Selected Correspondance Of Kenneth Burke And Malcolm Cowley 1915 1981:

The Selected Correspondence of Kenneth Burke and Malcolm Cowley, 1915-1981 Kenneth Burke, Malcolm Cowley, 1990-01-01 This portrays an extraordinary literary friendship unique in American letters for its longevity and it chronicles the lives and events that helped shape modern literature and criticism The Selected Correspondence of Kenneth Burke and Malcolm Cowley Kenneth Burke, 1988 The Rhetorical Imagination of Kenneth Burke Ross Wolin, 2001 Blending the genres of biography intellectual history and rhetorical theory this study presents an analysis of Burke's 1897 1993 early essays and his eight theoretical works placing them in the context of their social and political history Wolin humanities and rhetoric Boston University casts each work as a re articulation and extension of the ideas imbedded in Burke's previous efforts The tactics of conflict cooperation and motivation are emphasized c Book News Inc

Civic Jazz Gregory Clark, 2015-02-25 Jazz is born of collaboration improvisation and listening In much the same way the American democratic experience is rooted in the interaction of individuals It is these two seemingly disparate but ultimately thoroughly American conceits that Gregory Clark examines in Civic Jazz Melding Kenneth Burke's concept of rhetorical communication and jazz music's aesthetic encounters with a rigorous sort of democracy this book weaves an innovative argument about how individuals can preserve and improve civic life in a democratic culture Jazz music Clark argues demonstrates how this aesthetic rhetoric of identification can bind people together through their shared experience in a common project While such shared experience does not demand agreement indeed it often has an air of competition it does align people in practical effort and purpose Similarly Clark shows Burke considered Americans inhabitants of a persistently rhetorical situation in which each must choose constantly to identify with some and separate from others Thought provoking and path breaking Clark's harmonic mashup of music and rhetoric will appeal to scholars across disciplines as diverse as political science performance studies musicology and literary criticism Ralph Ellison and Kenneth Burke Bryan Crable, 2012 Ralph Ellison and Kenneth Burke focuses on the little known but important friendship between two canonical American writers The story of this fifty year friendship however is more than literary biography Bryan Crable argues that the Burke Ellison relationship can be interpreted as a microcosm of the American racial divide Through examination of published writings and unpublished correspondence he reconstructs the dialogue between Burke and Ellison about race that shaped some of their most important works including Burke's A Rhetoric of Motives and Ellison's Invisible Man In addition the book connects this dialogue to changes in American discourse about race Crable shows that these two men were deeply connected intellectually and personally but the social division between white and black Americans produced hesitation embarrassment mystery and estrangement where Ellison and Burke might otherwise have found unity By using Ellison's nonfiction and Burke's rhetorical theory to articulate a new vocabulary of race the author concludes not with a simplistic healing of the divide but with a challenge to embrace the responsibility inherent to our social order American Literatures Initiative Contingency
