Reaching Out Through Christian Education Steve Clapp, Jerry O. Cook, 1995-04 Study Guide ,1994 Guidelines
Christian Education Cokesbury, 2016-11-15 Christian education and formation is a crucial building block for our growth as healthy mature Christians There are a number of different small group settings in which Christian formation occurs Through Christian education we invite people and communities of faith to be transformed as they are inspired and challenged As a leader in the ministry of Christian education you have a vital role to play in the faith development of other members of your congregation This Guideline is designed to help equip you in leading this ministry group in your congregation This is one of the twenty six Guidelines for Leading Your Congregation 2017 2020 that cover church leadership areas including Church Council and Small Membership Church the administrative areas of Finance and Trustees and ministry areas focused on nurture outreach and witness including Worship Evangelism Stewardship Christian Education age level ministries Communications and more Christian Education Teaching Methods - From Modern to Postmodern Carlos C. Roberts, 2009-11 This book provides pastors professional teachers students of religious education or Christian education theological students and Sunday school teachers with methods of teaching the faith today and opportunities to reflect critically on the methods and approaches they use in the classroom in the changed cultural context of our postmodern world The book is the result of years of practical experience in the field of Christian education as a Director of Religious Education and head of a team involved in providing religious education training and producing teaching materials and textbooks for Sunday school and professional teachers of Christian education This book proposes the Herald model of church and model of Christian education as a very helpful model for postmodern culture Christian Education ,1923 Christian Education Robert E. Clark, Lin Johnson, Allyn K. Sloat, 1991-10-22 Whether in the home or in the church or in a Christian school the challenge of contemporary Christian educators is to meet the academic needs of students while remaining unswerving in adherence to biblical principles Christian Education Foundations for the Future introduces you to the basics of a healthy Christian education program then takes you beyond showing you how to develop a fresh innovative Christian education program that will revitalize your church home or school Worldviews and Christian Education W. Shipton, E. Coetzee & R. Takeuchi, 2014-04 In Worldviews and Christian Education editors W A Shipton E Coetzee and R Takeuchi have brought together works by experts in cross cultural religious education The authors and editors have a wealth of personal experience in presenting the gospel to individuals with various worldviews that differ greatly from those held by Christians who take the Bible as authoritative They focus on the beliefs and issues associated with witnessing to seekers for truth coming from backgrounds as diverse and animism Buddhism Confucianism Hinduism Islam Marxism Taoism and postmodernism Back Cover Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A. Lamport, 2015-05-07 Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church As a result Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum literacy teacher training outcomes and professional standards This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy home schooling Sunday schools women s education graded schools compulsory education of the deaf and blind and kindergarten With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1 200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries These volumes covers a vast range of topics from Christian education History spanning from the church s founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day Denominational and institutional profiles Intellectual traditions in Christian education Biblical and theological frameworks curricula missions adolescent and higher education theological training and Christian pedagogy Biographies of distinguished Christian educators This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education

The Choice to Exceed Our Christian Education Dr. Clara J. Ushman, 2024-06-03 Christian education is a phrase that is extremely vast Here is a chance to discover Christian education such as its origins histories successes difficulties and continuing challenges The Choice to Exceed Our Christian Education is an adventure into the past present and future of Christian education Where did Christian education come from We travel back into a long ago history lesson How has it changed Has history repeated itself over time For better or for worse What is being done to ensure that Christian education will continue ten fifty or one hundred years from now All these thought provoking questions and more inside

Reframing Christian Education for a Global Generation Heesung Hwang, 2024-09-24 This groundbreaking book serves as a case study delving into the unique challenges faced by the global generation as they navigate the complexities of their hybrid identities Heesung Hwang drawing from her extensive experience as both a minister and theologian presents a compelling vision for religious education inspired by the traditional Korean concept of madang In this open space faith communities gather to engage in communal interaction fostering generative environments where all members are valued and their contributions esteemed Through the lens of madang Hwang invites readers to reimagine religious education as a holistic experience that transcends traditional boundaries encompassing storytelling conversation play and relationship building This transformative work challenges religious educators to embrace innovative approaches that honor the diverse cultural and religious backgrounds of young people ultimately paving the way for redemptive communities that empower the next generation to shape new cultural and religious expressions within society Reframing Christian Education for a Global Generation promises to ignite important conversations and inspire meaningful change within faith communities worldwide

Christian Faith and Christian Learning Clare Watkins, James Butler, 2025-07-31 Following a critical analysis of the pedagogical theology and practice of Christian learning this book develops a radical alternative account of faith learning Recognising the ways in which institutionally anxious churches are turning to processes of education and discipling it takes the reader through a theological action research journey to offer a practical theological response to the question of how Christian faith is learnt and handed on in ways that really make a difference Through close engagement with the practicalities of one declining denomination British Methodism the authors offer a distinctive vision of Christian learning and enable fresh thinking and practice There is a call for a move beyond educational courses towards a more profound engagement with the complexities of real life as not only the place but the matter of faith learning Theologically the book offers a vision which pursues questions of divine and human agency the work of the Spirit in learning the role of normative tradition and the important place of Christian lay people and their daily lives in learning Ultimately it seeks to give substance to a fresh concept of faith learning which is holistic integrative and inductively achieved and finds its fulfilment in lives lived in faith hope and love Christ Walk Anna Fitch Courie,2014-12-01 A Bible inspired fitness program designed to improve your physical and spiritual health Christ Walk outlines a 40 day program for individuals and groups to focus on improving physical health while engaging in spiritual and mental reflection and growth Individuals and groups select different biblical routes to complete through walking running biking etc while reading a reflective passage on health and spirituality each day of the journey Each chapter is a daily meditation on different aspects of mind body and spiritual health tied to biblical teachings and Christian traditions The appendices include options for groups and individuals to transform their Christ Walk experience from journey to journey Don't read this book do this book There is no better book available to inspire and assist both individuals and congregations to start a walking program Follow the plan outlined in this book one step at a time and you will strengthen not just your physical wellness but also your spiritual and emotional wellness The Rev Dr Scott Stoner creator of Living Compass Faith Wellness Ministry and author of Your Living Compass Living Well in Thought Word and Deed

The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church 2012 Marvin W. Cropsey,2013-01-01 The Book of Discipline sets forth the plan by which we United Methodists govern ourselves It reflects our understanding of the Church and of what is expected of its laity and clergy as they seek to be effective witnesses in the world as a part of the whole body of Christ The Discipline includes our church Constitution our history our doctrinal standards and our mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ as well as practical processes through which our congregations connect and support each other to reach the world Management Essentials for Christian Ministries Michael Anthony,James R.
