Johnson and Mary K Stohr pulls together established correctional scholars to imagine what this prison future might entail Each scholar uses his or her expertise to craft in an accessible way for students to read a blueprint for how to create a new penology along a particular theme For example one contributor writes about how to use existing research expertise to create a prison that is therapeutic and another provides insight on how to create a feminist prison In the final chapter the editors pull together the lessons learned in a cohesive comprehensive essay

Faith, Identity and Homicide Shona Robinson-Edwards, 2021-10-09 This book explores the role that religion plays in the lives of imprisoned homicide offenders Drawing on interviews in an English prison the author examines how they narrate their life stories and how religion intersects with other categories to rebuild their personal identities after committing a crime and being labelled as murderers or killers This book seeks to bridge the gap between macro and micro phenomena examining religion as both a social institution and a personal experience It also explores the mediating role of institutions with regards to the nature and extent of their influence upon individual choices and actions and provides insights into the nature of the therapeutic prison It seeks to create some clarity of understanding the complex nature of religiosity narrative identity desistance and rehabilitation whilst critically examining elements of social identity that may restrict or enhance this process It provides a series of recommendations for organisations working with convicted homicide offenders offenders and speaks to academics and practitioners in the fields of criminology sociology psychology and religious theological studies

Prison Chaplains on the Beat in US and UK Prisons George Walters-Sleyon, PhD, 2021-08-10 This book is about prison chaplains and their care for aging dying and dead prisoners in the penal systems of the United States and the United Kingdom Since the 18th century prison chaplains have served as priests and pastoral caregivers to prisoners and prison staff The book traces the historical roles of prison chaplains in developing the managerial aspects of prisons focusing on their presence best practices and ways of conceptualizing their prison experiences in the modern prison cultures of the United States and the United Kingdom While prison chaplains have historically provided care to prisoners prison chaplaincy after 1970 has transformed This book shows how prison chaplains face new challenges in caring for prisoners under the penal policies and practices of mass incarceration Prison Chaplains on the Beat demonstrates how prison chaplains have conceptualized the practice of providing pastoral care to aging dying and dead prisoners in the United States and the United Kingdom through a person centered approach The book is both theoretical and empirical The empirical aspect focuses on the prison experiences of 31 prison chaplains from the United States and Scotland The theoretical aspect provides a conceptual understanding of the multi faceted roles of prison chaplains in the United States Scotland and England and Wales As a research in comparative criminal justice it argues that prison chaplains are fundamentally indispensable to prison management practices and managerial theories in the United States Scotland and

England and Wales post 1970 Powerfully combines historical and empirical approaches to religion in prisons Brings new understanding of the pastoral and prophetic roles of prison chaplains and launches a searing ethical critique of mass incarceration The comparisons between the United States and Britain are instructive for current and future prison policy in both locations Dr David Grumett School of Divinity University of Edinburgh UK George Walters Sleyon s Prison Chaplains on the Beat offers a new perspective on the predicaments of contemporary penal politics and practices especially their racialized harms Chaplains are both observers of and participants in the contemporary prison scene and their perspective is a special but hitherto under reported one By reconsidering our carceral condition through this lens Walters Sleyon illuminatingly re states the moral and political challenges of mass incarceration Dr Richard Sparks School of Law University of Edinburgh UK
