Reading Into Cultural Studies Martin Barker, Anne Beezer, 2003-09-02 Reading Into Cultural Studies revisits a selection of key texts central to the formation of cultural studies as a discipline and as a project These texts address questions of power ideology and the possibilities and limits of resistance Each of the eleven essays in the collection renews an early study in one area of cultural investigation bringing such seminal texts as Subculture by Dick Hebdige Loving With a Vengeance by Tania Modleski and Bond and Beyond by Tony Bennett back to the centre of attention However the essays are not purely celebratory Each study is critically examined in a number of ways for its research strategy its implicit theories of power and ideology for the empirical evidence it draws on and its conceptual framework Together the essays provide an introduction to some of the central debates and issues in cultural studies

Classic and Contemporary Readings in Sociology Ian Marsh, Rosie Campbell, Mike Keating, 2014-05-12

Classic and Contemporary Readings in Sociology introduces the reader to sociological issues theories and debates providing extracts of primary source material from both classical and contemporary theorists Theorists are examined within their historical and sociological framework and the text provides an analysis of developments in sociological thought and research The text is divided into four main sections Part One Origins and Concepts surveys the history of the discipline of sociology and examines key themes which have influenced sociological theorising and investigation in particular social control culture and socialisation Parts Two and Four Sociological Theories and Sociological Research include a number of readings from the founding theorists and investigators including Auguste Comte Emile Durkheim Karl Marx Max Weber and Charles Booth and also include more recent theoretical writing and research approaches The focus on theory and research is extended by a selection of readings centred around the theme of Differences and Inequalities Part Three these readings provide students with examples of work from an area where sociological theorising and research has been widely applied

Handbook of Reading Research P. David Pearson, Rebecca Barr, Michael L. Kamil, Peter Mosenthal, Elizabeth B. Moje, Peter Afflerbach, Patricia Enciso, Nonie K. Lesaux, 1996 The Handbook of Reading Research is the research handbook for the field Each volume has come to define the field for the period of time it covers When taken as a set the four volumes provide a definitive history of reading research Back of cover volume 4 Reading Circles, Novels and Adult Reading Development

Sam Duncan, 2012-02-23 Adult literacy teachers are constantly searching for effective engaging and distinctly adult ways to develop adult emergent reading and for at least the past two hundred years adults have formed themselves into reading circles to read and discuss novels on a weekly or monthly basis Why then are reading circles rarely used or studied in formal adult literacy provision This book explores adult reading development novel reading and reading circles in the context of a wider examination of reading pedagogies and practices in the English speaking world It discusses reading as both an individual and a communal act and investigates the relationship between literature and literacy development practice and pedagogy including a reassessment of the controversial approaches of reading aloud and phonics for adults Sam Duncan reviews a case study of an adult reading circle in a large London further education college and identifies the wider implications for the teaching and learning of adult emergent reading for the use and understanding of reading circles and for how we understand the novel reading experience more broadly Learning to Read Critically in Language and Literacy

Andrew Goodwyn, Andrew W Stables, 2004-09-14 This book has definitely aided my understanding of the processes involved in taking a critical stance and would enable me to pick out and maybe even teach the different facets of critical thinking It has also developed my knowledge in the field of language and literacy education British Journal of Educational Studies Following other volumes in the Learning to Read Critically series Learning to Read Critically in Language and Literacy aims to develop skills of critical analysis and research design It presents a series of examples of best practice in language and literacy education research at a time when literacy development and learning through language are key policy issues This book is an overview of issues in Language and Literacy Education research as well as a guide to appropriate research methods and how to do a literature survey Leading researchers present a research project together with their gloss on why they did it that way what they found or did not find and why the research worked or in some cases did not work The book is intended as a reference and teaching text for taught postgraduate courses in the area of language and literacy This series edited by Mike Wallace supports research based teaching on masters and taught doctorate courses in the humanities and social sciences fields of enquiry Each book is a three in one text designed to assist advanced course tutors and dissertation supervisors with key research based teaching tasks and aims to develop students critical understanding of research literature increase students appreciation of what can be achieved in small scale investigations similar to those which they undertake for their dissertation present students with major findings generalisations and concepts connected to their particular field
