Movie Railroads:

The Landscapes of Western Movies Jeremy Agnew, 2020-10-15 Western films have often been tributes to place and setting with the magnificent backdrops mirroring the wildness of the narratives As the splendid outdoor scenery of Westerns could not be found on a studio back lot or on a Hollywood sound stage the movies have been filmed in the wide open spaces of the American West and beyond This book chronicles the history of filming Westerns on location from shooting on the East Coast in the early 1900s through the use of locations in Utah Arizona and California in the 1940s and 1950s and filming Westerns in Mexico Spain and other parts of the world in the 1960s Also studied is the relationship between the filming location timeline and the evolving motion picture industry of the twentieth century and how these factors shaped audience perceptions of the Real West

In Search of Western Movie Sites Carlo Gaberscek, Kenny Stier, 2014 In Search of Western Movie Sites is a compilation of 64 articles written for the bi monthly newsletter Western Clippings by Carlo Gaberscek and Kenny Stier They are profoundly convinced of the fundamental importance of landscapes and natural exteriors in westerns These articles are listed regionally starting with the Southwestern states Arizona New Mexico Colorado Utah and Nevada progressing to California the Northwest Midwest and Southern states followed by Canada and finishing with Mexico They focus on the making of both A and B westerns in a single state or a specific area of a state and contain selected filmographies and detailed information on the locations They envision a vast atlas of western cinema a map of both real and imagined places constructed by Hollywood This book which includes over 200 stills and photos taken on location is a guide to thousands of western film locations
