Religion in the Age of Exploration Bryan F. LeBeau, Menahem Mor, Philip M. and Ethel Klutznick Chair in Jewish Civilization. Symposium, 1996 The papers in this collection commemorate the quincentennial of the Columbian encounter with the New World They focus on religion in Spain and New Spain during the years immediately surrounding Columbus first voyage providing background on events in the age of exploration Science, Philosophy and Religion in the Age of the Enlightenment John Gascoigne, 2024-10-28 Taking as its focus the wide ranging character of the Enlightenment both in geographical and intellectual terms this second collection of articles by John Gascoigne explores this movement's filiation and influence in a range of contexts In contrast to some recently influential views it emphasises the evolutionary rather than the revolutionary character of the Enlightenment and its ability to change society by adaptation rather than demolition This it does by reference firstly to developments in Britain tracing the changing views of history in relation to the Biblical account the ideological uses of science and particularly the work of Newton and their connections to developments in moral philosophy and the teaching of science and philosophy in response to Enlightenment modes of thought The collection then turns to the wider global setting of the Enlightenment and the way in which that movement served to provide a justification for European exploration and expansion developments which found one of their most potent embodiments in the diverse uses of mapping The collection concludes with an exploration of the interplay between the experience of Pacific contact and the currents of thought which characterised the Enlightenment in Germany The Age of Wars of Religion, 1000-1650

Cathal J. Nolan, 2006-04-30 The Age of Wars of Religion saw navies armies armed merchant companies and mercenaries battle one another and local potentates in many lands and along numerous shores Wars of religion were fought in and between all the major religions and civilizations from Europe to China in Africa and in the isolated Americas mixing motives of knightly idealism mercenary greed and competing claims of divine sanction This unparalleled work traces the extraordinary upheavals of the period in military technology competing theologies and civilizational change that were brought about by or impinged upon military conflict It offers nearly 2 000 discrete but cross referenced entries on cultural military religious and political history as well as geography biography and military literature Close to 2 000 entries offer detailed information on the major events places battles figures technologies and ideas one must know to begin to make sense of the past six centuries of global conflicts Though especially ferocious and intense the Wars of Reformation and Counter Reformation fought by Europeans from the 15th through 17th centuries were hardly unique in world or military history The Byzantine Empire bastion of Christian Orthodoxy staggered to the tortuous end of its long conflict with the Ottoman Empire the Great Power of the Sunni Muslim world The Ottomans in turn were still engaged in an equally ancient intra Muslim war between Sunnis and Shi'ites In India the Hindu Rajputs and Marathas and also the Sikhs organized armies around religious communities to throw off the Muslim Yoke Mughul Empire and also fought against Christian invaders from Europe As for the isolated Americas ideas of divine kingship sustained by powerful priesthoods and religious warfare also prevailed as exemplified by the Inca and Aztec empires Religion in the Media Age Stewart M. Hoover, 2025-03-14 Looking at the everyday interaction of religion and media in our cultural lives Hoover's book is a fascinating assessment of the state of modern religion This revised second edition now looks at the digital age new media and the significant role of social media on religion today While the sheer volume and variety of information traveling through global media changes modes of religious thought and commitment the human desire for spirituality also invigorates popular culture itself recreating commodities film blockbusters world sport politics and popular music as contexts for religious meanings Drawing on research into household media consumption Hoover charts the way in which media and religion have continued to intermingle and collide in the cultural experience of media audiences This second edition of Religion in the Media Age is essential reading for everyone interested in how today's mass media relates to contemporary religious and spiritual life Proceedings of the 2024 3rd

Prince Henry the Navigator, the Hero of Portugal and of Modern Discovery, 1394-1460 A.D C. Raymond Beazley, 2019-11-20 C Raymond Beazley s Prince Henry the Navigator the Hero of Portugal and of Modern Discovery 1394 1460 A D offers an insightful exploration into the pivotal role played by Prince Henry in the Age of Discovery Beazley s narrative skillfully combines rigorous historical research with an engaging literary style portraying Henry as not merely a figure of his time but as a catalyst for an era that reshaped maritime exploration The text encompasses themes of ambition innovation and the complexities of power interweaving contemporary accounts and documents that underscore the prince s influence on the burgeoning interest in the African coast and the Atlantic Ocean C Raymond Beazley a respected historian of the early modern period draws upon an extensive background in maritime history to bring clarity to Prince Henry's legacy. His comprehensive research reflects deep engagement with historical texts, cartography, and the socio-political milieu of 15th-century Portugal. Beazley's fascination with exploration and discovery is palpable as he illuminates how Henry's pursuits not only enriched Portugal but also laid the groundwork for global exploration. This book is an essential read for anyone interested in the complexities of exploration, the transformative power of leadership, and the intricate tapestry of world history. Beazley's work not only enlightens readers about Prince Henry's contributions but also encourages reflection on the broader implications of discovery in shaping modern civilization. In this enriched edition, we have carefully created added value for your reading experience. Hand-picked Memorable Quotes shine a spotlight on moments of literary brilliance. Interactive footnotes clarify unusual references, historical allusions, and archaic phrases for an effortless, more informed read.

Explorations of Spirituality in American Women's Literature Scarlett Cunningham, 2023-07-07. This book connects the aging woman to the image of God in the work of Flannery O'Connor, Joyce Carol Oates, Alicia Ostriker, Lucille Clifton, Mary Szybist, and Anne Babson. It introduces a canon of contemporary American women's spiritual literature with the goal of showing how this literature treats aging and spirituality as major connected themes. It demonstrates that such literature interacts meaningfully with feminist theology, social science research on aging and body image, attachment theory, and narrative identity theory. The book provides an interdisciplinary context for the relationship between aging and spirituality in order to confirm that US women's writing provides unique illustrations of the interconnections between aging and spirituality signaled by other fields. This book demonstrates that relationships between the human and divine remain a consistent and valuable feature of contemporary women's literature and that the divine-human relationship is under constant literary revision.

Introduction to Norway Gilad James, PhD. Norway, officially known as the Kingdom of Norway, is a Scandinavian country located in Northern Europe. It borders Sweden, Finland, and Russia to the east and the North Sea, the Norwegian Sea, and the Barents Sea to the west.
