Moore,2010-02-03 AT BETHANY Sermons and Essays is a collection of some of the most effective and thought provoking works of the author during his tenure at Bethany Christian Church in Houston a church known for sound preaching since its founding by Dr Elmer D Henson in 1947 These writings bring the Gospel of Christ to bear upon issues of political and social concern such as war poverty and the environment as well as matters of personal discipleship The Science of Evolution and the Myth of Creationism Ardea Skybreak,2006-09-01 This clear lively and systematic presentation examines the scientific evidence for evolution and reaches for the widest possible audience from scientific minds to those with no science background at all Forcefully rejecting creationist objections to evolution and including a critique of Intelligent Design it argues that they are part of a larger social agenda With discussion that celebrates the fascination to be found in studying the diversity and complexity of life this examination suggests with some urgency that the science of evolution is crucial to the existence of science itself The Works of ... E. H. ... Arranged and Revised with a Life of the Author ... by J. Pratt Ezekiel HOPKINS (successively Bishop of Raphoe and of Derry.),1809 My Second Childhood K. L. Smith,2025-03-17 My Second Childhood is a collection of my random thoughts and memories I have lived through my first childhood and many years of being an adult Everything has seasons in the sun including us The spring summer and fall of my life have passed too quickly I am now living in the winter of my life or as some may call it my second childhood I consider it a blessing to have lived long enough to reach old age It is a gift that everyone does not receive I have released myself from the binding ties of doing what others think I should do I am no longer obligated to employers nor bonded by schedules I have turned the child in me loose to enjoy the last days of my life I am grateful that God has allowed me and my husband of nearly sixty years to enjoy our second childhood together I have time to sit for hours and reminisce and remember moments from my past I have time to analyze stories that were told to me by my ancestors about my family s history I wonder how much of the stories are true and complete Have there been parts of the stories omitted Relatives who have been disowned may not have been included in the accounts of the past We all have secrets and stories that we will never tell What secrets have not been told in these stories Are the stories altered or enhanced to make the past more glorified or sensational There are many questions that I wish I had asked my relatives while they were still alive The answers to these questions will probably go unanswered Over the years I have heard varying accounts of the same stories of our family's history from my younger ancestors. Their stories are not congruent with the family history told to me from the lips of my ancestors. Their stories do not track with the things that I myself experienced and observed in the presence of my long deceased relatives. I was there in the flesh with some of these relatives. I can still close my eyes and see them in my mind's eyes. I can still hear their voices in my mind's ears. I remember these relatives and what they were like. In the pages of this book, I have written stories about friends and relatives from my past and present. I have written a partial accounting of my family's history according to how it was told to me and from my personal observations and experiences. As I get older, I find that a lot of things no longer matter. It does not matter to me who my relatives were or where they came from. All that matters is that I was born and had the privilege of living the four seasons of my life in God's beautiful world. Ultimately, we are all God's children and brothers and sisters in Christ. We are all connected through God.

Daughters of Eve Grace

Makau, 2020-02-29 Understanding gender neutral deficit may be misconstrued; the context is ideal for this day and age. This book is timely, precise, and speaks to the generations of women living in today's world. Since the beginning, Eve and her descendants thereof have been the blame for all ills befalling mankind. She's either too much this or too much of that. The author seeks to explore the ills for generations to come, identifying with caution to attempt to bring balance, healing to what's broken. For generations, daughters of mankind were not recognized as part of a system created by their counterparts; therefore, abided by structures put together by their others. Thanks to the deceitfulness of the male disposition that instituted this conflict of the sexes, perfectionisms, competitions, evaluation, and/or appraisals, criticisms, and judgments are all fundamental and have been a part of this jumble. This book is about for generations. Cultures that were cultivated or instituted appealed to the man, his rights, his powers, and his dominance in society, but women weren't allowed or afforded the same privileges and were forced to be subject to powers. I heard a preacher say one time that conception is a pleasurable, sweet process for men, yet excruciating for women. Paraphrased Thompson: Men in many cultures get glory in childbearing, leaving out and clouding the drudgery involving these growing pains and labor of love. Women get exposed to. To this day, women are still fighting for recognition, having been in the dark for centuries. Female genital mutilations still take place in some remote cultures. Childhood marriages, honored in some religions, economic empowerment in western mores, still a hot debate with men earning more than women, and a Patriarchal system of government still in place, inspired the title Daughters of Eve in reflection to the structure in place to recognize the labor-intensive processes mothers go through in reproduction, giving the hand that rocks the cradle the honor they deserve.
