Seeing Stone Arthur One:

The Seeing Stone (The Arthur Trilogy #1) Kevin Crossley-Holland, 2010-01-01 Arthurian legend comes to life in the first novel in this remarkable award winning saga. Thirteen year old Arthur de Caldicot lives on a manor desperately waiting for the moment he can become a knight. One day his father's friend Merlin gives him a shining black stone, a seeing stone that shows him visions of his namesake King Arthur. The legendary dragons battles and swordplay that young Arthur witnesses seem a world away from his own life. And yet there is something definitely joining the Arthurs together. It will be Arthur de Caldicot's destiny to discover how his path is intertwined with a king's for the past is not the only thing the seeing stone can see. A Bibliography of Modern Arthuriana (1500-2000) Ann F. Howey, Stephen Ray Reimer, 2006 Annotated bibliography of the Arthurian legend in modern English language fiction, not only in literary texts but in television, music, and art. The legend of Arthur has been a source of fascination for writers and artists in English since the fifteenth century when Thomas Malory drew together for the first time in English a variety of Arthurian stories from a number of sources to form the Morte Darthur. It increased in popularity during the Victorian era when, after Tennyson's treatment of the legend, not only authors and dramatists but painters, musicians, and film makers found a source of inspiration in the Arthurian material. This interdisciplinary annotated bibliography lists the Arthurian legend in modern English language fiction from 1500 to 2000, including literary texts, film, television, music, visual art, and games. It will prove an invaluable source of reference for students of literary and visual arts, general readers, collectors, librarians, and cultural historians, indeed by anyone interested in the history of the ways in which Camelot has figured in post-medieval English speaking cultures. ANN F. HOWEY is Assistant Professor at Brock University, Canada. STEPHEN R. REIMER is Associate Professor at the University of Alberta, Canada.
