Religion And Society Towards A Theology Of Struggle:

Religion and Society Forum for Interdisciplinary Endeavors and Studies, 1988 Religion and society Mary Rosario Battung, 1988 Toward a Theology of Struggle Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2009-02-01 The Theology of Struggle is a genuinely popular Filipino theology rooted in the history and culture of a people who have endured colonial oppression at the hands of Spain North America and Japan as well as neo colonialism and home grown dictatorship Because Christianity has played a role in assisting the history of oppression in the Philippines a theology of struggle must include a struggle in theology to wrest Christian symbols from the hands of the oppressors and return them to the poor This theology which is otherwise expressed in articles poems art and action receives its first systematic treatment in Toward a Theology of Struggle In Part One Fernandez establishes the historical and cultural context out of which the Theology of Struggle has emerged Part Two represents Fernandez's own constructive work in which he shows how a theology of struggle must address the quest for identity and peoplehood In Part Three Fernandez explores the question of theological method outlining the areas of convergence and distinction between the Theology of struggle and other Third World theologies as well as setting forth the distinctive challenge that this theology of the Philippines poses to the authority and dominance of Western theology as a whole Religion and society Mary Rosario Battung, 1988 Resisting Theologies and the Everyday Wren Radford, 2025-06-26 This powerful volume provides dynamic ways of constructing theologies of resistance and liberation by engaging with the everyday practices of marginalised communities In doing so this collection of theological experts reject abstracted concepts of bodies and taxonomies of race gender sexuality and disability Readers will find this a dynamic book with a variety of approaches that provide ways of constructing theologies of resistance and liberation Experiences of marginalisation have provided a powerful reference point for developing theologies of justice and liberation however theological and political frameworks often reduce the complexity of lived experiences into categories and themes Daily practices of resisting and surviving are frequently considered too fleshy domestic or banal to be of theological meaning Therefore Radford and their coterie of academics draw on understandings of the everyday in feminist womanist Latinx and decolonial theologies as well as in cultural theory This allows critical reflection on how theological approaches can shape alternative relations to self society and the sacred In recognising the lived and felt realities of struggling against oppressive colonial and racialised systems contributors engage with academic and activist debates about the possibilities of remaking social relations and creating other ways of knowing and being From Black theology to disabled activists on social media to queer clergy in South Africa this volume holds together differences in contributors approaches modelling the view that there is not just one form of resistance nor a single approach to constructing theology Christologies, Cultures, and Religions , Papers presented at the First Theological Forum of Mindanao 2014 Inter religious and inter cultural perspectives on how we view and understand Christ Contributors Victor Aguilan Herbert T Ale Mariano C Apilado Pascal D Bazzell Lee

Joseph Custodio Jos M de Mesa Edgar B Ebojo Eleazar S Fernandez Foreword Omar Abu Khalil Melba P Maggay Epilogue Muriel Orevillo Montenegro Aldrin M Pe amora Brian Powell Chiu Eng Tan Rico Villanueva Emo Yango Old Catholic and Philippine Independent Ecclesiologies in History Peter-Ben Smit,2011-08-25 This study researches the development of the self understanding of the Old Catholic Churches of the Union of Utrecht and the Iglesia Filipina Independiente during the 20th century with special attention for their ecclesiologies of the local and national church Life in Freedom Michael Amaladoss,2014-04-17 In Life in Freedom Michael Amaladoss analyzes the many rich and complex strands of Asian religious thought on the notion and nature of the path toward liberation As he shows Asian liberation theology departs significantly from the Latin American model with which it is commonly compared Rather than put primary emphasis on economic issues Asian cultures give much greater priority to the role of religion in the composition of a healthy society In Part One Amaladoss discusses current liberation movements and thought in Korea the Philippines and India In two other chapters he shows also that the awakening of women is integral to the search for human freedom and development and the growing importance sound ecological policies in any valid approach to liberation in Asia In Part Two Amaladoss discusses non Christian approaches to human liberation and freedom showing how the lives and thought of influential figures of other faiths have given distinctive shape to Asian approaches to liberation Buddhists such as Thich Nhat Hanh and Hindus such as Mahatma Gandhi and E V Ramaswamy show that hostility to religion is remote from the most characteristic Asian liberation movements Gandhi s entire politics was rooted in the notion that to attain Truth or to realize God is the goal of human life But God for Gandhi is realized concretely in the world and particularly in other people Service to others then becomes a way to God and ultimately to human liberation Similarly Confucian traditions embody a deeply indigenous Asian way of constructing reality as a sacred whole In that construct liberation and freedom take on meanings and dimensions functionally religious in the way they anchor individuals and the community to the cosmic whole In Part Three Amaladoss gives his own analysis and prophetic overview on how the plurality of images of liberation enriches the possibility for interreligious cooperation in overcoming the forces of oppression in Asia Jesus Of Asian Women (the) Muriel Orevillo-Montenegro,2010 The Dream Need Not Die Mariano Casuga Apilado,1999 Religion and Society Mary Rosario Battung,1988 Mystic-wanderers in the Land of Perpetual Departure Karl Gaspar,2005 Religion and Society in Latin America Lee M Penyak ,Walter J. Bar,2021-02-23 In The Spirit Shaped Church Swarup Bar argues that the church is defined by its relationship with others A relational church depends on the porousness of its borders which means that while a church has its distinctiveness it ought to be open to negotiate relational engagements with the world around it This sort of relationally distinct permeable church is found to be possible through the leading of the Spirit and the work of Christ Such engagement is found to be relevant in a plural religio cultural context and in situations of marginalization in India The Spirit Shaped Church reflects an ongoing commitment on the part of Fortress Press to engage the needs of Christian communities around the world The book is aimed at teachers clergy students and anyone with an interest in the lived experience of Christians in India Walk Together

