Middle East Dilemmas:

Middle East Dilemmas J. C. Hurewitz, Council on Foreign Relations, 1953 Middle East Dilemmas J. C. Hurewitz, 1953

Population Dilemmas in the Middle East Gad G. Gilbar, 2012-11-12 This study provides a general outline of Palestinian population growth between 1948 and 1987 and then focuses on the town of Nablus for a detailed analysis of the main aspects of Palestinian migration and high rates of natural increase The author shows how the recession that struck the Arab oil economies in the early 1980s by slowing down the migratory movement shut off the valve that had afforded the Palestinians in the West Bank and Gaza relief from economic pressures Middle East Dilemmas Jacob Coleman Hurewitz, 1973

Democratisation in the Middle East Birgitte Rahbaek, 2005-12-01 The main aim of the book is to provide a forum for opinions held by Arabs who are neither Western puppets nor fanatical nationalists or Islamists but rather academics with a vast knowledge of the Middle East as well as of the West The authors all support the building of a democratic secular Middle East but their writings also show that although there is no easy way to achieve this goal neither is there any excuse for not making the attempt Contributors Nader Fergany author of the Arab Human Development Reports Raymond Hinnebusch professor of International Relations and Middle East Politics University of St Andrews Yezid Sayigh consultant to the international donor community in Palestine Samir Aita Syrian scholar and dissident Graham Usher British journalist Hanan Rabbani Palestinian consultant for Amnesty International Mai Yamani Saudi Arabia research fellow with the Middle East Programme at the Royal Institute of International Affairs Chatham House Fowziyah Abu Khalid Saudi sociologist Amal Shlash Iraq Huda Al Nu'aimi Iraq Jgen S Nielsen Professor director of the Danish Institute in Damascus Nato's Eastern

Dilemmas David G. Haglund, 2019-04-03 The contributors to this book set out to show that NATO's post Cold War troubles are largely self generated and almost exclusively eastern They focus in particular on the issue of what to do with the former Yugoslavia Challenges for America in the Middle East Richard W. Mansbach, Kirsten L. Taylor, 2016-03-31 Challenges for America in the Middle East offers a comprehensive and contemporary analysis of the foreign policy challenges the United States faces in the Middle East It takes a close look at the critical policy dilemmas posed by radical Islam the Arab Spring the Shia Crescent and Israel Palestine relations Authors Richard W Mansbach and Kirsten L Taylor examine the issues from a historical perspective and in the context of the current state of affairs and analyze options for future action Throughout the text they emphasize the interplay of foreign and domestic issues in the United States and overseas and show how that interplay shapes American policy towards the region Middle East Dilemma Michael C. Hudson, 1999 This text examines past attempts at Arab integration It explores trends and identifies the movements towards a more rational Arab order including influences such as economic cooperation labour migration and the role of technology in general and information technology in particular Economic Challenges facing Middle Eastern and North African Countries Nemat Shafik, 2016-07-27 An authoritative analysis of economic performance in Middle Eastern and North African countries are presented by scholars in the region The papers focus on the implications of changes in the world economy in the role of the private sector and in the need for human resource development Country studies are presented for Egypt the economies of the Gulf Cooperation Council Iran Jordan Lebanon Morocco Palestine Sudan Syria Tunisia and Turkey George Kennan and the Dilemmas of US Foreign Policy David Allan Mayers, 1988 Index and bibliography included Intractable Dilemmas in the Energy-Rich Eastern Mediterranean Aris Petasis, 2016-02-08 The Eastern Mediterranean is once again in turmoil in addition to proxy wars in Syria and Iraq and the occupation of Cyprus there is no president or functioning government in Lebanon which is also in the midst of an open conflict with Israel in the south Furthermore Turkey is threatening its neighbours Israel is faced with daily security issues the Sinai Peninsula is no longer safe the refugee problem is adding to the region's woes and the rule of international law is being increasingly violated The arrival in the region of a new powerful world player Russia and of an indomitable regional player Iran has further upset the balance in the Eastern Mediterranean The economies of the region are also confronted with serious problems Greece and Cyprus are under Troika supervision even if Cyprus's program is in theory ending soon The Egyptian economy is failing to meet its potential with its per capita GDP stuck at the bottom of the international rung Even the Turkish economy is showing signs of fatigue with the value of the Turkish lira against the dollar taking a nosedive and the Russian embargo beginning to bite Israel is doing better than its neighbours but continues to carry a heavy defence burden However the region has a habit of bouncing back and newly discovered energy reserves are now giving the Eastern Mediterranean hope If properly handled energy can help unite the countries in the region and turn the Eastern Mediterranean into a peaceful and harmonious network There are however two main obstacles that must be overcome namely the Palestinian problem and the occupation by Turkey of 37% of Cyprus territory Syria would also need to take the path to peace free of terrorism and violence Working together on energy resources would help countries of the Eastern Mediterranean see their neighbours as natural allies rather than as antagonists and proxies of some foreign power This book proposes the creation of a High Energy Authority that would enable all countries in the region to exploit their energy reserves together This concept would create economic advantage and reduce conflict and hegemonic dependence Zion's Dilemmas Charles D. Freilich, 2012-09-28 In Zion's Dilemmas a former deputy national security adviser to the State of Israel details the history and in many cases the chronic inadequacies in the making of Israeli national security policy Chuck Freilich identifies profound ongoing problems that he ascribes to a series of factors a hostile and highly volatile regional environment Israel's proportional representation electoral system and structural peculiarities of the Israeli government and bureaucracy Freilich uses his insider understanding and substantial archival and interview research to describe how Israel has made strategic decisions and to present a first of its kind model of national security decision making in Israel He analyzes the major events of the last thirty years from Camp David I to the 1982 invasion of Lebanon through Camp David II the Gaza Disengagement Plan of 2005 and the second Lebanon war of 2006 In these and other cases he identifies opportunities forgone failures that resulted from a flawed decision making process and the entanglement of Israeli leaders in an inconsistent highly politicized and sometimes improvisational planning process The cabinet is dysfunctional and Israel does not have an effective statutory forum for its decision making most of which is thus conducted in informal settings In many cases policy objectives and options are poorly formulated For all these problems however the Israeli decision making process does have some strengths among them the ability to make rapid and flexible responses generally pragmatic decision making effective planning within the defense establishment and the skills and motivation of those involved Freilich concludes with cogent and timely recommendations for reform

Middle Eastern Dilemmas Geoffrey R. Denton,1989 Critical Issues Facing the Middle East J. Russell,2006-07-21 Addressing systemic changes in the Middle East s security environment since the Iraq War prominent experts analyze the challenges these changes pose to US strategy and policy They examine the causes of profound economic political and religious transitions and their implications for hopes of reform

Who's At The Helm? Raymond Tanter,2019-03-20 The author underlines what he considers to be the lessons of Lebanon for US foreign policy in the greater Middle East and in the world at large He suggests that the President must take the lead in policy formulation and interagency coordination diplomacy and force must both be a part of balanced foreign policy and loose cannons like Robert
