Patience And Power Womens Lives In A Moroccan Village:

Patience and Power Susan Schaefer Davis, 1983 This sociocultural anthropological study of Moroccan village women helps us to understand another way of life Patience and Power blows away the cobwebs of myth surrounding women in an Islamic society It shows them in their true light not subordinate to men but revealing both patience and power Older literature about Muslim women written mostly by men has been superficial in approach and often inaccurate More recent studies offer details with few explanations or conclusions Patience and Power on the other hand is written by an anthropologist who uses a new more systematic approach Additionally Dr Susan S Davis not only speaks Moroccan Arabic fluently but is at home in the culture Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East, 1992 During the last two decades the number of anthropological studies on the Middle East has increased exponentially This partially annotated bibliography offers a comprehensive survey of studies written in English French and German and covers the period from 1965 to 1987

Women's Roles in the Middle East and North Africa Ruth Margolies Beitler, Angelica R. Martinez, 2010-04-09 This concise content rich volume provides an overview of women's roles in the Middle East and North Africa from the advent of Islam to the present Recent research shows that women in the Middle East and North Africa have played much larger roles in society than previously acknowledged Women's Roles in the Middle East and North Africa explores these roles from both historical and contemporary perspectives describing and analyzing the lives of women in the regions from the advent of Islam through contemporary times The book begins with an introduction that examines the pre Islamic Middle East and North Africa The balance of the chapters are organized thematically and provide detailed country studies for 19 nations Chapters discuss work law religion family politics and culture exploring the changes women have undergone over a period of roughly 1 500 years

Women in the Middle East and North Africa Guity Nashat, Judith E. Tucker, 1999-06-22 Describes changes in women's lives from ancient times to the last two centuries and discusses how an expanding Islam both changed and was influenced by local customs Moroccan Immigrant Women in Spain T. Thao Pham, 2013-12-05 Immigrant Moroccan Women in Spain Honor and Marriage provides an ethnographic study of Moroccan Muslim immigrant women in Spain that captures the predicaments and strategies used in their adaptation to Spanish society Moroccan immigrant women's social and emotional connections to honor and duty affect familial relations identity and the sense of belonging Although the women have kept transnational ties to friends and families Morocco the establishment of new relationships and networks presents them with information ideas and opportunities that result in a complex process of altering their imported ideas and practices This book also reveals and explores the geopolitical tension that affects these women's interactions and negotiations with various Spanish institutions and how the representations of Islam affect the Spanish reception and treatment of Moroccans Working as domestic workers and agricultural laborers in Spain Moroccan immigrant women illuminate the problems associated with gender labor modernity and globalization Women Artisans of Morocco Susan Schaefer Davis, 2018-04-15 Morocco

Ancient cities adobe fortresses of centuries past fertile plains of wheat and olives carpets of wildflowers endless deserts wild mountains and isolated rural villages And of course the fabled open air markets framed with stacks of woven rugs and other handicrafts exotic scents wafting through the aisles the hum of Arabic Berber French Within this diverse land and confluence of cultures many rich and ancient craft traditions carry on women spin and weave make buttons embroider designs passed down through generations and sew stunning native costumes Women Artisans of Morocco tells the stories of twenty five women who practice these textile traditions with an inspiring energy pride and fortitude For the first time we have a book that focuses on the artisans of Morocco themselves those who produce these beautiful textiles that contribute substantially to their family s income while maintaining households and raising children You will step into the lives of these Moroccan women artisans and gain an appreciation for their artistic skills and ingenuity but also for their strong roles in this supposedly male dominated society their fierce independence and determination as they work to improve their economic livelihoods You will be welcomed into their homes in rural Berber villages in bustling cities and in a remarkable desert oasis You will begin to learn truly what it is like to live as a woman in Morocco and to be part of a rapidly changing society Most of the women presented here are rug weavers whose ancient skills and designs vary from region to region You will also meet Fes

embroidery artists women who needle weave buttons that have decorated native costumes for centuries and a contemporary seamstress Joe Coca s award winning photography guided by his curious and reverent sensibility captures the beauty of the women their work and Morocco The Moroccan Women's Rights Movement Amy Young Evrard,2014-06-09 Among various important efforts to address women s issues in Morocco a particular set of individuals and associations have formed around two specific goals reforming the Moroccan Family Code and raising awareness of women s rights Evrard chronicles the history of the women s rights movement exploring the organizational structure activities and motivations with specific attention to questions of legal reform and family law Employing ethnographic scrutiny Evrard presents the stories of the individual women behind the movement and the challenges they faced Given the vast reform of the Moroccan Family Code in 2004 and the emphasis on the role of women across the Middle East and North Africa today this book makes a timely argument for the analysis of women s rights as both global and local in origin evolution and application Women and Development in the Middle East and North Africa Jabbra,2021-11-01

Broadly speaking we can view women and development as the empowerment of women in a Third World context Accordingly the question is whether women in the Middle East and North Africa benefit from development If so in what ways do they benefit The essays in this volume survey a number of countries in the region to address these questions The countries include Afghanistan Palestine Israel Iran Algeria Iraq Saudi Arabia Morocco and Egypt There is also an introduction to the volume and a general essay on women and development The authors themselves are an international group of social scientists specializing in the region Romantic Passion William

ethnocentric notions of love and marriage onto cultures around the world Contributors look beyond each society's official institutions to explore expressions of love offering new perspectives on arranged marriages and polygamy and reexamining as well the other side of the equation rejection and grief Women and Knowledge in the Mediterranean Fatima Sadiqi, 2013-05-07 Women in the Mediterranean have helped constitute new meanings of knowledge whilst simultaneously providing a wealth of material that is now part of the knowledge archive of the area The inception of types of knowledge that differ from the conventional necessitates a redefinition of the concept of knowledge an issue which is addressed in this volume Employing a range of theories and methodologies this book explores four main domains in which women's knowledge is attested women and written knowledge women and oral knowledge women and legal religious and economic knowledge and women and media knowledge By presenting untapped women's expressions of knowledge in these domains this book opens new avenues of research in fields such as sociology history and literature amongst others This book will be an invaluable resource for students and scholars of the Middle East Women and Gender studies and Mediterranean Studies

