Painting the Woods Deborah Paris, 2020-12-11 When first time author and artist Deborah Paris stepped into Lennox Woods an old growth southern hardwood forest in northeast Texas she felt a disruption that was both spatial and temporal Walking the remnants of an old wagon trail past ancient stands of pine white oak elm hickory sweetgum maple hornbeam and red oak she felt drawn into a reverie that took her back to the beginning both physically and metaphorically Painting the Woods Nature Memory and Metaphor explores the experience of landscape through the lens of art and art making It is a place based meditation on nature art memory and time grounded in Paris s experiences over the course of a year in Lennox Woods Her account unfolds through the twin arcs of the changing seasons and her creative process as a landscape painter In the tradition of Annie Dillard s Pilgrim at Tinker Creek narrative passages interweave with observations about the natural history of Lennox Woods its flora and fauna art history the science of memory Transcendentalist philosophy the role of metaphor in creative work and even loop quantum gravity theory Each chapter explores a different aspect of the forest and a different step in the art making process illuminating our connection to the natural world through language comprehension of time and visual depictions of the landscape The complex layers of the forest and Paris s journey through it emerge as metaphors for the larger themes of the book just as the natural world underpins the art making drawn from it Like the trail that winds through Lennox Woods memory and time intertwine to provide a path for understanding nature art and our relationship to both

The Art of Discrimination Ralph Cohen, 2021-12-29 First published in 1964 The Art of Discrimination is a study in the relation between critical theory and practice taking as its test case James Thomson s The Seasons the poem which was according to Johnson of a new kind Professor Cohen explores the different applications of criticism from 1750 to 1950 analysing specific interpretations of the poem that altered contradicted or supported poetic theory In doing so he introduces new techniques to supplement traditional critical commentary illustrations are treated as interpretations and critical language is related to non literary as well as literary information In treating the history of critical interpretation the reprinting of editions and past interpretations are considered along with contemporary statements as necessary to define a literary period The book offers alternatives to theories of organicism and to those of the arbitrariness of literary history by defining the kinds of continuities that exist in criticism As analysis of criticism it studies how men think about literature the extent to which such thinking resists systematization and those elements in it which can be controlled and organized and transmitted The book will appeal to students of literature and critical theory

Art Education Albert William Levi,Ralph Alexander Smith,1991 Recommending that art be taught as a humanity this volume provides a philosophical rationale for the idea of discipline based art education Levi and Smith discuss topics ranging over both the public and private aspects of art the disciplines of artistic creation art history art criticism and aesthetics and curriculum proposals featuring five phases of aesthetic learning While there is no consensus on how the various components of aesthetic learning should be presented in order to accomplish the goals of discipline based art education the authors point out that progress toward those goals will require that those who design art education programs bring an understanding of the four disciplines to their work The introductory volume of a five volume series this book will appeal to elementary and secondary art teachers those who prepare teachers at the college level and museum educators

The Art And Science Of Geography Vladimir V. Annenkov,George J Demko,2019-07-11 Responding to the changes taking place in the post Cold War era the editors of this volume have brought together more than forty distinguished Soviet and U S geographers to redefine geography as a discipline and to examine its relationship to other sciences and to the arts Challenging inevitable barriers of language and of differing social cultural and scientific backgrounds each contributor provides personal insight and perspective shedding unique light onto this often poorly understood discipline The book covers a broad sweep of issues ranging from the methods of geography to examples of practical work done by geographers in Russia and the former republics and the United States The contributors explore and define advances in quantitative technique increasingly sophisticated methodology and the essential relationship between these changes and theory building They also examine the application of geography in Soviet and U S schools as well as the demands that shifting world events are placing on the discipline The discussions not only reveal the individual perspectives of each geographer but also provide a unique forum for the exploration of similarities and differences within the world s two largest geographic communities The volume concludes with an afterword by Torsten Hager strand
