outstanding work and a definite companion to all those interested in contemporary Europe

Journal of Contemporary European Studies Europe is one of the world's oldest civilizations. But what does it mean to be European today? What place does Europe have in global affairs? How should we analyze its key institutions, system of governance, and broader cultural, social, and political dynamics? This exhaustive and timely handbook explores the transformations that characterize contemporary Europe. Investigates how we can best study Europe. Consolidates European studies and provides a platform for future study. Increases the profile of European studies. The Handbook promotes the increasing diversity of perspectives employed in the study of contemporary Europe and EU integration and is situated within the context of Europe's transformations. It offers balanced coverage of political, social, economic, cultural, and institutional dimensions of Europe and includes chapters by leading authorities including Ulrich Beck, Craig Calhoun, Donatella della Porta, Claus Offe, Anssi Paasi, Ben Rosamond, Gurinder Bhambra, and Charles Tilly. Multidisciplinary in organization, inclusive in coverage, and cutting edge in scope. The SAGE Handbook of European Studies is a landmark resource for anyone interested in Europe.

The Jewish People Policy Planning Institute Planning Assessment, 2004-2005 Sergio Della Pergola, Jewish People Policy Planning Institute, 2005. This volume comprises three main parts. The first includes five broad overviews of the current status of Jewish affairs. The second part includes six chapters, each of which reviews the main recent trends and policy issues relevant to Jewish life in six world regions which articulate contemporary Jewish life: North America, Latin America, Europe, and the European Union, the Former Soviet Union, Asia, Africa, and the Pacific, and Israel. The third part introduces an overview of the goals and tasks accomplished by the main Jewish institutions and organizations worldwide in the definition and defense of Jewish interests.

Beyond Imagined Uniqueness William Glass, 2010-08-11. Beyond Imagined Uniqueness: Nationalisms in Comparative Perspectives is a collection of essays from a variety of disciplines and theoretical perspectives that explore the contentious issue of nationalism in historical and contemporary settings. They adopt an interdisciplinary approach to the topic of nationalism and its permutations and modes of expression. The unspoken context of these essays is the trends subsumed under the processes of globalization. Though the world may be becoming more integrated economically, these essays suggest social, cultural, and political forces historically rooted keep the nation and national identity alive and well. The comparative perspectives offered by the essays appear in two ways: one set is the explicit comparisons of nations made by several authors within their essays, and between the essays themselves when the authors focus on developments within a single nation. A second and indeed more thought-provoking set of comparisons come from the way the essays address nationalism in disparate scholarly approaches that include visual culture, history, sociology, and literature. Moreover, while traditional themes in the study of nationalism are not ignored, these essays expand the discussion with case studies of nationalism in Turkey, Asia, and Eastern Europe. Even when nationalism is considered in those areas that have been the central focus of nationalism studies, Western Europe and the USA, the authors bring unique voices to the conversation as in the use of portraiture as a vehicle of nationalism in Cold War America or children's literature shaping a Swedish American identity or in the idea of a covenant as a source of Dutch nationalism or the role of minority languages in West European societies Section One of this volume contains essays that examine the terrain of the national imaginary through language monuments and visual culture Several of the essays in this traverse the cultural sites of representation and commemoration of the nation looking carefully at the politics of memory in places material objects and texts Section Two provides more individual case studies of nations though many of these essays engage significant regional and international tensions especially in a post Cold War world that has often influenced the internal dynamics of nation building Section Three moves the focus away from the nation to immigrant communities especially those in the United States Canada and the Caribbean Diasporas throughout the world have challenged many theories about the nation as crossing borders becomes the norm rather the exception

Men Under Fire Jiří Hutečka, 2019-12-03 In historical writing on World War I Czech speaking soldiers serving in the Austro Hungarian military are typically studied as Czechs rarely as soldiers and never as men As a result the question of these soldiers imperial loyalties has dominated the historical literature to the exclusion of any debate on their identities and experiences Men under Fire provides a groundbreaking analysis of this oft overlooked cohort drawing on a wealth of soldiers private writings to explore experiences of exhaustion sex loyalty authority and combat itself It combines methods from history gender studies and military science to reveal the extent to which the Great War challenged these men's senses of masculinity and to which the resulting dynamics influenced their attitudes and loyalties

The European Heritage Gerard Delanty, 2017-07-06 Gerard Delanty offers a critical interpretation of the European heritage today in light of recent developments in the human and social sciences and in view of a mood of crisis in Europe that compels us to re think the European past One of the main insights informing this book is that a transnational and global perspective on European history can reorient the European heritage in a direction that offers a more viable way for contemporary Europe to articulate an intercultural identity in keeping with the emerging shape of Europe and with its own often acknowledged past He argues that the European heritage is based less on a universalistic conception of culture than on a plurality of interconnecting narratives Such a perspective opens up new directions for scholarship and public debate on heritage that are guided by critical cosmopolitan considerations that highlight contention resistances competition and dissonance He argues that the specificity of the European dimension of culture is in the entanglement of many cultures rather than in an original culture The cultures of Europe are not separated but have been shaped in close interaction with each other and with the non European world Nations are not therefore unique exceptional or fundamentally different from each other The outcome of such intermingling is a multiplicity of ideas of Europe that serve as shared cultural reference points

The Early 20th Century Resurgence of the Tibetan Buddhist World Ishihama Yumiko, Alex McKay, 2025-10-01 The Early 20th Century Resurgence of the Tibetan Buddhist World is a cohesive collection of studies by Japanese Russian and Central Asian scholars deploying previously unexplored Russian Mongolian and Tibetan sources concerning events and processes in the Central Asian Buddhist world in the late 19th and early 20th centuries Set in the final days of the Qing Empire when the Russian and British empires were expanding into Central Asia this work examines the interplay of religious economic and political power among peoples who acknowledged the religious authority of Tibet's Dalai Lama It focuses on diplomatic initiatives involving the 13th Dalai Lama and other Tibetan Buddhist hierarchs during and after his exile in Mongolia and China as well as his relations with Mongols and with Buryat Kalmyk and other Russian Buddhists It demonstrates how these factors shaped historical processes in the region not least the reformulations of both group identity and political consciousness