Women, Gender, and Language in Morocco Fatima Sadiqi, 2003 This text is an original investigation in the complex relationship between women gender and language in a Muslim multilingual and multicultural setting Moroccan women's use of monolingualism oral literature and multilingualism code switching reflects their agency and gender role subversion in a heavily patriarchal society Food and Families in the Making Katharina Graf, 2024-04-01 Even in the context of rapid material and social change in urban Morocco women and especially those from low income households continue to invest a lot of work in preparing good food for their families Through the lens of domestic food preparation this book looks at knowledge reproduction how we know cooking and its role in the making of everyday family life It also examines a political economy of cooking that situates Marrakchi women's lived experiences in the broader context of persisting poverty and food insecurity in Morocco Theorizing Masculinities Harry Brod, Michael Kaufman, 1994-06-13 A new field of inquiry and growing interdisciplinary area men's studies is just now beginning to develop its own distinctive methodologies and perspectives as demonstrated in the pages of Theorizing Masculinities This first major compilation of new theoretical work on men begins by presenting ideas borrowed from the disciplines that have fostered the study of masculinities sociology psychoanalysis ethnography and inequality The following chapters explore many issues central to the study of men such as power ethnicity feminism and homophobia The contributors also provide theoretical explanations of some of the institutions most closely identified with men such as the military sports and the men's movement The contributors to this volume come from disciplines as diverse as sociology political science industrial relations philosophy education anthropology gender studies and literature Together they make this benchmark volume the guiding set of theories on masculinities Theorizing Masculinities is a comprehensive volume that will appeal to a wide range of students and scholars especially those interested in gender sociology social theory family studies counseling and psychology Womanpower Nadia Hijab, 1988-03-25

Relevant political and economic developments from specific countries explain the reasons for the slow and uneven progress of social change with respect to the position of women in the modern Arab world States and Women's Rights Mounira Charrad,2001 At a time when the situation of women in the Islamic world is of global interest here is a study that unlocks the mystery of why women s fates vary so greatly from one country to another Mounira M Charrad analyzes the distinctive nature of Islamic legal codes by placing them in the larger context of state power in various societies Charrad argues that many analysts miss what is going on in Islamic societies because they fail to recognize the logic of the kin based model of social and political life which she contrasts with the Western class centered model In a skillful synthesis she shows how the logic of Islamic legal codes and kin based political power affect the position of women These provide the key to Charrad s empirical puzzle why after colonial rule women in Tunisia gained broad legal rights even in the absence of a feminist protest movement while despite similarities in culture and religion women remained subordinated in post independence Morocco and Algeria Charrad s elegant theory crisp writing and solid scholarship make a unique contribution in developing a state building paradigm to discuss women s rights This book will interest readers in the fields of sociology politics law women s studies postcolonial studies Middle Eastern studies Middle Eastern history French history and Maghrib studies Gender and the Digital Economy Cecilia Ng,Swasti Mitter,2005-11-05 In the global discourse on ICTs the concern so far has primarily been outsourcing and the loss of service sector jobs from the developed world This book focuses instead on the positive aspects of the digital economy as they relate to women in the developing world It illustrates with case studies from Argentina Morocco India Malaysia and the Philippines how economic empowerment through the medium of ICTs can change the position of women within their families and the workplace even in the face of uneven development processes This timely volume which is rooted in primary and original research illuminates the gender related facets of the emergent information society while raising key questions about the implications of the digital economy on women s work and lives Women Among Women Jeanette Dickerson-Putman,Judith K. Brown,1998 Cross cultural in nature the volume looks at relationships between women of different age groups in a village in Taiwan a town in central Sudan a rural setting in western Kenya an Andean peasant community a horticultural village in Melanesia and an Aboriginal community in Australia Adding an interspecies perspective is a study of two age groups of Japanese macaque monkeys Included is an ethnographic bibliography that lists books with a wealth of information on women in sixty societies Arab Society Nicholas S. Hopkins,Saad Eddin Ibrahim,1997 This all new edition of the classic Arab Society Social Science Perspectives containing thirty new articles by leading scholars examines Arab society in the 1990s Articles by scholars from many countries explore such subjects as Arab unity and identity demographic processes the roles of men women and family rural social change political developments and religious change For students scholars and general readers alike Arab Society offers up to date analysis and discussion of the social political and economic transformations that face the region today International encyclopedia of adolescence

Jeffrey Jensen Arnett, 2007 Publisher description Gender in Cross-Cultural Perspective Adrienne E. Strong, Richard Powis, 2024-08-19 This fully updated new edition of Gender in Cross Cultural Perspective carefully introduces and responds to changes in anthropological approaches to and perspectives on gender. With two new editors and new authors from the Global South and underrepresented communities, it combines theoretically and ethnographically based chapters to examine gender roles and ideology around the world. The book is divided thematically into five parts, with the editors opening each section with a succinct introduction to the principal issues. The book retains some of the classic chapters while offering new contributions and extended discussions throughout on methodology. It also has entirely new contributions that reflect more recent developments in the discipline, including more emphasis on LGBTQ communities, COVID, and migration. This new edition also features additional support for teaching and learning, including a film list and discussion questions that are now offered as supplemental online materials. The eighth edition of Gender in Cross Cultural Perspective continues to be an essential resource for undergraduate and graduate students encountering the anthropology of gender for the first time.
