Computer Gaming World ,1995 The Robinsons of North Kildare James Robinson,1997 The Robinsons have lived for over 300 years in the Broadford area of County Kildare This history spans 9 generations from Daniel McRobin born 1690 to the present They intermarried with the following families Shaw Shough Wade Butler Malone Flood and McDonald

Hammer Complete Howard Maxford,2019-11-08 Think you know everything there is to know about Hammer Films the fabled Studio that Dripped Blood The lowdown on all the imperishable classics of horror like The Curse of Frankenstein Horror of Dracula and The Devil Rides Out What about the company s less blood curdling back catalog What about the musicals comedies and travelogues the fantasies and historical epics not to mention the pirate adventures This lavishly illustrated encyclopedia covers every Hammer film and television production in thorough detail including budgets shooting schedules publicity and more along with all the actors supporting players writers directors producers composers and technicians Packed with quotes behind the scenes anecdotes credit lists and production specifics this all inclusive reference work is the last word on this cherished cinematic institution Memento Mori: Classifying Nineteenth Century Ontario Gravestones Laura Suchan,2012-08-22 Ontario gravestone iconography exhibits a remarkable progression of artistic cultural and religious expression throughout the nineteenth century Unfortunately the study of gravestone motifs has been largely ignored by those transcribing data in Ontario s early cemeteries It is imperative this information along with motifs be recorded before it is lost to us Gravestone iconography can be organized into simple stylistic categories which would allow for a standardized approach when recording gravestone information Much of Ontario s gravestone research is done by local genealogical and historical societies working in isolation Sharing gravestone data using a common classification system would aid in developing perspectives into topics such as carving traditions economic status and gravestone choice across local and regional lines This information would shed light on the entire gravestone industry and provide researchers with the background necessary to study motifs more closely The Living Age ,1904 Congressional Record United States.

Littell's Living Age ,1904 Bibliotheca Americana Nova O. Rich,1846 The London Stage 1950-1959 J. P. Wearing,2014-09-16 Theatre in London has celebrated a rich and influential history and in 1976 the first volume of J P

Wearing's reference series provided researchers with an indispensable resource of these productions. In the decades since the original calendars were produced, several research aids have become available, notably various reference works and the digitization of important newspapers and relevant periodicals. The second edition of The London Stage 1950-1959: A Calendar of Productions, Performers, and Personnel provides a chronological calendar of London shows from the first of January 1950 through the 31st of December 1959. The volume chronicles more than 3,100 productions at 52 major central London theatres during this period. For each production, the following information is provided: Title

Author, Theatre, Performers, Personnel, Opening and Closing Dates, Number of Performances. Other details include genre of the production, number of acts, and a list of reviews. A comment section includes other interesting information such as plot description, first night reception by the audience, noteworthy performances, staging elements, and details of performances in New York either prior to or after the London production. Among the plays staged in London during this decade were Look Back in Anger, One Way Pendulum, The Birthday Party, A Taste of Honey, Chicken Soup with Barley, Five Finger Exercise, The Hostage, and Waiting for Godot, as well as numerous musical comedies, British and American foreign works, operas, ballets, and revivals of English classics. A definitive resource, this edition revises, corrects, and expands the original calendar. In addition, approximately 20 percent of the material, in particular information of adaptations and translations, plot sources, and comment information, is new. Arranged chronologically, the shows are fully indexed by title, genre, and theatre. A general index includes numerous subject entries on such topics as acting, audiences, censorship, costumes, managers, performers, prompters, staging, and ticket prices. The London Stage 1950-1959 will be of value to scholars, theatrical personnel, librarians, writers, journalists, and historians.

Designing Accessibility Instruments Cecilia Silva, Nuno Pinto, Luca Bertolini, 2019-04-24. The integration of land use and transport planning is key to making cities sustainable and liveable. Accessibility can provide an effective framework for this integration. However, today there is a significant gap between the advances in scientific knowledge on accessibility and its effective application in planning practice. In order to close this gap, Designing Accessibility Instruments introduces a novel methodology for the joint assessment and development of accessibility instruments by researchers and practitioners. The book provides a theoretical and professional analysis of the main concepts behind the definition, use, and measurement of accessibility, undertakes a comprehensive inventory and critical analysis of accessibility instruments, focusing on the bottlenecks in their transposition to planning practice, introduces and applies a novel methodology for the assessment and improvement of the practical use and usefulness of accessibility instruments, presents six in-depth illustrative case study applications of the methodology representing a range of cities with different geographical and institutional settings and different levels of urban and transport planning integration. The book is supported by a companion website www.accessibilityplanning.eu, which extrapolates its content to a broader scope and keeps it updated and valid with new iterations of the methodology and further advances on the initial and new case studies.
