Pacific Essays Terrorism The Pacific Hemisphere Globalization And Peace Studies:

Pacific Essays Johan Galtung, 2014-05-14 I never encounter the writings of Dr Johan Galtung without recalling what the philosopher Ralph Waldo Emerson said of the true scholar namely that He is the world's eye He is the world's heart Daisaku Ikeda President Soka Gakkai International Johan Galtung is the world's foremost thinker in peace studies This remarkable collection of essays represents his response to the events of September 11 2001 It is a philosophical collection on terror war and peace which engages with the key issues and obstacles we face in attempting to create peace around the world Focusing in particular on the Pacific region he presents a grounded assessment of the history of the regional power dynamics and present prospects for peace Topics covered include the hegemony of the USA the European perspective the US relationship with Japan and Asia decolonization and peace movements in the age of globalization Pax Pacifica Johan Galtung, Daisaku Ikeda, 2020-07-29 Johan Galtung is the world's foremost thinker in peace studies This remarkable book is his response to the events of 9 11 It is a philosophical collection of essays on terror war and peace which engages with the key issues and obstacles we face in attempting to create peace around the world Focusing in particular on the Pacific region he presents a grounded assessment of the history of the regional power dynamics and present prospects for peace Peace Research Abstracts Journal, 2005 Pax Pacifica Johan Galtung, 2005 Unique behind the scenes account of the Camp David peace talks The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2005 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003 Book Review Index, 2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 4) Union Of International Associations, Union of International Associations, 2014-09-17 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and activities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Providing both an international organizations and research bibliography Volume 4 cites over 46 000 publications and information resources supplied by international organizations and provides nearly 18 000 research citations under 40 subject headings This volume also includes a research bibliography on international organizations and transnational associations The Bibliographic Index, 2005 Bibliographic Index, 2006 Yearbook of International Organizations, Peace and Development in the Pacific Hemisphere Johan Galtung, 1989 Globalisation and the New Terror David Martin Jones, 2004-01-28 Examines trends in new terror understood here to be the capacity of sub state actors to secure religious or politically motivated objectives by violent means Argues that while the use of violence to achieve political ends is scarcely original what distinguishes new terror is its potential for lethality Australian author Peace and Security in Indo-Pacific Asia Sorpong Peou, 2021-11-21 Peace and

Security in Indo Pacific Asia is for the informed the interested and the engaged Sorpong Peou brings together the skills of the pedagogue with the knowledge of the scholar Dr David Dewitt University Professor Emeritus Senior Scholar York University Toronto Canada Peou s excellent book provides both the lay reader and the specialist with six important theoretical frameworks which should provide the basis for better appreciation of what a security community in Indo Pacific Asia means in our world today There are very few scholars who understand the region like Peou Dr W Andy Knight Professor of Political Science the University of Alberta Canada Sorpong Peou s extraordinary breadth of knowledge of both International Relations theory and the key trends in Indo Pacific Asia shines through in this authoritative analysis Dr Richard Stubbs Professor of Political Science McMaster University Canada A pedagogical approach of the textbook that is appreciated is how the author respectfully engages with the theories of IR and is not pushing an agenda of denouncing some theories and trying to persuade the reader of others We live in such polarizing times that it is truly refreshing to read scholarly work that avoids sensationalistic attacks on theories that have been debated for decades Each theory in this manuscript is explored on its own terms and the reader is encouraged to figure out where they stand on these enduring debates in the context of Indo Pacific security The approach will lead to compelling classroom discussions of the theories and the politics of the region This book is a must read for any student or observer of security trends in the region Dr Mark Williams Chair and Professor of Political Studies Vancouver Island University B C Canada The Indo-Pacific Axis Satish Chandra,Baladas Ghoshal,2018-04-17 The term Indo Pacific is being used increasingly in the global strategic geo political discourse in recent years The rise of China as an economic giant and a rising military power has led to the consequent shift of international politics and relations to Asia as the fulcrum It has turned the whole region of Indo Pacific as one security complex Countries that are part of the region but also countries that are adjacent or outside the region but also the countries adjoining the oceans look for a mechanism in accordance with a rule based order International law that would protect the rights of the nations to pursue global commons was emphasized This timely volume presents a collection of articles by leading scholars on the subject from the region It addresses the faultlines of both traditional and non traditional security issues Military modernization especially of the naval forces of a number of powers national ambitions of power projection and plans to build ports in strategic locations are exacerbating insecurity and greater arms race It also poses the question whether the Indo Pacific region will become a theatre of tension and instability or a contributor to peace and prosperity for the larger populations that reside herein Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka

