Select Documents of English Constitutional History George Burton Adams, Henry Morse Stephens, 1904 English Political and Constitutional History, 1600-1900 George Elliott Howard, 1902 A Constitutional History of England A. M. Chambers, 1911 A Guide to the Study of English History ... L. J. McNair, 1912 The Parliament of England, 1559-1581 Geoffrey Rudolph Elton, G. R. Elton, 1989-08-25 This is a comprehensive account of the parliament of early modern England at work written by the leading authority on sixteenth century English constitutional and political history Professor Elton explains how parliament dealt with bills and acts discusses the many various matters that came to notice there and investigates its role in political matters In the process he proves that the prevailing doctrine developed by the work of Sir John Neale is wrong that parliament did not acquire a major role in politics that the notion of a consistent body of puritan agitators in opposition to the government is mere fiction and although the Commons processed more bills than the House of Lords the Lords occupied the more important and influential role Parliament's fundamental function in the government of the realm lay rather in the granting of taxes and the making of laws The latter were promoted by a great variety of interests the Crown the Privy Council the bishops and particularly by innumerable private initiators A very large number of bills failed most commonly for lack of time but also because agreement between the three partners Queen Lords and Commons could not be reached Sessional Papers Ontario. Legislative Assembly, 1909
