Watts, 2011-09-19 Stephen Northington was ten years old when his parents died His maternal grandmother knowing his parents wishes continued to raise the Northington children as Christians Stephen grew into a personable easy going and laid back guy He is a non politically correct Christian man without the expected fire and brimstone personality whose character is not often challenged However even though his Christian beliefs are sometimes questioned non believers find it hard to argue with him Kathy Hall was raised with very little religious influence in her life She grew up in an upper middle class family and was the youngest of four children and the only daughter She was very popular in high school and college and had the same four best friends all eight years She grew up to be a very beautiful woman and is successful in her career But Kathy is not successful in love and is a divorcee who is also the mother of a very urban preteen daughter Kendra Kendra is pampered but not spoiled She is allowed the freedoms of most urban children She travels to malls and Chicago attractions using the public transportation systems with her closest friends and knows the Chicago streets better than most adults She is also well aware of her mother's single life woes as she watches first hand the men that come in and out of her life and is present when her mother's friends sit around the kitchen table to discuss the details of their romantic adventures and failures Stephen and Kathy are coworkers at a major corporation and they eventually become acquainted They are assigned side by side cubicles where they become regular coffee chit chatters Kathy uses Stephen as a sounding board for her weekly Monday morning pity party cries over her failed relationships Eventually Kathy has a revelation as she suddenly sees Stephen in a new light and their lives become intertwined They find themselves facing life issues that initially create conflict between Kathy and Stephen The conflict between them begins to subside but increases for Kendra As they move forward with their lives Stephen is encouraged Kathy is motivated but Kendra's frustration deepens The lives of the three of them become more intertwined as they face new and more challenging conflicts See how these three handles a homosexual couple attending a barbecue at the home of Christians and decide to challenge the host Kendra develops a friendship with a Christian girl and they become best friends She watches as her friend gets bullied by a school classmate and tries to encourage her and Kathy is alarmed and frustrated with the surprising political agendas revealed at the public school Kendra attends and challenges the administration Stephen Kathy and Kendra handle these challenges and more in The Northington Chronicles A New Beginning Book Reviews I found reading The Northington Chronicles to be magnetizing From the opening paragraph you're drawn in with the conflict swirling through Kendra's mind L J Watts has keenly constructed many scenarios that provide the correct amount of tension which makes The Northington Chronicles a compelling can't put the book down read Each chapter each scene begs both questions and answers How would I react if this event appeared in my life Not only are you given a glimpse inside the three main characters lives you truly get to live vicariously through them as their stories unfold Kudos to the author and may God continue to bless you ERW

Northington Chronicles A New Beginning is the best book I've read in years It's a mixture of everyday life issues with some comedy and drama with a little bit of romance sprinkled in there There's so much to learn from reading this book including how to biblically Christ-like handle situations like bullying and domestic civil coupling etc It's a great book for book clubs because it causes one to have questions a

Loving Immigrants in America Daniel Campos, 2017-08-30 At once narrative and reflective Loving Immigrants in America An Experiential Philosophy of Personal Interaction is a philosophical account of Daniel Campos's experience as a

Latin American immigrant to the United States of America A series of interrelated personal essays together convey this experience of walking or sauntering going on road trips reading American literature in the southern United States playing association football soccer or football churchgoing and Latin dancing in the U S This book's central motif is the caring saunterer who is understood to be a person who makes him or herself at home anywhere even as a Latino immigrant in the U S The narrative essays convey one immigrant's experience seeking an affective social and intellectual home in a new land The intertwined philosophical reflections lead to the recommendation of an ethic of love resilient love for the day to day interactions and long term relations between immigrants and hosts in this country The author's aim is to establish an open and earnest philosophical dialogue with critical readers interested in the problems surrounding immigration in the U S today He writes as an American philosopher in the continental sense of North Central and South America whose reflections provide an accessible and provocative angle for the development of insight into the experiences of immigrants in the United States Thus he brings philosophical reflection drawn from experience in the broad American tradition to bear on current issues on the problems of people and not of philosophers as John Dewey might put it

Motorcycle Adventures in the Southern Appalachians Hawk Hagebak, 2002 Nothing could be finer than riding in the North Carolina mountains and southwest Virginia and East Tennessee Hawk Hagebak's second motorcycle adventure guide takes you along winding backroads in the NC High Country through the world's shortest tunnel at Tennessee's Backbone Rock and from Asheville's Paris of the South vibe to the mile high wonders of the Blue Ridge Parkway This guide includes 26 rides in all from 16 to 144 miles Sample the culinary delights of the region visit motorcycle only resorts and take advantage of this book's complete directions easy to read maps road conditions motorcycle laws for the Southeastern states and more all liberally sprinkled with the author's special brand of humor and practical advice
