Embodying Data Qi Li, 2020-06-19 This book investigates a new interactive data visualisation concept that employs traditional Chinese aesthetics as a basis for exploring contemporary digital technological contexts It outlines the aesthetic approach which draws on non Western aesthetic concepts specifically the Yijing and Taoist cosmological principles and discusses the development of data based digital practices within a theoretical framework that combines traditional Taoist ideas with the digital humanities The book also offers a critique of the Western aesthetics underpinning data visualisation in particular the Kantian sublime which prioritises the experience of power over the natural world viewed at a distance Taoist philosophy in contrast highlights the integration of the surface of the body and the surface of nature as a Taoist body rather than promoting an opposition of mind and body The book then explores the transformational potential between the human body and technology particularly in creating an aesthetic approach spanning traditional Chinese aesthetics and gesture based technology Representing a valuable contribution to the digital humanities the book helps readers understand data based artistic practices while also bringing the ideas of traditional Chinese aesthetics to Western audiences In addition it will be of interest to practitioners in the fields of digital art and data visualisation seeking new models

A Companion to Ingmar Bergman Daniel Humphrey, Hamish Ford, 2025-02-25 The first book in English to address Ingmar Bergman s cinema through a broad array of classical and contemporary approaches Widely acclaimed around the world from the mid 1950s to the early 1980s Ingmar Bergman s films were often considered outmoded by the turn of the last century as exemplars of a long gone European art cinema However in more recent years his work has been reconsidered with fresh eyes recognized as speaking to global audiences about ideas of contemporary relevance such as the dysfunctions of personal romantic and family relations gender performance and sexual identity social engagement and alienation questions of racial difference and power living with and articulating challenges to mental health and the causes thereof questions of religious belief or values and their secular replacements the reality and guilt of Scandinavian and European privilege and the challenges of morally vertiginous daily life for subjects born of ever later modernity A Companion to Ingmar Bergman brings together 32 original essays by established scholars and exciting new voices in the field Representing a uniquely wide range of approaches in academic film studies and beyond the chapters that make up the volume illuminate a body of work that changed the way cinema is created defined experienced understood and interpreted Thematically organized into four parts the Companion discusses gender exploration and self representation in Bergman s cinema draws evolutionary insights from The Seventh Seal explores existential feelings and religious iconography in the early 1960s trilogy journeys through the filmmaker's island landscape in the context of cinematic tourism and much more. Throughout the book, hailing from a range of global contexts and backgrounds, the authors provide fresh insights into a deeply complex and challenging film artist often from unexpected perspectives. An innovative mixture of new scholarship and fresh updated employments of older approaches. A Companion to Ingmar Bergman Examines Bergman's cinema through methodologies as diverse as Film Philosophy, Star Studies, Bisexual Studies, Tourism Studies, Transgender Studies, and Evolutionary Studies. Applies recent and contemporary theories such as Affect Theory, Queer Theory, and Neo-Formalism to Bergman's films. Delves into the director's early period in the late 1940s, 1950s through his most challenging modernist period in the 1960s and into the 1980s. Analyzes seminal films such as The Virgin Spring and Cries and Whispers from wholly new perspectives. Engages with films long considered problematic by commentators plus unproduced Bergman screenplays including All These Women, The Petrified Prince, Face to Face, and From the Life of the Marionettes. A Companion to Ingmar Bergman is a must read for advanced undergraduate and graduate film students, postgraduate scholars, college and university lecturers, and researchers, particularly those interested in the application of classical and modern approaches to the study of twentieth-century cinema and Bergman fans around the world. Joyce in the Belly of the Big Truck; Workbook Joyce A.
