Louvre & Tuileries Jean-Claude Daufresne, 1987 Space, Images, and Art Perception in Napoleonic Paris Camilla Murgia, 2025-10-01 This book examines the impact of space on the perception of art and visual culture in early nineteenth century Paris. It turns its attention to the way in which space determines the understanding and the development of visual culture. The abundance of images, their status and their employment alike offer a means to grasp the extent of the development of an approach to art which further involved the spectator. Space is here conceived as a multifaceted entity spanning architectural, scholarly, artistic and visual dimensions. These various aspects offer means to consider the way in which images work and are consumed and the individual experience they represent. Space works as a link and a connecting tool between different intellectual and visual categories and this study examines how this interaction applies to works of art as well as everyday objects.

Modernity Reimagined: An Analytic Guide Chandra Mukerji, 2016-12-19 Winner of the American Sociological Association's Distinguished Book Award in 2012 Chandra Mukerji offers with this remarkable new book an explanation of the birth and subsequent proliferation of the many strands in the braid of modernity. The journey she takes us on is dedicated to teasing those strands apart using forms of cultural analysis from the social sciences to approach history with fresh eyes. Faced with the problem of trying to understand what is hardest to see, the familiar, she gains analytic distance and clarity by juxtaposing cultural analysis with history, asking how modernity began and how people conjured into existence the world we now recognize as modern. Part I describes the genesis of key modern social forms: the modern self, communities of strangers, the modern state and the industrial world economy. Part II focuses on modern social types: races, genders and childhood. Part III focuses on some of the cultural artifacts and activities of the contemporary world that people have invented and used to cope with the burdens of self-making and to react against the broken promises of modern discourse and the silent injuries of material modernism. Beautifully illustrated with over 100 color photographs in its 10 chapters MODERNITY REIMAGINED is not just an explanation, an analysis of how modern life came to be; it is also a model for how to do cultural thinking about today's world.

Making Modern Paris Christopher Curtis Mead, 2012 Investigates how architecture, technology, politics and urban planning came together in French architect Victor Baltard's creation of the Central Markets of Paris. Presents a case study of the historical process that produced modern Paris.
