Places In Political Time Voices From The Black Diaspora:

Places in Political Time Earnest N. Bracey, 2005 Places in Political Time approaches the black African Diaspora phenomenon from a new perspective considering cultural myths history allegories and other stories which present the human condition from a black American perspective The essays describe and evaluate tough questions on racism and uncomfortable truths about people within the Black Diaspora exploring how people of color interact with themselves and dominate cultures

An Evening with Frederick Douglass Earnest N. Bracey, 2019-02-12 Frederick Douglass was a runaway slave who fled north and overcame incredible adversity and extreme hardships to become one of the greatest abolitionists of his time Douglass who was best known for his writings and oratorical career was passionate about fighting the horrors of white supremacy and liberating former black slaves in the United States In this two act play Dr Earnest Bracey a professor of African American history not only allows others to learn about American slavery and the universal truths of race and the humanity of all people but also shares tantalizing facts about Douglass s celebrated life that highlight his best traits like self control dignity and grace under pressure Additionally Bracey invites others into a world that emphasizes the contributions and accomplishments African Americans made in shaping our divisive culture while vividly describing how black people managed to survive their enslavement despite obstacles such as lynchings Black Codes Jim Crow laws and legal segregation

An Evening with Frederick Douglass provides a glimpse into the life of a much admired orator and abolitionist who accomplished great feats during an ugly time in American history Petrified Life and Other Short Stories Earnest N. Bracey, 2007-07 This provocative book tries to give a modern day voice to the Black American experience as it vividly painstakingly and accurately depicts the sad and continuing struggles of the descendants of Black African slaves in the United States This mesmerizing work further weaves the human tragedy social boundaries pathetic comedy jubilation alienation and racial conflicts Black Americans face with whites or the dominant group every day particularly in the Southern States The fateful tales in this collection also realistically portray Black Americans in contemporary settings in the New South especially in regards to their coping mechanisms and survival techniques The background for most of these captivating stories centers or focuses primarily in the Deep South This remarkable book finally touches all the raw nerves as it presents the observable truth of black life and living without restraint cautious detachment false candor or disingenuousness

Black Judas John David Smith, 2019-11-15 William Hannibal Thomas 1843 1935 served with distinction in the U S Colored Troops in the Civil War in which he lost an arm and was a preacher teacher lawyer state legislator and journalist following Appomattox In many publications up through the 1890s Thomas espoused a critical though optimistic black nationalist ideology After his mid twenties however Thomas began exhibiting a self destructive personality one that kept him in constant trouble with authorities and always on the run His book The American Negro 1901 was his final self destructive act Attacking African Americans in gross and insulting language in this utterly pessimistic book Thomas blamed them for the contemporary

Negro problem and argued that the race required radical redemption based on improved character not changed color Vague in his recommendations Thomas implied that blacks should model themselves after certain mulattoes most notably William Hannibal Thomas Black Judas is a biography of Thomas a publishing history of The American Negro and an analysis of that book's significance to American racial thought The book is based on fifteen years of research including research in postamputation trauma and psychoanalytic theory on self-hatred to assess Thomas's metamorphosis from a constructive race critic to a black Negrophobe John David Smith argues that his radical shift resulted from key emotional and physical traumas that mirrored Thomas's life history of exposure to white racism and intense physical pain Encyclopedia of the Sixties

