Seductive Resistance: The Poetry of Théophile Gautier Constance Gosselin Schick, 2023-10-16 Gautier's poetry merits an attentive reading which respects his own essential criterion of poeticity namely textuality This is a poetry which puts on display its literariness that is its existence as cultural artifact In so doing however it also puts on display the absence of and its resistance to whatever personal or real signified it would evoke or name Its beauty and self-indulgent pleasure reveal their hollowness and inadequacy Its chiseled polished surface renders its borders or limits and its play unsatisfyingly and teasingly perceptible Its very superficiality allows invites and seduces the reader to go entre les lignes and perceive the mystery not of what has been symbolically buried unburied concealed revealed but of the truly absent the ab mes superficiels Chapter 1 focusing on texts from the Poésies of 1830 studies the intextual repetition of Gautier's poetry the citations imitations and transpositions which make evident the poetry's displacement of the significant and the personal into aesthetic simulacra Chapter 2 deals with the poems of Gautier's second collection Albertus and analyzes the use of allegory and of humor as further markers of textual substitution The inherent lifelessness and illusoriness of the textual artifact is revealed in the poems of La Com die de la Mort the collection examined in chapter 3 Chapter 4 analyzes the so called descriptive referential poetry of Espa a and finds that the monde ext rieur of Gautier s poetry functions to express an absence of self and is itself always shown to be other than the Other The diminution of the poetic effected in Emaux et Cam es is the subject of chapter 5 and chapter 6 deals with the contextuality the fetishism and the eroticism revealed in a miscellany of poems in particular the libertine poems which do not figure in Gautier s five major collections By short circuiting significations and transforming them into seductive appearances Gautier reveals himself to be the acknowledged ma tre of both Baudelaire and Mallarm

At War with Metaphor Erin Steuter, Deborah Wills, 2009-07-15 When photographs documenting the torture and humiliation of prisoners at Abu Ghraib came to the attention of a horrified public national and international voices were raised in shock asking how this happened At War with Metaphor offers an answer arguing that the abuses of Abu Ghraib were part of a systemic continuum of dehumanization This continuum has its roots in our public discussions of the war on terror and the metaphors through which they are repeatedly framed Arguing earnestly and incisively that these metaphors if left unexamined bind us into a cycle of violence that will only be intensified by a responsive violence of metaphor Steuter and Wills examine compelling examples of the images of animal insect and disease that inform shape and limit our understanding of the war on terror Tying these images to historical and contemporary uses of propaganda through a readable accessible analysis of media filters At War with Metaphor vividly explores how news media including political cartoons and talk radio are enmeshed in these damaging dehumanizing metaphors Analyzing media through the lenses of race and Orientalism it invites us to hold our media and ourselves accountable for the choices we make in talking war and making enemies
