Seed Remembers:

The Seed Remembers Albert Mark Toops, Dana Gail Aston, 2001-01-01 Seeds of Memory J. Richard Jacobs, 2021-07-10 SPACE once believed to be a vast and vacant void has been found in fact to be filled with all sorts of things things that roam freely and at random Our little spaceship Earth is no longer as secure as we once thought it to be There are clouds of dust and gas so hot that their mere passing would scour our little system of planets with a breath of death and destruction complete Clouds so massive that just their passing could throw all our little planets from of their peaceful orbits into the deep cold of a sunless darkness and fling our star out and on its way to being one of the eternal roamers of our galaxy or even throw it into an intergalactic journey to who knows where Black holes blazars blasts of deadly radiation from nearby super novae stars burned out hulks of stars super dense neutron stars rocks small or incredibly large and a host of other things none of them welcome visitors IN THIS INCREDIBLE SWEEPING SAGA across thousands of years and hundreds of light years we come face to face with our fears and deep prejudices It is here in SEEDS OF MEMORY that we get an idea of what it means to be HUMAN and what HUMAN really means It is here in SEEDS OF MEMORY that we are confronted with the need to know colliding head on with reality Are we HOMO SAPIENS SAPIENS truly the only form that humans can take and is our history the only history Might there not be others or others created out of the very stuff of life who are after all our brothers and sisters kith and kin In this story we find that the lines that divide have indistinct fuzzy edges and that we are the ones who make those divisions Here we discover humanity at its magnificent best its seething worst and everything imaginable between while we make an uncertain attempt to reunite two peoples separated by time and space and other things One of those unwelcome visitors has arrived and we are pitifully unprepared This is a speculative look into a far flung future disaster that could actually happen and well might someday and how the human species reacts to it It could even be said that it is a look at a future history a history we might not be able to survive Sarah and the Garden Tricia Hayes, 2025-04-18 Why did Sarah laugh God asks but no one answers Is there even an answer to such a question Sarah s story is not simple There is no bitter old woman who laughs at God because she does not believe on that day God came to her tent to tell her she would have a child Her story begins in the beginning all the way back in the garden where God created unity and where humanity destroyed it in the matter of the tree Sarah s story is about that destruction but it is also about how God hears her and about how God insists she is essential to the Eden work God is doing in the world This thoughtful study looks at Sarah with fresh eyes Beautiful writing and artistic images bring Sarah out of the shadows traditional interpretation has hidden her within to reveal green garden newness born of dust and desolation Learning and Memory Isidore Gormezano, Edward A. Wasserman, 2013-02-01 This volume presents the views and findings of behaviorally and biologically oriented investigators invited to participate in The University of Iowa s biennial learning and memory symposium While chapters vary in their scope and depth of coverage they are all amply referenced so that researchers teachers and recollection of infinite previous lives that immediately preceded Sakyamuni's attainment of Buddhahood. Even enlightened awareness itself is said by some Buddhist schools to consist in a mnemonic engagement with reality as such. The authors explore Buddhist views on mundane acts of memory such as recognizing, reminding, memorizing and storing data as well as special types of memory that are cultivated in religious practice. One of the most striking discoveries is that perception is intimately related to certain types of memory. Several essays investigate if and if so how meditative mindfulness and recollection of the past both of which can be designated by the term smṛti are connected within the Buddhist tradition. The question of whether recollection of the past can be explained without violating the foundational Buddhist notions of radical impermanence and no self is addressed by several of the contributing scholars. Among the primary sources for the studies in this volume are the northern and southern Abhidharma literature, the Māhāvastu and Mahāyāna-sūtras, works of the Buddhist logicians, Yogaśāstra materials, the Tibetan Great Perfection Rdzogschen tradition and Indian and Tibetan commentarial works. Affinities of Buddhist views on memory with those found in Western phenomenology, semiology, psychology and history of religions are considered as well.