Abbe A. Debolt, James S. Baugess, 2011-12-12 Comedian Robin Williams said that if you remember the 60s you weren't there This encyclopedia documents the people places movements and culture of that memorable decade for those who lived it and those who came after Encyclopedia of the Sixties A Decade of Culture and Counterculture surveys the 1960s from January 1960 to December 1969 Nearly 500 entries cover everything from the British television cult classic The Avengers to the Vietnam War and the civil rights movement The two volume work also includes biographies of artists architects authors statesmen military leaders and cinematic stars concentrating on what each individual accomplished during the 1960s with brief postscripts of their lives beyond the period There was much more to the Sixties than flower power and LSD and the entries in this encyclopedia were compiled with an eye to providing a balanced view of the decade Thus unlike works that emphasize only the radical and revolutionary aspects of the period to the exclusion of everything else these volumes include the political and cultural Right taking a more academic than nostalgic approach and helping to fill a gap in the popular understanding of the era Diverse Pathways Kevin J. A. Thomas, 2014-06-01 Africans are among the fastest growing immigrant groups in the United States Although they are racially and ethnically diverse few studies have examined how these differences affect their patterns of incorporation into society This book is the first to highlight the role of race and ethnicity Arab ethnicity in particular in shaping the experiences of African immigrants It demonstrates that American conceptions of race result in significant inequalities in the ways in which African immigrants are socially integrated Thomas argues that suggestions that Black Africans are model minorities who have overcome the barriers of race are misleading showing that Black and Arab ethnicity Africans systematically experience less favorable socioeconomic outcomes than their White African counterparts Overall the book makes three critical arguments First historical and contemporary constructions of race have important implications for understanding the dynamics of African immigration and settlement in the United States Second there are significant racial inequalities in the social and economic incorporation of contemporary African immigrants Finally Arab ethnicity has additional implications for understanding intra racial disparities in incorporation among contemporary African immigrants In general these arguments are foundational for understanding the diversity of African immigrant experiences Bibliographic Index, 2008 The Comedy of War Earnest N. Bracey, 2006-10-30 The Comedy of War is an overview of military politics strategy and the causes of war utilizing books and films as source texts The Art of War by Sun Tzu on War by Prussian General Carl von Clausewitz and The Butter Battle by Dr Seuss the films Antz and A Bug's Life This work offers systematic interpretations of what goes on before and after war and the political and strategic implications of warfare It provides interesting and plausible explanations for the contentious relationship of military officers and civilian leaders ultimately questioning what happens when the definitions of military and civilian activities become blurred

Politics of African Anticolonial Archive Shiera S. el-Malik, Isaac A. Kamola, 2017-03-03 African political writing of the mid 20th century seeks to critically engage with questions of identity history and the state for the purpose of national and human liberation This volume collects an array of essays that reflect on anticolonialism in Africa broadly defined Each contribution connects the historical period with the anticolonial present through a critical examination of what constitutes the anticolonial archive The volume considers archive in a Derridean sense as always in the process of being constructed such that the assessment of the African anticolonial archive is one that involves a contemporary process of curating The essays in this volume as well as the volume itself enact different ways of curating material from this period The project reflects an approach to documents arguments and materials that can be considered international relations and world politics but in ways that intentionally leaves them unhinged from these disciplinary meanings While we examine many of the same questions that have been asked within area studies African studies and International Relations we do so through an alternative archive In doing so we challenge the assumption that Africa is solely the domain of policy makers and area studies and African peoples as the objects of data

Performance, Art, and Politics in the African Diaspora Myron Beasley, 2023-03-29 This book examines necropolitics and performance art with a particular focus on the black body and the African diaspora In this book Myron M Beasley situates artists as cultural workers and theorists who illuminate the political linkages between their own and others specific locales The focus is an interrogation of the political systems that dictate and determine the value of lives and decide which lives matter through a lens of performance and art Beasley highlights how the performances of rupture which are of artistic and historical significance reveal both strategies of survival and promises of possibility Artists and curators examined include Jelili Atiku Giscard Bouchotte Nona Faustine Vanessa German Simone Leigh Nathalie Anguezomo Mba Bikoro Ebony G Patterson and Dianne Smith The volume is an ideal research and reference book for students and scholars of Contemporary Art African Studies and Performance Theory

