Seitz,2017-11-01 Perhaps an unlikely subject for an ethnographic case study the Metropolitan Community Church of Toronto in Canada is a large predominantly LGBT church with a robust and at times fraught history of advocacy While the church is often riddled with fault lines and contradictions its queer and faith based emphasis on shared vulnerability leads it to engage in radical solidarity with asylum seekers pointing to the work of affect in radical coalition politics A House of Prayer for All People maps the affective dimensions of the politics of citizenship at this church For nearly three years David K Seitz regularly attended services at MCCT He paid special attention to how community and citizenship are formed in a primarily queer Christian organization focusing on four contemporary struggles debates on race and gender in religious leadership activism around police minority relations outreach to LGBT Christians transnationally and advocacy for asylum seekers Engaging in debates in cultural geography queer of color critique psychoanalysis and affect theory A House of Prayer for All People stages innovative reparative encounters with citizenship and religion Building on queer theory s rich history of subjectless critique Seitz calls for an improper queer citizenship one that refuses liberal identity politics or national territory as the ethical horizon for sympathy solidarity rights redistribution or intimacy Improper queer citizenship he suggests depends not only on good politics but also on people s capacity for empathy integration and repair The Magazine of History, with Notes and Queries, 1914 Presenting Young Adult Fantasy Fiction Cathi Dunn MacRae, 1998 Opening with a fascinating array of definitions by writers critics and teenagers MacRae organizes this elusive genre into manageable categories Each chapter traces the development of one subgenre featuring a detailed biographical critique of a contemporary American fantasist within that category The Magazine of History, 1914 Born to Battle Sallie Chesham, 1965 A history prepared by a Salvation Army Officer The Rights War in Literature and Culture Jennifer Rickel, 2025-07-31 Rights War tracks how the human rights framework is weaponized against the oppressed and it makes the case for the central place of literature in understanding this seizure of narrative control While literary humanitarianism depoliticizes suffering and positions the reader as a savior to traumatized Others Rights War shows how contemporary fiction by women of color and queer writers across the African diaspora engage innovative narrative paradigms to address structural inequities It analyzes strategies set out in this literature for disarming savior victimism which it identifies as a pernicious cultural phenomenon in which the powerful proclaim themselves saviors to and victims of those they marginalize As the disassociation of national rights from international human rights and the disconnection of civil and political rights from social and economic rights provoke a contest of victimhood this book offers a renewed argument for the indivisibility of rights and the social justice function of literature
