Selected Poems Of Eugene Guillevic:

Guillevic: Selected Poems Eugene Guillevic, 1969-10 A selection of poems from one of the most highly regarded late twentieth century poets Guillevic-Levertov - Selected Poems Eugene Guillevic, Denise Levertov, 1969-02 Selected Poems [of] Guillevic Eugène Guillevic, 1969 Selected Poems of Eugène Guillevic Eugène Guillevic, 1969 Carnac Eugène Guillevic, 1999 One of France's most important modern poets Eugène Guillevic 1907-97 was born in Carnac in Brittany and although he never learned the Breton language his personality is deeply marked by his feeling of oneness with his homeland His poetry has a remarkable unity driven by his desire to use words to bridge a tragic gulf between man and a harsh and often apparently hostile natural environment For Guillevic the purpose of poetry is to arouse the sense of Being In this poetry of description where entire landscapes are built up from short intense texts language is reduced to its essentials as words are placed on the page like a dam against time When reading these poems it is as if time is being stopped for man to find himself again Carnac 1961 marks the beginning of Guillevic's mature life as a poet A single poem in several parts it evokes the rocky sea bound unfinished landscape of Brittany with its sacred objects and its great silent sense of waiting The texts are brief but have a grave meditative serenity as the poet seeks to effect balance and to help us to make friends with nature and to live in a universe which is chaotic and often frightening Introduction by Stephen Romer French English bilingual edition Bloodaxe Contemporary French Poets 9 Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Eric L. Haralson, 2014-01-21 The Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems along with many articles devoted to topics schools or periods of American verse in the century Entries fall into three main categories poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author's career entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th century canon and topical entries which offer analyses of a given period of literary production school thematically constructed category or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States Chicorel Index to Poetry in Anthologies and Collections in Print Marietta Chicorel, 1974 Birds, Beasts, and Seas Jeffrey Yang, 2011 An anthology of poetry that traces the history of poetry's changing relationship to nature featuring the work of over 140 poets pursuit of good health Denise Levertov Dana Greene,2012-09-14 Levertov was the quintessential romantic She wanted to live vividly intensely passionately and on a grand scale Once she acclimated herself to America the dreamy lyric poetry of her early years gave way to the joy and wonder of ordinary life By the late 1960s and early 1970s however her poems began to engage the issues of her times The crystalline and luminous poetry of her last years stands as final witness to a lifetime of searching for the mystery embedded in life itself This volume represents the first attempt to set Levertov s poetry within the framework of her often tumultuous life Conversations with Denise Levertov Denise Levertov,1998 Denise Levertov American poet and activist died in December 1997 at the age of 74 This book contains some twenty previously uncollected interviews conducted between the early 1960s and the middle of the 1990s They are focused primarily on her work as a poet but also on her social and political concerns The interviews in which Levertov discusses her craft constitute an important document on American poetry in the second half of the twentieth century She talks of her legendary friendship with her mentor William Carlos Williams and her association with the Black Mountain Poets As she discusses her craft in great detail she gives special attention to diction line lengths versification and choice of subject matter Students of American culture and readers of American poetry will be delighted by this collection of the personal views of one of the century s best poets

Derek Mahon: A Retrospective Nicholas Grene,Tom Walker,2024-09-17 Derek Mahon 1941 2020 is widely recognized as one of the most important Irish poets of his generation This collection of new critical essays offers an important retrospective assessment of the nature of his poetic achievement Bringing together many leading scholars of modern and contemporary Irish poetry including a notable number of accomplished poet critics its contributors range widely across Mahon s body of work Their essays offer fresh considerations of the biographical geographical and literary contexts that shaped his poetic voice This includes paying attention not only to more familiar influences but also to previously little considered interlocutors The stylistic and formal achievement of his voice is re evaluated in ways that range from attentive close readings to considerations of his controversial practice of self revision and his engagements with music and experiments in translation The politics of a poet often misleadingly considered apolitical are also reframed to take in the engagements of his early work through to the ecocritical commitment of his later poetry Indeed a notable aspect of this book is the consideration it gives to all the phases of Mahon s career As a whole the collection opens up many new ways of reading and understanding Mahon s important body of work Seeing the Sacred Julie E. Neraas,2021-01-27 Anyone who wants to make a simple accessible spiritual practice part of their daily life will find the invitation in this book irresistible we can use our smartphones to see what is vibrant profound and sacred in the seemingly ordinary moments of our lives It will appeal to spiritual seekers those with a theological background and families who want fresh ways to see and appreciate what is all around them Visiting Wallace