Internationalizing the Pacific Tomoko Akami,2003-08-27 The Institute of Pacific Relations was a pioneering intellectual political organization that shaped public knowledge and both elite and popular discourse throughout the Asia Pacific region and beyond during the inter war years Inspired by Wilsonian internationalism after the 1919 formation of the League of Nations it grew to become an international and national non governmental think tank providing expertise on Asia and the Pacific This book investigates post League Wilsonian internationalism with respect to two critical issues the nation state and the conception of the Asia Pacific region both issues broach a range of contentious subjects including colonialism orientalism racism and war Akami s study of the Institute of Pacific Relations offers insight into the formation of the dominant ideologies and institutions of regional and international politics in the Pacific during the inter war years and provides an interesting perspective on Japan s relations with countries including the USA and Australia

Peace and Security in the Asia-Pacific Sorpong Peou,2010-04-15 Demonstrating that none of the various perspectives under review has emerged as the clear winner in the struggle for theoretical hegemony in security studies this book shows that eclectic perspectives like democratic realist institutionalism can better explain peace and security in the Asian Pacific The Asian Pacific has emerged as one of the most important regions in the world causing scholars to pay increased attention to the various challenges old and new to peace and security there Peace and Security in the Asia Pacific Theory and Practice is a comprehensive critical review of the established theoretical perspectives relevant to contemporary peace and security studies in the light of recent experiences Illuminating ongoing debates in the field the book covers some 20 theoretical perspectives on peace and security in the Asian Pacific including realist liberal socialist peace and human security constructivist feminist and nontraditional security studies The first section of the book discusses perspectives in realist security studies the second part covers perspectives critical of realism The author s goal is to assess whether any of the perspectives found in nonrealist security studies are capable of undermining realism His conclusion is that each theoretical perspective has its strengths and weaknesses leaving eclecticism as the best way to understand the region s dynamics

Globalisation and Governance in the Pacific Islands Stewart Firth,2006-12-01 The Pacific Islands are feeling the effects of globalisation Free trade in sugar and garments is threatening two of Fiji s key industries At the same time other opportunities are emerging Labour migration is growing in importance and Pacific governments are calling for more access to Australia s labour market Fiji has joined Samoa Tonga Tuvalu and Kiribati as a remittance economy with thousands of its citizens working overseas Meantime Papua New Guinea and Solomon Islands grapple with an older kind of globalisation in which overseas companies exploit mineral and forest resources The Pacific Islands confront unique problems of governance in this era of globalisation The modern democratic state often fits awkwardly with traditional ways of doing politics in that part of the world Just as often politicians in the Pacific exploit tradition or invent it to serve modern political purposes The contributors to this volume examine Pacific globalisation and governance from a wide range of perspectives They come from Papua New Guinea Solomon Islands Hawai i the Federated States of Micronesia Samoa Fiji New Zealand and Jamaica as well as Australia Publisher s description

Voyaging Through the Contemporary Pacific David L. Hanlon,Geoffrey Miles White,2000 The Pacific has long been a site for debates over disciplinary approaches and the ethics and politics of research within neocolonial and postcolonial contexts This volume makes a significant contribution to these debates and to the related and ongoing exchanges concerning area studies the globalization of capitalism and its attendant cultural social and political effects In so doing the authors link work from the Pacific with theoretical and methodological issues raised in other areas of the globe This collection of the best from Contemporary Pacific will prove invaluable to scholars students and all interested in the study of history culture and identity in the Pacific and in post colonial societies everywhere Change and Continuity in the Pacific John Connell, Helen Morton Lee, 2018 The contributors to this book have all conducted long term research in the islands of the Pacific During their visits and revisits they have witnessed first hand the many changes that have occurred in their field sites as well as observing elements of continuity
