Paddy Clarke Ha Ha Ha Roddy Doyle, 1995-01-01 Winner of the Booker Prize Roddy Doyle's witty exuberant novel about a young boy trying to make sense of his changing world It is 1968 Patrick Clarke is ten He loves Geronimo the Three Stooges and the smell of his hot water bottle He can't stand his little brother Sinbad His best friend is Kevin and their names are all over Barrytown written with sticks in wet cement They play football lepers and jumping to the bottom of the sea But why didn't anyone help him when Charles Leavy had been going to kill him Why do his ma and da argue so much but act like everything is fine Paddy sees everything but he understands less and less Hilarious and poignant Paddy Clarke Ha Ha Ha charts the triumphs indignities and bewilderment of a young boy and his world a place full of warmth cruelty confusion and love Irish America, 1999 The Secret of Lost Things Sheridan Hay, 2008-04-08 Eighteen years old and completely alone Rosemary arrives in New York from Tasmania with little other than her love of books and an eagerness to explore the city Taking a job at a vast chaotic emporium of used and rare books called the Arcade she knows she has found a home But when Rosemary reads a letter from someone seeking to place a lost manuscript by Herman Melville the bookstore erupts with simmering ambitions and rivalries Including actual correspondence by Melville The Secret of Lost Things is at once a literary adventure and evocative portrait of a young woman making a life for herself in the city A Concise Companion to Contemporary British Fiction James F. English, 2008-04-15 A Concise Companion to Contemporary British Fiction offers an authoritative overview of contemporary British fiction in its social political and economic contexts Focuses on the fiction that has emerged since the late 1970s roughly since the start of the Thatcher era Comprises original essays from major scholars Topics range from the rise and fall of the postcolonial novel to controversies over the celebrity author The emphasis is on the whole fiction scene from bookstores and prizes to the changing economics of film adaptation Enables students to read contemporary works of British fiction with a much clearer sense of where they fit within British cultural life The Routledge Creative Writing Coursebook Paul Mills, 2006 This step by step practical guide to the process of creative writing provides genre based chapters including life writing novels and short stories poetry and screenwriting The Worlds of Carol Shields David Staines, 2014-12-02 Carol was a very fine writer and a remarkable human being a wonderful person whose work I closely followed for more than 20 years I interviewed her frequently over those years with virtually every work she produced novel radio drama play book of stories So I had a good sense of the span of her work and also her evolution as a stylist But the key reason I wanted to make a book focusing on her life and work is that we were friends Eleanor Wachtel This book strikes the right balance between intimate accounts and literary analysis It opens with reminiscences by close friend Eleanor Wachtel which are followed by a study of Shields poetry by her daughter and grandson then by various aspects of her fiction including a detailed examination of her plays It closes with reminiscences by four close friends Jane Urquhart Joan Clark Wayson Choy and Martin Levin The 23 contributors offer new insights new theories and new perspectives about

Shields illuminating career Only one piece her obituary written by Margaret Atwood has been previously published

Football in Fiction Lee McGowan, 2019-09-26 Football in Fiction represents the most comprehensive historical mapping and analysis of novels related to association football soccer It offers a theoretically informed field guide a scholarly cartography of football fiction s uncertain and until now only partially explored terrain Combining an extensive search for texts with up to date academic research journals surveys catalogues and reviews the book demonstrates a topographic perspective of the field one that captures and establishes its breadth depth and distinctive identity The book uses and adapts two distinct reading models of abstraction in conjunction with closer textual analyses Together they assist in realising a set of demonstrable conventions outline a taxonomy of fictive types establish the genre s current state of play and advance the football novel as a form with its own literary history and traditions This book is a valuable resource for those studying and researching in the areas of the social and cultural aspects of football sports fiction sports writing creative writing and literary and genre studies Furthermore related industry professionals will find this a fascinating read particularly football writers fans of the sport and those interested in sports history and cultural phenomena
