Sektor Artists Service Berlin:

Sektor, 1996 Art and the State V. Alexander, M. Rueschemeyer, 2005-06-27 This book examines the impact of states and their policies on visual art States shape the role of art and artists in society influence the development of audiences support artistic work and even affect the very nature of artistic production The book contrasts developments in the United States with art policies in Britain and in the social democratic states of Norway and Sweden In addition it analyzes revealing transitions the changes brought about in East Germany after unification and the experiences of artists who left the Soviet Union for the west The result is a significant contribution to the sociology and the political economy of art Sektor, 1996

Temporary Art and Public Place John S. Powers, 2009 This study focuses on the production and reception of sculpture and installation artworks temporarily realized in public places in Berlin and Los Angeles between 1986 and 2003 Place Art including art works produced as a result of artist generated public place investigations is emphasized A methodic analytical art place space system is set up in terms of physical sensory historical social political and aesthetic frameworks to examine selected artworks in specific and comparative space time realities A model for artistic production reception discourse and intercultural understanding is developed Provided by publisher Four Year Report, Office of Military Government, U.S. Sector, Berlin, July 1, 1945-Sept. 1, 1949 United States. Civil Affairs Division. Army Department, 1949

Participation in Art and Architecture Martino Stierli, Mechtild Widrich, 2015-10-16 Does participatory art and architecture shape social reality or is it shaped by it Shifting the ground of this debate which tends to assume one or other direction of influence this innovative book explores the inherently dialectic relationship between society and the built environment At the same time it strives for a historically conscious discussion of a very contemporary issue Chapters rethink the top down model of participation and audience activation of high modernism from Alexander Dorner s immersive museum to Mies van der Rohe s room s for play investigate participation in spaces under political pressure from exhibitions in bombed out buildings in besieged Sarajevo 1992 5 to the art and organizing of revolution in Egypt 2012 13 draw historical parallels between modes of participation and the exercise of power that are seldom compared with one another from sites of occupation in 1968 Mexico and 2011 Spain finally creating links between cartography and feminism and between tourism and internet surveillance With these juxtapositions of the aesthetic and the everyday and the built and the mediated new questions arise is space formed once and for all or is it the changeable product of changeable patterns of use Does the aesthetic always correspond to the political or might an aesthetically authoritarian space be conducive to social justice In exploring these questions this book looks at how participants themselves exert power rather than being victimised or liberated from it Art of Suppression Pamela M. Potter, 2016-06-28 One thinks of the arts in Nazi Germany as struggling in an oppressive system yet evidence has repeatedly shown that conditions were far more favourable than we assume Potter conducts a historiography of Nazi arts examining writings from the last seven decades to demonstrate how historical moral and intellectual conditions have sustained a distorted characterization of cultural life in the Third Reich Showing how past research has revealed the decentralized nature of Nazi arts policies Potter argues that the insulation of academic disciplines allowed outdated presumptions about Nazi micromanagement of the arts to persist Berlin! Berlinische Galerie,1991 News of Germany ... ,1946 Comics of the New Europe Martha Kuhlman,José Alaniz,2020-04-21 Bringing together the work of an array of North American and European scholars this collection highlights a previously unexamined area within global comics studies It analyses comics from countries formerly behind the Iron Curtain like East Germany Poland Czech Republic Hungary Romania Yugoslavia and Ukraine given their shared history of WWII and communism In addition to situating these graphic narratives in their national and subnational contexts Comics of the New Europe pays particular attention to transnational connections along the common themes of nostalgia memoir and life under communism The essays offer insights into a new generation of European cartoonists that looks forward inspired and informed by traditions from Franco Belgian and American comics and back as they use the medium of comics to reexamine and reevaluate not only their national pasts and respective comics traditions but also their own post 1989 identities and experiences Quality of Internal Auditing in the Public Sector Plamena Nedyalkova,2019-10-17 This book examines key methodological and organizational questions with regard to assessing the quality of internal audits By studying the status quo of these audits in the public sector including municipalities it identifies relevant weaknesses loopholes and issues In addition the book assesses the strengths and weaknesses of the approved control system to explain the reasons why and conditions under which internal audits are ineffective and proposes new metric and non metric indicators to improve the quality of internal auditing Given its scope the book offers a valuable guide for anyone responsible for financial controls and internal audits and will appeal to students and financial practitioners alike History of International Broadcasting James Wood,1992 Vol 1 The following topics are dealt with radio instrument foreign policy information broadcasting radio telephony and wartime broadcasting DE Magazin Deutschland ,2014 Fodor's Berlin's 25 Best, 7th Edition Fodor's,2010-12-28 Parallel Public Sara Blaylock,2022-03-01 How East German artists made their country s experimental art scene a form of counter public life Experimental artists in the final years of the German Democratic Republic did not practice their art in the shadows on the margins hiding away from the Stasi s prying eyes In fact as Sara Blaylock shows many cultivated a critical influence over the very bureaucracies meant to keep them in line undermining state authority through forthright rather than covert projects In Parallel Public Blaylock describes how some East German artists made their country s experimental art scene a form of counter public life creating an alternative to the crumbling collective underpinnings of the state Blaylock examines the work of artists who used body based practices including performance film and photography to create new vocabularies of representation sharing their projects through independent networks of dissemination and display From the collective films and fashion shows of Erfurt s Women Artists Group which fused art with feminist political action to Gino Hahnemann the queer filmmaker and poet who set nudes alight in city parks these creators were as bold in their ventures as they were indifferent to state power Parallel Public is the first work of its kind on experimental art in East Germany to be written in English Blaylock draws on extensive interviews with artists art historians and organizers artist made publications official reports from the Union of Fine Artists and Stasi surveillance records As she recounts the role culture played in the GDR s rapid decline she reveals East German artists as dissenters and witnesses citizens and agents their work both antidote to and diagnosis of a weakening state Towards More Democracy in Social Services Gaby Flösser,Hans-Uwe Otto,2011-10-13 No detailed description available for Towards More Democracy in Social Services The German Industrial Echo ,1954 Pevsner: The Complete Broadcast Talks Mr Stephen Games,2014-05-28 This book brings together the surviving texts of the 113 talks on art and architecture that we know of given by the art historian Sir Nikolaus Pevsner on radio and television between 1945 1977 It includes the seven texts of the 1955 Reith Lectures in their original broadcast form as well as lectures that Pevsner gave in German for the BBC in London and RIAS in Berlin and on the radio in New Zealand These talks are important as an example of the attempt by the BBC in particular to provide intellectual programming for the mass population The talks are important for what they reveal about changing tastes in the treatment of the arts as a broadcast topic as well as offering a case study of the development of one particular historian s approach to a subject that was gaining ground in universities as a direct result of his popularisation of it They show what topics were thought to be central to the artistic agenda in the mid years of the last century whether from an academic or journalistic perspective and reveal the mode and manner of academic engagement with the public over the period Forty six of these talks were published in 2002 on the centenary of Pevsner s birth in a trade edition At the time his reputation as an active force in architectural thinking had long been eclipsed and interest in him had waned Since then there has been a turn around in tastes and Pevsner s role within his chosen field is now being actively studied and discussed by a new generation for whom he is central to an understanding of the 20th century There is therefore a real need for this book In addition to containing twice the number of talks as the previous volume it is supplemented with explanatory introductions footnotes and citations It also reveals as far as this is possible alternative versions of Pevsner s texts as they appeared at different stages in the original production process As such this edition can be relied on by academics as scholarly and definitive Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 Deutsche Nationalbibliographie und Bibliographie der im Ausland erschienenen deutschsprachigen Veröffentlichungen ,2005
