

PAKISTAN and the BOMB

Public Opinion and Nuclear Options
SAMINA AHMED AND DAVID CORTRIGHT, EDITORS

Through the lens of a comprehensive survey of Pakistani public attitudes toward nuclear weapons policy, this volume provides an in-depth view of the nuclear choices facing Pakistan. Based on the most thorough survey of Pakistani public opinion on nuclear policy ever conducted, Pakistan and the Bomb examines the factors that brought a de facto nuclear arms competition to South Asia. A majority of the Pakistani elites surveyed support their country's official position of keeping the nuclear option open—neither renouncing nuclear weapons nor acquiring them—while almost one-third of those surveyed favored an overt policy of going nuclear. Fear of a possible threat from India is the principal factor underlying support for the nuclear option.

The survey also explored the conditions that might persuade Pakistani elites to renounce the nuclear weapons option. The prospect of improved relations with India and a verifiable renunciation of New Delhi's nuclear program would be important factors in this decision. By far the most significant consideration in persuading Pakistanis to forego the nuclear option would be a final settlement with India on the Kashmir dispute.

Pakistan and the Bomb democratizes the debate over nuclear weapons in South Asia by highlighting a new generation of young Pakistani authors. The chapters in the book examine the nuclear policy choices facing Pakistan, from nuclear abstinence to outright weaponization, and apply the findings of the public opinion poll to evaluate a level of popular support for each option. Pakistan and the Bomb offers a new vision for evaluating the nuclear standoff in South Asia and identifying the steps that can lead to a more secure, nuclear-weapon-free future.