Disturbed Forests, Fragmented Memories Jonathan Padwe, 2020-04-15. In the hill country of northeast Cambodia, just a few kilometers from the Vietnam border, sits the village of Tang Kadon. This community of hill rice farmers of the Jarai ethnic minority group survived aerial bombardment and the American invasion of Cambodia during the Vietnam War, only to find themselves relocated to the killing fields of the Khmer Rouge regime. Now back in their homeland, they have reestablished agriculture, seed by seed. Disturbed Forests, Fragmented Memories tells the story of violence and dispossession in the highlands from the perspective of the land itself. Weaving rich ethnography with the history of the Jarai and their treatment at the hands of outsiders, Jonathan Padwe narrates the highlanders' successful efforts to rebuild their complex, highly diverse agricultural system after a decades-long interruption. Focusing on the ecological dimensions of social change and dispossession from the precolonial slave trade to the present moment of land grabs along a rapidly transforming resource frontier, Padwe shows how the past lives on in the land. An engrossing treatment of timely issues in anthropology and political ecology, this book will also appeal to readers in environmental studies, geography and Southeast Asian studies.

Hebrew, Yiddish and German Sources Naḥman (of Bratslav), 1932-01-01 When God was about to create Adam a number of souls knowing that all of the souls then living in heaven would share in the sin of created Adam fled to a far place outside the boundaries of heaven and hid themselves in a corner of chaos There they waited until after the first sin was done Only that band of hidden souls escaped the evil touch of Adam's sin And they are the Innocent souls When the Enemy becomes powerful on earth and stretches mountains of black clouds between man's earth and heaven when men become knotted with evil and lose their Godly form then the Almighty goes up to the highest of his regions and seeks out one of his Innocent souls He says to the Innocent soul Go down and purify the earth Such were the souls of Abraham of Isaac and of Jacob such was the soul of Noah such were the souls of the great prophets of the great scribes and of the great rabbis The soul of the Messiah is prince among this band of Innocent souls and when the time of Redemption arrives Messiah himself will come down from the highest of heavens Then the Enemy will disappear forever The soul of Rabbi Israel the Baal Shem Tov was one of that band of innocents who escaped the sin of Eden And this is how he came to be born on earth In a hamlet in the district of Moldau there lived the pious Rabbi Eleazer His wife was a virtuous woman she was the daughter of a pious Jew of the city of Okup Tartars attacked the valleys of Moldau pillaged the villages slaughtered many Jews and carried off others into slavery Rabbi Eleazer was one of those taken captive His wife said I will wait for his return until the end of my days and if he does not return to me in this world I will meet him in the next world In heaven Elijah came to God and said See how the Jews suffer It is time to send an Innocent soul down to earth to sweeten the lives of the Jews God said Not yet For many weeks Eleazer voyaged with the barbarians On land he was forced to carry heavy burdens On sea he was chained to an oar and made to row as a galley slave At last coming to a strange shore the Tartars took the Jew into the city and sold him in the marketplace as a slave He was purchased by the King's Grand Vizier who soon perceived that the slave though of a race unknown to him was a person of unusual intelligence Rabbi Eleazer had kept count of the days When Sabbath came he begged his master to permit him to rest on that day This the Vizier granted and Rabbi Eleazer did not work on Sabbath The only duty of Rabbi Eleazer when he was a slave was to watch for the time when his master the Vizier returned from his audience with the King then Rabbi Eleazer would wash the feet of the Grand Vizier Thus the slave had a great deal of time to pass Rabbi Eleazer knew by heart the Psalms of David and he passed his days singing the Psalms He was not happy for he felt himself alone away from his people and he prayed God that he might be released to go home to his wife and to live among other Jews At last he could bear his life in the court no longer and he thought of flight One night he crept from his bed and made his way through the halls of the palace until he reached the gate There he saw the guard asleep His naked sword fallen from his hand lay at his side The keys were bound to his girdle Rabbi Eleazer looked at the sword and said to himself To take the keys I must lift the sword and slay the man Instead he returned and remained in captivity One year the King besieged a neighbouring city The city was strong and withstood his attack Then the King did not know what to do he asked of his advisers whether his army should continue to stand in their boats on the river before the walls of the city becoming themselves weaker while they waited for the enemy to weaken or whether he should risk all of his men in a charge upon the walls The Vizier did not know what advice to give and fell therefore into disfavour with the King When the Vizier came home Eleazer saw that he was troubled He began as every day to wash his master s feet The Vizier sighed and said Would that my own task were so simple