Becoming African Americans Clare Corbould, 2009-03-31 In 2000 the United States census allowed respondents for the first time to tick a box marked African American in the race category The new option marked official recognition of a term that had been gaining currency for some decades Africa has always played a role in black identity but it was in the tumultuous period between the two world wars that black Americans first began to embrace a modern African American identity Following the great migration of black southerners to northern cities after World War I the search for roots and for meaningful affiliations became subjects of debate and display in a growing black public sphere Throwing off the legacy of slavery and segregation black intellectuals activists and organizations sought a prouder past in ancient Egypt and forged links to contemporary Africa In plays pageants dance music film literature and the visual arts they aimed to give stature and solidity to the American black community through a new awareness of the African past and the international black world Their consciousness of a dual identity anticipated the hyphenated identities of new immigrants in the years after World War II and an emerging sense of what it means to be a modern American

Voices and Places Lene Asp, 2024-09-24 This dissertation challenges the conventional narrative of Danish colonial history by critiquing the predominant reliance on textual records and archives as primary carriers of historical knowledge Through case studies focused on landscape and landscaping practices it offers an alternative approach to understanding the past by actively engaging with material heritage in what is conceptualized as a vibrant archive Utilizing interdisciplinary and practice led methodologies from cultural and memory studies to ecocriticism the research examines and engages with colonial history through case studies in dialog with contemporary interlocutors Emphasizing the dynamic nature of landscapes as vibrant archives in the making building on Jane Bennett s concept of vibrant matter the dissertation underscores their capacity to both shape and be shaped by diverse actors and forces This perspective prioritizes ethical considerations in preserving and interpreting cultural heritage aiming to foster inclusivity and resilience in shaping future landscapes As landscapes embody multiple pasts that transcend national borders they reveal a global network of interconnected material heritage However prevailing historical understandings often prioritize certain discursive national formations limiting a comprehensive grasp of global connectivity By exploring contemporary investments in constructing new relational pasts the dissertation seeks to broaden the analytical scope and challenge such dominant narratives Through an exploration of colonial trauma and the enduring impacts of historical violence the research delves into the entangled relationships between past present and future Additionally the dissertation investigates the role of sound recordings in creating immersive narratives and enhancing the communication of findings offering insights into preservation efforts cultural revitalization projects and community led initiatives in a contemporary context Throughout the research there is a consistent advocacy for a more just and inclusive approach to caring for the colonial archive within the context of colonial exploitation and ecological crisis This emphasis on interconnectedness across social environmental and cultural dynamics highlights the urgent need to reckon with colonial legacies to promote social and environmental justice

Denna avhandling utmanar den konventionella berättelsen om dansk kolonialhistoria genom att kritisera den rådande skrivningen som skrivna dokument och arkiv har i förmedlingen av historisk kunskap Via fallstudier som fokuserar på landskap och landskapspraktiker erbjuder den ett alternativt tillvägagångssätt för att förstå det förflutna genom att aktivt engagera sig med materiellt arv i det som conceptualiseras som ett vibrerande arkiv Med hjälp av tvärvetenskapliga och praxisbaserade metoder från kultur och minnesstudier till ekokritik undersöks kolonialhistorien i fallstudier i dialog med samtida samtalspartner

