The Corinthian Correspondence Frank W. Hughes, Robert Jewett, 2021-10-19 In The Corinthian Correspondence Frank W Hughes and Robert Jewett argue that there were eight original letters by the Apostle Paul to the church in Corinth In the first part of the book they use literary and redaction criticism to show the reasons for the partition theory of 1 and 2 Corinthians Analyzing each of the eight letters and letter fragments using rhetorical criticism they show how the original Corinthian letters were edited and reshaped into 1 and 2 Corinthians in the New Testament After reflections on the rhetoric of these letters and the historical meaning of the reshaping of the images of Paul a final chapter traces the consequences of the reshaping of the Corinthian correspondence and the adoption of the bound book codex instead of the original papyrus scrolls Several figures help the reader understand the redactional process and a new translation of the eight reconstructed Corinthian letters is provided

Thiselton on Hermeneutics Anthony C. Thiselton, 2017-05-15 Hermeneutics is an interdisciplinary study of how we interpret texts especially biblical texts in the light of theories of understanding in philosophy meaning in literary theory and of theology This volume brings together the seminal thought of a leading contemporary pioneer in this field Thiselton s The Two Horizons was a classic on how horizons of biblical texts engage creatively with the horizons of the modern world The author s later New

Horizons in Hermeneutics explored still more deeply the transforming capacities of biblical texts while his massive commentary on 1 Corinthians interpreted an epistle This volume collects many of Anthony Thiselton's more notable writings from some seven books and 70 articles to which he adds his own re appraisals of earlier work It uniquely expounds the thought of a major contemporary British theologian through his own words and includes his own critical assessments

The Wisdom of the Cross and the Power of the Spirit in the Corinthian Church Cletus L. Hull, 2018-10-18 The cross of Christ crucified symbolized the central theme of Paul's ministry In his letter to the Corinthians the apostle commenced his correspondence with the message about the cross and power of God 1 Cor 1 18 NRSV The proposal for this paper utilizes the method analogia scripturae Set within the wisdom motif of the Greco Roman world this study is dedicated to the examination of the apostle's Christology in the context of 1 Cor 1 18 25 and the pneumatology in 1 Cor 2 9 16 as both pericopes are juxtaposed in his epistle Essentially the thesis concerns the grounding of the pneumatology of Paul with his Christology in 1 Corinthians The Corinthian church required clarification and pastoral wisdom with their pneumatic experiences thus Paul recognized that a strong theology of the cross complemented their encounters with the Spirit The question for biblical studies involves a lively tension of the pneumatology of the Spirit with a robust Christology Because the power of God throughout this passage has the cross as its paradigm the structure of the book leads to the significance of the apostle's pneumatological contribution of the cross and Christ crucified 1 Cor 1 18 2 2 For this reason a strong Christology must ground the pneumatology of the Pauline corpus This study in biblical literature commences a new discussion in ecumenical dialogue between pneumatic experiences in the church and christological issues in Scripture
