1920s through the present day Murphy shows how what began as a radical conservative movement eventually became alternately a critique of twentieth century American liberalism a defense of the Western tradition and Christian humanism and a form of southern traditionalism which could include a defense of racial segregation Although Agrarianism failed as a practical reform movement its intellectual influence was wide ranging Murphy says This influence expanded as Ransom Tate and Warren gained reputations as leaders of the New Criticism More notably such neo Agrarians as Richard M Weaver and M E Bradford transformed Agrarianism into a form of social and moral traditionalism that has had a significant impact on the emerging conservative movement since World War II

The Indignant Generation Lawrence P. Jackson, 2021-10-12 Recovering the lost history of a crucial era in African American literature The Indignant Generation is the first narrative history of the neglected but essential period of African American literature between the Harlem Renaissance and the civil rights era The years between these two indispensable epochs saw the communal rise of Richard Wright Gwendolyn Brooks Ralph Ellison Lorraine Hansberry James Baldwin and many other influential black writers While these individuals have been duly celebrated little attention has been paid to the political and artistic milieu in which they produced their greatest works With this commanding study Lawrence Jackson recalls the lost history of a crucial era Looking at the tumultuous decades surrounding World War II Jackson restores the indignant quality to a generation of African American writers shaped by Jim Crow segregation the Great Depression the growth of American communism and an international wave of decolonization He also reveals how artistic collectives in New York Chicago and Washington fostered a sense of destiny and belonging among diverse and disenchanted peoples As Jackson shows through contemporary documents the years that brought us Their Eyes Were Watching God Native Son and Invisible Man also saw the rise of African American literary criticism by both black and white critics Fully exploring the cadre of key African American writers who triumphed in spite of segregation The Indignant Generation paints a vivid portrait of American intellectual and artistic life in the mid twentieth century

Free All Along Stephen Drury Smith, Catherine Ellis, 2019-01-15 This is an expression not of people who are suddenly freed of something but people who have been free all along Ralph Ellison speaking with Robert Penn Warren A stunning collection of previously unpublished interviews with key figures of the black freedom struggle by the Pulitzer Prize winning author In 1964 in the height of the civil rights movement of the 1960s Pulitzer Prize winning author and poet Robert Penn Warren set out with a tape recorder to interview leaders of the black freedom struggle He spoke at length with luminaries such as James Baldwin Martin Luther King Jr Stokely Carmichael Ralph Ellison and Roy Wilkins eliciting reflections and frank assessments of race in America and the possibilities for meaningful change In Harlem a fifteen minute appointment with Malcolm X unwound into several hours of vivid conversation A year later Penn Warren would publish Who Speaks for the Negro a probing narrative account of these conversations that blended his own reflections with brief excerpts and quotations from his interviews Astonishingly the full extent of the interviews remained in the background and were never published The audiotapes stayed largely unknown until recent years Free All Along brings to life the vital historic voices of America's civil rights generation including writers political activists religious leaders and intellectuals A major contribution to our understanding of the struggle for justice and equality these remarkable long form interviews are presented here as original documents that have pressing relevance today