Genom att betona landskapens dynamiska natur som vibrerande arkiv under uppbyggnad med utgångspunkt i Jane Bennetts begrepp vibrerande materia framhåller avhandlingen deras förmåga att bilda former och formas av olika aktörer och krafter. Detta perspektiv lyfter fram etiska värden i bevarandet och tolkningen av kulturellt arv med målet att främja inkludering och resiliens i utformningen av framtida landskap. Eftersom landskap förkroppsligar flera skepnader av det förflutna som verskrider nationsgränser vittnar de om ett globalt nätverk av sammanlänkade materiellt arv. Emellertid betonar rändande historiska föreställningar ofta vissa diskursiva nationella formationer vilket begränsar en heltäckande föreställning av en global sammanlänkning. Genom att utforska samtida ansatser att konstruera det förflutna som multipelt och relationellt strävar avhandlingen efter att bredda den analytiska ramen och utmana sådana dominerande berättelser. Koloniala trauman och de bestående effekterna av historiskt val utforskas vilket leder till en fördjupad föreställning av de sammanflätade relationerna mellan förflutet, nutid och framtid. Dessutom undersöker avhandlingen ljudinspelningars roll i att skapa immersiva berättelser och förbättra kommunikationen av forskningsresultat och erbjuder insikter i bevarandeinsatser, kulturella revitaliseringsprojekt och samhällsledda initiativ i en samtida kontext. Genomgående förserkas i avhandlingen ett mer rättvist och inkluderande tillvägagångssätt när det gäller omsorgen om det koloniala arkivet inom ramen för kolonial exploatering och ekologisk kris. Denna betoning på sammanlänkning av sociala miljöer och kulturella dynamiker framhåller det akuta behovet av att hantera det koloniala arvet för att främja social och miljömedvetenhet. Slavery and the Politics of Place Elizabeth A. Bohls, 2014-10-23 This book analyzes representations of the places of British slavery Africa the Caribbean and Britain in writings by planters slaves and travellers The Black Chicago Renaissance Darlene Clark Hine, John McCluskey, 2012-06-15 Beginning in the 1930s Black Chicago experienced a cultural renaissance that lasted into the 1950s and rivaled the cultural outpouring in the Harlem Renaissance of the 1920s The contributors to this volume analyze this prolific period of African American creativity in music performance art social science scholarship and visual and literary artistic expression Unlike Harlem Chicago was an urban industrial center that gave a unique working class and internationalist perspective to the cultural work being done in Chicago This collection's various essays discuss the forces that distinguished the Black Chicago Renaissance from the Harlem Renaissance and placed the development of black culture in a national and international context Among the topics discussed in this volume are Chicago writers Gwendolyn Brooks and Richard Wright The Chicago Defender and Tivoli Theater African American music and visual arts and the American Negro Exposition of 1940 Contributors are Hilary Mac Austin David T Bailey Murry N DePillars Samuel A Floyd Jr Erik S Gellman Jeffrey Helgeson Darlene Clark Hine John McCluskey Jr Christopher Robert Reed Elizabeth Schlabach and Clovis E Semmes Political Geography Rachael Squire, Anna Jackman, 2023-11-01 This innovative and thought provoking text will teach you about the diverse and increasingly expansive sub discipline of geopolitics Divided into three sections Political Geography draws on case studies from a diverse range of scales contexts and demographics to introduce you to the key approaches

The Other Special Relationship R. Kelley, S. Tuck, 2016-02-22 The close diplomatic economic and military ties that comprising the special relationship between the United States and Great Britain have received plenty of attention from historians over the years Less frequently noted are the countries shared experiences of empire white supremacy racial inequality and neoliberalism and the attendant struggles for civil rights and political reform that have marked their recent history This state of the field collection traces the contours of this other special relationship exploring its implications for our understanding of the development of an internationally interconnected civil rights movement Here scholars from a range of research fields contribute essays on a wide variety of themes from solidarity protests to calypso culture to white supremacy

The International Politics of Mass Atrocities David R. Black, Paul D. Williams, 2010-01-04 The ongoing crisis in Darfur Sudan has stimulated a huge amount of political and academic interest across the world The crisis has been both reflective and constitutive of key areas of contestation and change within contemporary international society This book examines the crisis in Darfur as a case study of some of the wider debates currently taking place within International Relations theory Using the conceptual framework developed by English School theorists specifically their concept of international society and the related idea of good international citizenship this book examines a wide range of issues foreign policy analysis theories of norm diffusion international organizations peace operations international criminal justice and war law the causes and nature of contemporary warfare and the international relations of Africa Making an important contribution to the debate about the meaning and limits of international society this book will be of interest to students and scholars international relations theory international security foreign policy international organizations human rights African politics genocide studies and international law
