Nasser Makers Of The Modern World 1:

Kennedy and the Middle East Antonio Perra, 2017-10-30 At the height of the Cold War the John F Kennedy administration designed an ambitious plan for the Middle East its aim was to seek rapprochement with Nasser's Egypt in order to keep the Arab world neutral and contain the perceived communist threat In order to offset this approach Kennedy sought to grow relations with the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia and embrace Israel's defense priorities a decision which would begin the US Israeli special relationship Here Antonio Perra shows for the first time how new relations with Saudi Arabia and Israel which would come to shape the Middle East for decades were in fact a by product of Kennedy's efforts at Soviet containment The Saudi's in particular were increasingly viewed as an atavistic regime who would soon disappear but Kennedy's support for them which hardened during the Yemen Crisis even as he sought to placate Nasser had the unintended effect of making them as today the US great pillar of support in the Middle East Egypt Ragai N. Makar, 1988 The Middle East in Modern World History Ernest Tucker, 2019-01-30 The Middle East in Modern World History examines how global trends over the last 200 years have shaped the Middle East and how these trends were affected by the region's development Covering a key period in the history of the Middle East this book highlights three major trends within the region's development over the past two centuries the role of the region as a strategic conduit between East and West the development of the region's natural resources especially oil and the impact of a rapidly globalizing world economy on the Middle East This new edition extends coverage to the present day and includes more thematic and interpretive discussion on the impact of global migration and the evolution of the roles of women It also provides more theoretical insights into current historical research and recent developments in the region firmly placing these developments within their historical context Clearly written and supported throughout by maps images discussion questions and suggestions for further reading as well as including a comprehensive chronology and glossary that enable readers to develop a clearer picture of political economic social and cultural life within the region The Middle East in Modern World History is the perfect textbook for all students of the history of the modern Middle East within a global context Contributions in Librarianship and Information Science, 1975 The Modern World (eBook) Tim McNeese, 2000-09-01 1945 The Modern World covers the period from the end of World War II to the present The rebuilding of postwar Europe the advent of the Cold War space exploration the collapse of Soviet communism and the explosion of advanced technologies in the late 20th century figure prominently in this volume Also discussed are the contributions and influence of historic personalities such as Mahatma Gandhi Nikita Khrushchev Mikhail Gorbachev and American presidents from Harry Truman to Bill Clinton Challenging map exercises and provocative review questions encourage meaningful reflection and historical analysis The Modern World (ENHANCED eBook) Tim McNeese, 2000-09-01 1945 The Modern World covers the period from the end of World War II to the present The rebuilding of postwar Europe the advent of the Cold War space exploration the collapse of Soviet communism and the explosion of Bar-On, 2004-11-30 This is the story of a tragic confrontation between two national movements contesting the same small piece of land a clash that has become one of the most intractable issues in modern times From the establishment of the first Zionist colonies in the 1880s tensions have run high between the indigenous Arab population of Palestine and Jews who have sought to create an independent state on land they consider their ancient home Clashes both internal and external have become increasingly violent Since the first full scale Palestinian Revolt in 1936 relations have except for a few brief periods of peace been characterized by continuous and escalating degrees of bloodshed Twelve major clashes can be identified from that first three year struggle to the current Intifada al Aqsa Here 12 Israeli historians and writers present reflections on the incidents along with up to date analysis and historical assessment After a detailed introduction designed to help readers place the conflicts into a historical context experts discuss events ranging from the first organized revolt to the current conflagration As a result of the initial weakness of the Palestinians and the defeats they suffered at the hands of the better organized Israelis the entire Arab world stepped into the breach Wars between May 1948 and October 1973 involved Arab regular armies but the Palestinian comeback began in 1965 as a result of guerrilla insurgency It gathered momentum with the popular uprising of the first Intifada 1987 1990 and more so with the start of the second and more lethal Intifada in 2000 The situation is these experts argue not without hope of a resolution but an end to the violence is unlikely to come easily or quickly Modern Arab Historiography Youssef Choueiri, 2013-10-08 Including a new introduction and conclusion this revised second edition deals with a vital yet neglected ingredient in modern Arab culture It is the only scholarly study of Arab historiography It covers the periods 1820 1920 Pioneers and Amateurs and 1920 to today Professional Historians Managers of Legitimation This work is a major contribution not only to the study of Arab historiography but to our understanding of modern Arab thought

Harvests of Liberation Ahmad Shokr, 2025-05-20 In the first half of the twentieth century a major change occurred in Egyptian nationalist understandings of imperialism and economic sovereignty Where once the volatilities of foreign markets and capital were seen as the main threat over time large landowners and their imperial allies were targeted as the principal obstacles to the country's industrial progress The perceived locus of imperial domination shifted from the realm of circulation to the realm of production Harvests of Liberation situates this transformation in the midcentury dynamics of agrarian capitalism in Egypt Ahmad Shokr tells a story of decolonization through the lens of cotton Egypt's prized export He follows a range of actors colonial advisors nationalist leaders agrarian reformers merchant financiers landowners and rural workers whose interactions moved the levers of the cotton trade from institutions that facilitated accumulation on an imperial scale to new sites of control within the nation state Amidst depression and war the transformation of Egypt's cotton economy prompted nationalists to embrace policies of land reform and industrialization and adopt a new conception of history Ultimately Shokr argues these efforts set the stage for the construction of a postcolonial republic under Gamal Abdel Nasser where national liberation became equated with national development From Postmodernism to Postsecularism Eric Walberg, 2013-07-31 Eric Walberg's new book From Postmodernism to Postsecularism: Re-emerging Islamic Civilization provides an overview of imperialism and colonialism in the Muslim world. It elaborates on the third of the Great Games addressed in his earlier work Postmodern Imperialism which traced the movement of history from the colonialism of the British and other empires through the neocolonialism of the US empire to the current Great Game marked by the revival of Islam. Walberg reviews the Islamic reform traditions from the 19th century on deriving from Al Afghani Qutb incorporating the Islamic critique of the West as well as the Sunni Shia mainstream Sufi Salafi divisions. Then he addresses the twentieth century experience of Islamic states: Saudi Arabia, Pakistan, Afghanistan, Iran as well as the current dynamics of the Muslim world: Saudi, Iran, Qatar, Turkey and now Egypt, Tunisia, Libya. Key actors and milestones in the struggle to free the Muslim world from the imperial yoke are discussed. While the Christian/Judaic surrender to capitalism led to Marxist secularism and the communist utopia, Walberg views the Islamic project as containing an alternative socio-economic orientation. This prevented the rise of capitalism/imperialism in lands populated by Muslims making them the losers in the technology race of the 19th/20th centuries but the repository of a corrected vision of the rich lost values of the earlier monotheistic traditions. Here modernity and postmodernism are critiqued from both left and right and Islam is discussed as both an alternative worldview and world order. However the contradictions of the Arab Spring may be resolved as the West continues its decline. Walberg projects how the understandings entrenched in Islamic civilization point toward a new old civilizational alternative, one not derivative from the West but indigenous to the developing world still under its heel. LIFE, 1961-11-17 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century.
