Sectionalism Unmasked (Classic Reprint) Henry Edwin Tremain, 2015-07-10 Excerpt from Sectionalism Unmasked Whoever carries a mental kodak with him as I suspect I was in the habit of doing long before I knew it must be aware of the uncertain value of different exposures This can only be determined by the process of development which requires a dark room and other apparatus not always at hand and so much depends upon the process that it might be well if it always be left to someone who makes a specialty of it as in the case of the real amateur photographer Then once faulty impressions might be so treated as to yield a pictorial result of interest or frankly thrown away if it showed hopeless to the instructed eye Otherwise one must do one's own developing and trust the result whatever it is to the imaginative kindness of the reader who will surely if he is the right sort of reader be able to sharpen the blurred details to soften the harsh lines and to blend the shadows in a subordination giving due relief to the best meaning of the print This is what I fancy myself to be doing now and if anyone shall say that my little pictures are superficial I shall not be able to gainsay him I can only say that most pictures represent the surface of things but at the same time I can fully share the disappointment of those who would prefer some such result as the employment of the Roentgen rays would have given if applied to certain aspects of the world William Dean Howells London Films Once to every man and nation comes the moment to decide In the strife of Truth with Falsehood for the good or evil side Some great cause God s new Messiah offering each the bloom or blight Parts the goats upon the left hand and the sheep upon the right And the choice goes by forever twixt that darkness and that light Hast thou chosen O my people on whose party thou shalt stand Ere the Doom from its worn sandals shakes the dust against our land Though the cause of Evil prosper yet amid the market s din List the ominous stern whisper from the Delphic cave within They enslave their children s children who make compromise with sin James Russell Lowell About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Problem South Natalie J. Ring, 2012-04-01 For most historians the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries saw the hostilities of the Civil War and the dashed hopes of Reconstruction give way to the nationalizing forces of cultural reunion a process that is said to have downplayed sectional grievances and celebrated racial and industrial harmony In truth says Natalie J Ring this buoyant mythology competed with an equally powerful and far reaching set of representations of the backward Problem South one that shaped and reflected attempts by northern philanthropists southern liberals and federal experts to rehabilitate and reform the country s benighted region Ring rewrites the history of sectional reconciliation and demonstrates how this group used the persuasive language of social science and regionalism to reconcile the paradox of poverty and progress by suggesting that the region was moving through an evolutionary period of readjustment toward a more perfect state of civilization In addition The Problem South contends that the transformation of the region into a mission field and laboratory for social change took place in a transnational moment of reform Ambitious efforts to improve the economic welfare of the southern farmer eradicate such diseases as malaria and hookworm educate the southern populace uplift poor whites and solve the brewing race problem mirrored the colonial problems vexing the architects of empire around the globe It was no coincidence Ring argues that the regulatory state s efforts to solve the southern problem and reformers increasing reliance on social scientific methodology occurred during the height of U S imperial expansion Bulletin ... of

were attempting through a bold act of renaming to change the way blacks were depicted and perceived in America By challenging stereotypes of the Old Negro and declaring that the New Negro was capable of high achievement black writers tried to revolutionize how whites viewed blacks and how blacks viewed themselves Nothing less than a strategy to re create the public face of the race the New Negro became a dominant figure of racial uplift between Reconstruction and World War II as well as a central idea of the Harlem or New Negro Renaissance Edited by Henry Louis Gates Jr and Gene Andrew Jarrett The New Negro collects more than one hundred canonical and lesser known essays published between 1892 and 1938 that examine the issues of race and representation in African American culture These readings by writers including W E B Du Bois Paul Laurence Dunbar Alain Locke Carl Van Vechten Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright discuss the trope of the New Negro and the milieu in which this figure existed from almost every conceivable angle Political essays are joined by essays on African American fiction poetry drama music painting and sculpture More than fascinating historical documents these essays remain essential to the way African American identity and history are still understood today
