Longest Manhunt:

Serial and Mass Murder Elizabeth A. Gurian, 2021-09-30 This book reframes the study of multicide that is serial and mass murder to use objective measures and aims to expand our understanding of multicide offending through descriptive and inferential statistical analyses of different homicide patterns of the offenders Criminal homicide and multiple murders are rare occurrences that typically account for a very small percentage of all violent crimes in most countries Despite this low occurrence homicide continues to be an area of intense study with a focus on subjective measures and classifications The research and analysis based on a database of over 1 300 cases contributes to the criminological study of violence and draws distinctions between the types of offenders partnered and solo serial and mass male and female etc from a range of different countries and across decades Traditionally studies of homicide focus on male offenders and theories of offending are then applied to females and co offenders The research presented in this book reveals that women and partnered offenders have very different homicide patterns from men Looking at the history of multicide offending this book uses descriptive and inferential statistical analyses to directly compare differences in offending and outcome patterns across multicide offender types This exploration of the multidimensionality of homicide at an international level is useful for scholars and students interested in criminal justice criminology psychology sociology or law

An Idea Whose Time Has Come Todd S. Purdum, 2014-04-01 The story of the behind the scenes political battle to pass the 1964 Civil Rights Act Excellent a highly readable play by play The Atlantic It was a turbulent time in America a time of sit ins freedom rides a March on Washington and a governor standing in the schoolhouse door when John F Kennedy sent Congress a bill to bar racial discrimination in employment education and public accommodations Countless civil rights measures had died on Capitol Hill in the past But this one was different because as one influential senator put it it was an idea whose time has come In this revealing book Todd S Purdum tells the story of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 recreating the legislative maneuvering and the larger than life characters who made its passage possible From the Kennedy brothers to Lyndon Johnson from Martin Luther King Jr to Hubert Humphrey and Everett Dirksen Purdum shows how these all too human figures managed in just over a year to create a bill that prompted the longest filibuster in the history of the US Senate yet was ultimately adopted with overwhelming bipartisan support He evokes the high purpose and low dealings that marked the creation of this monumental law drawing on extensive archival research and dozens of new interviews that bring to life this signal achievement in American history an example in our own troubled time of what is possible when bipartisanship decency and patience rule the day Brilliantly rendered and emotionally powerful a riveting account of one of the most dramatic and significant moments in American history Doris Kearns Goodwin Today s reader will be startled if not astonished by how the bill made its way through Congress The Washington Post Worthy timely and intelligent The New Yorker A first rate narrative The Wall Street Journal

Romantic Outlaws, Beloved Prisons Martha Grace Duncan,1999-09 An ex convict struggles with his addictive yearning for prison A law abiding citizen broods over his pleasure in violent illegal acts A prison warden loses his job because he is so successful in rehabilitating criminals These are but a few of the intriguing stories Martha Grace Duncan examines in her bold interdisciplinary book Romantic Outlaws Beloved Prisons Duncan writes This is a book about paradoxes and mingled yarns about the bright sides of dark events the silver linings of sable clouds She portrays upright citizens who harbor a strange liking for criminal deeds and criminals who conceive of prison in positive terms as a nurturing mother an academy a matrix of spiritual rebirth or a refuge from life s trivia In developing her unique vision Duncan draws on literature history psychoanalysis and law Her work reveals a nonutopian world in which criminals and non criminals while injuring each other in obvious ways nonetheless live together in a symbiotic as well as an adversarial relationship needing each other serving each other enriching each other s lives in profound and surprising fashion
