Looking Back James F. Queenan, 2011-08-11 Judge Queenan tells a very human story of his life family and travels withholding no family secrets Included is an account of his diverse and evolving career as a lawyer who handled business transactions drafted estate plans tried cases and at the end found greatest satisfaction in representing corporations reorganizing under chapter 11 He tells of the losing party in one case sending a bomb in the mail to his client We also learn of the disastrous results of a Ponzi scheme that used ruses similar to those of Bernard Madoff Judge Queenans high values and commitment to due process of law are apparent throughout He is still troubled by the prejudicial effect of the press conferences held by the district attorney in the Brinks armed robbery case which came before the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts when he was a young law clerk with the court In giving an account of his years on the bench a time when he was also teaching in law school Judge Queenan makes law and trials understandable to the layman He rejects the notion that bankruptcy is a refuge for the dishonest and lazy and he decries the countrys toxic fascination with debt taking special aim at abusive leveraged buy outs of corporations He recalls memorable witnesses and lawyers tells how he determined who was lying and explains what he did to reduce the length of trials Perhaps most informative of all he describes how a judge makes law rather than just grabbing a rule off the shelf A former campaign worker for Robert Kennedy Judge Queenan shows his passion for politics He gives a critique of the Supreme Courts 2000 decision in Bush v Gore which handed the presidency to George W Bush As one who demonstrated against the war in Iraq before the war began he examines the wars terrible consequences and traces its long political fallout that contributed to the election of Barack Obama for whom the judge delivers a unique panegyric

Austria Chairman WG Market Consistency of Groupe Consultatif The Orange County Fair: A History of Celebration

Chris Epting, 2015-07-20 The Orange County Fair is one of Southern California's most anticipated summer events. From its first year in 1890 with a few livestock exhibits and horse races, the fair evolved into what is now a month-long extravaganza of rides, games, and entertainment that still celebrates the importance of local agriculture. Millions of visitors have crowded the grounds over the years to enjoy the spectacle of everything from ostrich races and demolition derbies to its unique Centennial Farm and the time-honored All-Alaskan pig race. Author Chris Epting recounts more than a century of community history and revelry at the OC Fair. Routledge Library Editions: Philosophy of Time Various Authors, 2021-03-05 Reissuing five works originally published between 1937 and 1991, this collection contains books addressing the subject of time from a mostly philosophic point of view but also of interest to those in the science and mathematics worlds. These texts are brought back into print in this small set of works addressing how we think about time, the history of the philosophy of time, the measurement of time, theories of relativity, and discussions of the wider thinking about time and space among other aspects. One volume is a thorough bibliography collating references on the subject of time across many disciplines. An Address
