Seder Olam:

Seder Olam Heinrich W. Guggenheimer,1998-10 Seder Olam is the basic text on which all historical understanding of Jewish tradition in the Talmud is based This book is a translation with commentary of this classical text making Seder Olam The Rabbinic View of Biblical Chronology available to the English speaking public for the first time The extensive commentary by highly regarded scholar Heinrich W Guggenheimer explains the detailed arguments that derive a complete and consistent chronology from biblical anecdotal remarks The text also addresses a number of secondary topics such as the status of the book of Daniel and negating the value of Daniel for messianic predictions The commentary shows that in its present form Seder Olam is a product of the early Babylonian talmudic academics edited in the first half of the third century C E Since some part of the Seder Olam deals with calendar problems Dr Guggenheimer offers an appendix that gives complete instruction for the computation of the Jewish calendar and the conversion of Jewish into civil dates and vice versa

Restoration James Scott,2021-10-01 The restoration of Israel is one of those subjects which although crucial to our understanding of early Judaism has not received the focused attention it needs and deserves These seminal essays written by an international group of eminent scholars introduce the reader to the subject of restoration in a roughly chronological approach beginning with the formative period the Old Testament followed by the Greco Roman period formative Judaism and early Christianity These essays endeavor not merely to survey what is currently known about the subject from various vantage points but rather to extend what is knowable in each case This volume will stimulate much interest in the subject of restoration and will shape the future course of the scholarly discussion The History of the Jewish People in the Age of Jesus Christ: Volume 1 Emil Schürer,Fergus Millar,Geza Vermes,2014-01-30 Emil Schürer's Geschichte des jüdischen Volkes im Zeitalter Jesu Christi originally published in German between 1874 and 1909 and in English between 1885 and 1891 is a critical presentation of Jewish history institutions and literature from 175 B C to A D 135 It has rendered invaluable services to scholars for nearly a century The present work offers a fresh translation and a revision of the entire subject matter The bibliographies have been rejuvenated and supplemented the sources are presented according to the latest scholarly editions and all the new archaeological epigraphical numismatic and literary evidence including the Dead Sea Scrolls and the Bar Kokhba documents has been introduced into the survey Account has also been taken of the progress in historical research both in the classical and Jewish fields This work reminds students of the profound debt owed to nineteenth century learning setting it within a wider framework of contemporary knowledge and provides a foundation on which future historians of Judaism in the age of Jesus may build Introduction to the Talmud and Midrash Hermann Leberecht Strack,1996 Gunter Stemberger s revision of H L Strack s classic introduction to rabbinic literature which appeared in its first English edition in 1991 was widely acclaimed Gunter Stemberger and Markus Bockmuehl have now produced this updated edition which is a significant revision completed in 1996 of the 1991 volume Following Strack s original outline Stemberger discusses first the historical framework the basic principles of rabbinic literature and hermeneutics and the most important Rabbis The main part of the book is devoted to the Talmudic and Midrashic literature in the light of contemporary rabbinic research The appendix includes a new section on electronic resources for the study of the Talmud and Midrash The result is a comprehensive work of reference that no student of rabbinics can afford to be without Time and Process in Ancient Judaism Sacha Stern,2003-10-01 This illuminating study is about the absence of time as an entity in itself in ancient Judaism and the predominance instead of process in the ancient Jewish world view Evidence is drawn from a complete range of Jewish sources from this period The Creation Everett Jenkins,2003 The major monotheistic religions of the world Judaism Christianity and Islam have certain elements in common particularly in their scriptures concerning the beginnings of life and the early history of human beings This shared beginning is compellingly worth further study Common ground and common threads can only help a dialogue between people of different faiths This reference work could be a tool toward greater understanding of other faiths and focuses on the story of the creation of the universe and of humans Part One traces the development of the earth and its inhabitants from a scientific viewpoint so that the humanistic perspective may be contrasted with the scriptural accounts to follow Part Two features an introduction to the Tanakh information on the Torah and what is known about its authors and other influences on the Jewish religion followed by actual scriptures from the Torah from the creation through the destruction of the Tower of Babel Then a section each is devoted to an explanation of the Catholic Protestant and Fundamentalist Christian interpretations of these stories citing scripture as appropriate Part Three affords a Muslim perspective with excerpts from the Sirah that refer to events and characters from the early chapters of Genesis The appendices are rich various chronologies of similar events based on the different scriptures tables of contents for the various holy books tables presenting summaries of a particular perspective on a subject or comparisons between two perspectives and much more Karaite Judaism and Historical Understanding Fred Astren,2004 Examines the changing relationship of this Jewish sect to rabbinic Judaism and the influence of Muslim and Christian environments Notions of history and the past contained in literature of the Karaite Jewish sect offer insight into the relationship of Karaism to mainstream rabbinic Judaism and to Islam and Christianity Karaite Judaism and Historical Understanding describes how a minority sectarian religious community constructs and uses historical ideology It investigates the proportioning of historical ideology to law and doctrine and the influence of historical setting on religious writings about the past In the present volume Fred Astren discusses modes of representing the past especially in Jewish culture and then poses questions about the past in sectarian particularly Judaic sectarian contexts He contrasts early Karaite scripturalism with the literature of rabbinic Judaism which embodying historical views that carry a moralistic burden draws upon the chain of tradition to suppose a generation to generation transmission of divine knowledge and authority Karaites in the medieval Islamic world eschewed historical thinking in concert with their rejection of the rabbinic concept of tradition One important medieval Karaite al Qirqisani however constructed a sophisticated historical argument as part of his philosophical exposition of Karaism demonstrating theological and philosophical strategies common in Islam and Christianity The center of Karaism shifted to the Byzantine Turkish world during the twelfth through sixteenth centuries when a new historical outlook unoblivious of the past accommodated legal developments influenced by rabbinic thought Reconstructing Karaite historical expression from both published works and previously unexamined manuscripts Astren shows that Karaites relied on rabbinic literature to extract and compile historical data for their own readings of Jewish history which they recorded in an encyclopedic literature similar to contemporary Byzantine Christian Orthodox writing Astren documents how as the Karaites moved toward a concept of tradition and echoed rabbinic historical formulations they developed a version of the chain of tradition to link archaic biblical history to their own community During the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Karaite scholars in Poland and Lithuania collated and harmonized historical materials inherited from their Middle Eastern predecessors Astren portrays the way that Karaites with some influence from Jewish Renaissance historiography and impelled by features of Protestant Catholic discourse prepared complete literary historical works that maintained their Jewishness while offering a Karaite reading of Jewish history
