Re Creating Ourselves:

Re-creating Ourselves Molaria Ogundipe-Leslie, 1994 This book falls into two parts the first part theory comprising theoretical essays on literature women and society leads into the second part practice which presents Ogundipe Leslie's work as a social activist Both parts are linked by her poetry The MakeOver Reimagining and Recreating Myself Mattese Lecque, 2024-05-13 This memoir was written to explain the obstacles and challenges I have personally encountered in my life and my career choices What I want to make plain to the reader is that when you experience bumps and obstacles in life you can overcome and still succeed Also I want to emphasize the process of grief and how to not succumb to depression and to fuel your life with things that may leave a legacy on your behalf and the deceased one It doesn't matter if you were born with nothing and who your parents are nor the mistakes you made you can overcome Recreating Sexual Politics

(Routledge Revivals) Victor Seidler, 2009-12-15 This thought provoking book first published in 1991 examines sexual politics in a world which is being radically changed by the challenges of feminism Seidler explores how men have responded to feminism and the contradictory feelings men have towards dominant forms of masculinity Seidler's stimulating and original analysis of social and political theory connects personally to everyday issues in people's lives It reflects the growing importance of sexual and personal politics within contemporary politics and culture and demonstrates clearly the challenge that feminism brings to our inherited forms of morality politics and sexuality Recreating Your Self Nancy J. Napier, 1996-01-26 This compelling and considerate guide very gently yet powerfully shows the adult child how to develop a strong and solid sense of self Emily J Marlin C S W Transgressing Boundaries. Elizabeth F. Oldfield, 2013 Fictions written between 1939 and 2005 by indigenous and white post colonial women writers emerging from an African European cultural experience form the focus of this study Their voyages into the European diasporic space in Africa are important for conveying how African women's literature is situated in relation to colonialism Notwithstanding the centrality of African literature in the new postcolonial literatures in English the accomplishments of the indigenous writer Grace Ogot have been eclipsed by the critical attention given to her male counterparts while Elspeth Huxley Barbara Kimenye and Marjorie Oludhe Macgoye who are of Western cultural provenance but adopt an African perspective are not accommodated by the genre of expatriate literature The present study of both indigenous and white post colonial women's narratives that are common to both categories fills this gap Focused on the representation of gender identity culture and the Other the texts selected are set in Kenya and Uganda and a main concern is with the extent to which they are influenced by setting and intercultural influences The African woman's creation of textuality is at once the expression of female individualities and a transgression of boundaries The particular category of fiction for children as written by Kimenye and Macgoye reveals the configuration of a voice and identity for the female Other and writer which enables a subversive renegotiation of identity in the face of patriarchal traditions Theosophy as the Basic Unity of National Life Annie Besant, 1925 Recreating Sexual

Politics Victor J. Seidler, 2009-10-23 First published in 1991 this title examines sexual politics in a world which is being radically changed by the challenges of feminism Seidler explores how men have responded to feminism and the contradictory feelings men have towards dominant forms of masculinity

Dispelling Wetiko Paul Levy, 2013-01-15 The mind virus behind human self destruction has a name wetiko See it clearly and it starts to lose power You see it everywhere smart people making destructive choices Companies poisoning their own customers Nations pouring trillions into war while their people suffer Social media built to connect us driving us apart We're the one species that knowingly degrades its own habitat at scale Why do we keep acting against our own survival From Indigenous North American traditions comes the term wetiko a life eating compulsion that turns us against one another and the living world Whether you approach it as metaphor psychology or spirituality the effects are real and they propagate through what we don't see In Dispelling Wetiko Paul Levy brings this insight into dialogue with Jungian psychology framing wetiko as a mind parasite that exploits our blind spots Drawing on teachings shared in public sources depth psychology and his own harrowing encounters Levy describes wetiko as ME disease Malignant Egophrenia a pathological self centering that mistakes the ego for the whole Like a vampire that can't see its reflection it hides in the very way we perceive reality The crucial insight the moment we recognize wetiko it begins to lose power The cure isn't waging war on evil or waiting for others to wake up it starts by noticing how our attention and reactions feed the very patterns we oppose and then withdrawing that food Dispelling Wetiko offers a clear diagnosis and a practical path back to sanity personally and collectively
