Queen Mab was perhaps Shelley's most intellectually ambitious work articulating his views of science politics history religion society and individual human relations Subtitled A Philosophical Poem With Notes it became his most influential and pirated poem during much of the nineteenth century a favorite among reformers and radicals The Esdaile Notebook a cycle of fifty eight early poems exhibits an astonishing range of verse forms Unpublished until 1964 this sequence is vital in understanding how the poet mastered his craft As in the acclaimed first volume these works have been critically edited by Donald H Reiman and Neil Fraistat The poems are presented as Shelley intended with textual variants included in footnotes Following the poems are extensive discussions of the circumstances of their composition and the influences they reflect their publication or circulation by other means their reception at the time of publication and in the decades since their republication both authorized and unauthorized and their place in Shelley's intellectual and aesthetic development chapters begin to flow The effect of McDonald himself clearly growing as a poet through the years is accentuated by the fact that more and more pieces are written in the later trips The end result is a most interesting volume of not just ballparks but Americana as numerous attractions taken in during those ballpark weeks and weekends are also noted and or dissected For fourteen seasons on his own and then six more accompanied by friend and confidant Adam Boneker McDonalds travels highlighted by over 300 poems can take the reader back to a simpler time or into the possibilities of the future In chapter and in verse Poet in the Grandstand has something for both the baseball enthusiast and the curious traveler Fans of the game and lovers of the road will each find much to offer within these pages The Liturgical Poetry of Adam of St. Victor Adam
