Roland Barthes The Figures Of Writing:

Roland Barthes Andrew Brown (Literary translator),1992 Roland Barthes Andrew Brown,2023 This study examines through close reading of a wide range of texts some of the ways Barthes viewed his own activity of writing For him writing was a highly figural activity like a metaphor what it conveyed set up a force field of different meanings Roland Barthes Andrew Brown (Literary translator),1988 Figures of the Text Michael Vincent,1992-01-01 The works of Jean de La Fontaine have invited an extraordinary variety of readings in the three centuries since their composition By engaging selected fables and tales with contemporary notions of intertextuality reader reception theory and grammatology Figures of the Text raises questions about what reading La Fontaine meant in the 17th century and what it means today The study integrates a theory of reading and a theory of textual production by drawing attention to those aspects of the text that figure writing and reading for instance scenes of reading other modes of writing emblems hieroglyphics inscriptions and epitaphs proper names and citation proverbs maxims allusions the relation of represented orality to textuality of textuality to corporeality and of textuality to the visual arts ekphrasis and the archaeology of textual figures such as labyrinths textiles and veils The Emergence of Literature Jacob Bittner,2020-01-23 The Emergence of Literature is an extension and reworking of a series of significant propositions in philosophy and literary theory Jean Luc Nancy and Philippe Lacoue Labarthe s examination of the concept of the literary absolute Martin Heidegger s destruction and Giorgio Agamben s archaeology of the metaphysics of will Maurice Blanchot s delimitation of the space of literature and Michel Foucault s archaeology of literature Its core contribution to the history of theory is to understand the literary absolute not simply as philosophical concept but as a paradigm that delimits the horizon for currents of literary theory through the course of the 20th century where the literary criteria change from the theme of sincerity to the theme of the death of the author Stretching from Kant to Hegel from Hlderlin to the Early German Romantics from John Stuart Mill to New Criticism from Benjamin to Barthes The Emergence of Literature examines the relation between continental philosophy and literature in the post Kantian era Poststructuralism and Postcoloniality Jane Hiddleston,2010-01-01 This book explores the relation between poststructuralist thought and postcoloniality and identifies in that interaction the expression of a particular anxiety concerning the form of theoretical writing Many so called poststructuralist thinkers such as Derrida Cixous Lyotard Barthes Kristeva and Spivak have turned their attention at some point in their career towards questions either of postcolonialism or of cultural domination and difference For all these thinkers however a reflection on such questions has generated a sense of unease concerning the assumed neutrality of theoretical discourse and the inevitable subjective or autobiographical investments of the writing self The book argues that this anxiety betrays an unprecedented lucidity concerning the particular challenges of writing about ourselves and others at a time of postcolonial upheaval New Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle,2016-04-22 New Makers of Modern Culture will be widely acquired by both higher education and public libraries

Diaries Real and Fictional in Twentieth-century French Writing Sam Ferguson,2018 This volume is the first study of the diary in French writing across the twentieth century as a genre which includes both fictional and non fictional works From the 1880s it became apparent to writers in France that their diariesa supposedly private form of writing would probably come to be published strongly affecting the way their readers viewed their other published works and their very persona as an author More than any other Andre Gide embraced the literary potential of the diary the first part of this book follows his experimentation with the diary in the fictional works Les Cahiers d Andre Walter 1891 and Paludes 1895 in his diary of the composition of his great novel Le Journal des faux monnayeurs 1926 and in his monumental Journal 1889 1939

1939 The second part follows developments in diary writing after the Second World War inflected by radical changes in attitudes towards the writing subject Raymond Queneau's works published under the pseudonym of Sally Mara 1947 1962 used the diary playfully at a time when the writing subject was condemned by the literary avant garde Roland Barthes's experiments with the diary 1977 1979 took it to the extremes of its formal possibilities at the point of a return of the writing subject Annie Ernaux's published diaries 1993 2011 demonstrate the role of the diary in the modern field of life writing Throughout the century the diary has repeatedly been used to construct an oeuvre and author but also to call these fundamental literary concepts into question

Writing History in Film William Guynn, 2013-09-13 Historical film has been an important genre since the earliest silent films The French Revolution the American Civil War the conquest of the New World World War II all have been repeatedly represented in film But how do we distinguish between fictionalized spectacle and authentic historical representation Writing History in Film sets out the narratological semiological rhetorical and philosophical bases for understanding how film can function as a form of historical interpretation and representation With case studies and an interdisciplinary approach William Guynn examines the key issues facing film students and scholars historians and anyone interested in how we see our historical past

Figuring the Past Belén Vidal, Belén Vidal Villaur, 2012 This definitive work offers a new approach to the period film at the turn of the twenty first century examining the ways in which contemporary cinema recreates the historical past This book explores the relation between visual motifs and cultural representation in a range of key films by James Ivory Martin Scorsese and Jane Campion among others Looking at the mannerist taste for citation detail and stylisation the author argues for an aesthetic of fragments and figures central to the period film as an international genre Three key figures the house the tableau and the letter structure a critical journey through a selection of detailed case studies in relation to changing notions of visual style melodrama and gender This seeks to place this popular but often undervalued genre in a new light and to rethink its significance in the context of key debates in film studies Publisher's website

Adapting Margaret Atwood Shannon Wells-Lassagne, Fiona McMahon, 2022-01-01 This book engages with Margaret Atwood's work and its adaptations Atwood has long been appreciated for her ardent defence of Canadian authors and her genre bending fiction essays and poetry However a lesser studied aspect of her work is Atwood's role both as adaptor and as source for adaptation in media as varied as opera television film or comic books Recent critically acclaimed television adaptations of the novels The Handmaid's Tale Hulu and Alias Grace Amazon have rightfully focused attention on these works but Atwood's fiction has long been a source of inspiration for artists of various media a seeming corollary to Atwood's own tendency to explore the possibilities of previously undervalued media graphic novels genres science fiction and narratives testimonial and historical modes This collection hopes to expand on other studies of Atwood's work or on their adaptations to focus on the interplay between the two providing an interdisciplinary approach that highlights the protean nature of the author and of adaptation

The Figures of Edgar Allan Poe Gero Guttzeit, 2017-05-08 The Figures of Edgar Allan Poe is the first study to address the rhetorical dimensions of Poe's textual and discursive practices It argues that Poe is a figure and figurer of the emergence of the modern understanding of literature in the early nineteenth century that resulted from the birth of the romantic author and the so called death of rhetoric Building on accounts of Poe as a skilled navigator of American antebellum print culture Gero Guttzeit reinterprets Poe as representative of the vital role that transatlantic rhetoric played in antebellum literature He investigates rhetorical figures of the author in Poe's critical writings tales poems and lectures to give a new account of Poe's significance for antebellum literary culture In so doing he also proposes a general rhetorical theory of theoretical poetical and performative figures of the author Beyond Poe studies the book intervenes in current debates on the romantic origins of the modern author and demonstrates that rhetorical theory offers new ways of exploring authorship beyond the nineteenth century