,2007 Essays on Religion, Science, and Society Herman Bavinck,John Bolt,2008-06 The Body of Writing An Erotics of Contemporary American Fiction examines four postmodern texts whose authors play with the material conventions of the book Joseph McElroy's Plus 1977 Carole Maso's AVA 1993 Theresa Hak Kyung Cha's DICTEE 1982 and Steve Tomasula's VAS 2003 By demonstrating how each of these works calls for an affirmative engagement with literature Flore Chevaillier explores a centrally important issue in the criticism of contemporary fiction Critics have claimed that experimental literature in its disruption of conventional story telling and language uses resists literary and social customs While this account is accurate it stresses what experimental texts respond to more than what they offer This book proposes a counter view to this emphasis on the strictly privative character of innovative fictions by examining experimental works positive ideas and affects as well as readers engagement in the formal pleasure of experimentations with image print sound page orthography and syntax Elaborating an erotics of recent innovative literature implies that we engage in the formal pleasure of its experimentations with signifying techniques and with the materiality of their medium Such engagement provokes a fusion of the reader's senses and the textual material which invites a redefinition of corporeality as a kind of textual practice The Role and Meaning of Religion for Korean Society Song-Chong Lee,2019-04-25 This special issue presents discussions of the role and meaning of religion for Korean society Covering wide ranging time periods the authors explore with their own cases four major characteristics of Korean religion Creativity Greater Responsiveness Adaptability and Prophethood Their topical religious traditions include Neo Confucianism Christianity Buddhism and Korean new religious movements

Religion in Global Civil Society Mark Juergensmeyer, 2005-11-03 The extraordinary changes in world society at the beginning of the 21st century have involved religion to a degree that would have amazed earlier observers of modernity. Within the past decade religion has been associated with some of the world's most strident forms of political encounter including new movements of nationalism, the clerical leadership of political sects and the religiously motivated acts of terrorism. Religion seems to be trying to tear the planet apart even as other cultural forces seem to be trying to pull it together. The technology of the Internet, film, television, cell phones and other forms of rapid universal communication seem to be knitting the world into a single social fabric. Consumer franchises and popular culture seem to be making the world a single global city. Religion seems to be at odds with all of this. Is religion the natural enemy of globalization? The essays in this volume explore the difficulties and possibilities of a diversity of religious groups occupying the same civil society. The authors avoid simplistic generalizations. Religion, they show, is not only identified with the culture and politics of the hostile anti-urban village; it is not simply the jihad that Benjamin Barber identified as the opponent of the homogenous global culture of McWorld. True, some religious activists have blown things up. But others have tried to smooth things over. Even the religious opposition to globalization is nuanced. Some violent activists like Hindu extremists in India want a new religious state. Others like Christian militias or al Qaeda envision a transnational religious entity, a kind of religious globalization to supplant the secular one. Prophetic religious voices call for moderation, justice and environmental protection. Religion, these essays demonstrate, plays diverse and sometimes contradictory roles in the new cultural globalization. In a global culture, the shared values of different religious traditions can provide a collective sense of virtuous conduct in public life. But religion can also support the position of enemies of global society: those who see in globalization the effort to impose the values and power of one country over the others.
