Cultural Journeys Pamela S. Gates, Dianne L. Hall Mark, 2010-08-16 As multicultural education is becoming integral to the core curriculum teachers often implement this aspect into their courses through literature However standards and criteria to teach and promote active discussion about this literature are sparse Cultural Journeys introduces pre service and experienced teachers to the use of literature to promote active discussions that lead students to think about racial diversity More than just an annotated list of books for children Pamela S. Gates and Dianne L. Hall Mark provide systematic guidelines that teachers can use throughout their careers to evaluate multicultural literature for students in grades K-8 At the same time the text leads the reader to a deeper understanding of how to use multicultural literature throughout the entire curriculum and not just during specially designated months or time periods With the example unit plans and extensive annotated bibliography this book is a valuable resource that pre service teachers will utilize when they begin teaching and in service teachers will reference repeatedly during their planning periods

Poetry, Politics and Culture Akshaya Kumar, 2014-03-14 This book maps the journey of the Indian poetic imagination in Hindi Panjabi and Indian English from its original quasi spiritual longings to its activist interventions in the public domain As Indian poetry of the post 1990s gravitates towards a non Orientalised postcolonial nationalism it seeks to rewrite and disseminate the shifting coordinates of nationalist imagination in terms of the dissent of the subaltern discontents of the nation The book is interdisciplinary it studies Indian poetry from the new emerging imperatives of postcolonialism new historiography subaltern dalit and diasporas nationalism and cultural studies Covering the two major north Indian languages Hindi and Punjabi along with poetry in Indian English the book is a close textual study of about 150 poetry collections in these languages It is path breaking in its study of secular poetry written in the so called vernaculars with critical attention to its participation in the political as well as cultural processes of nation making This cutting edge book should be of interest to scholars of Indian writings in English Hindi and Panjabi gender studies dalit and diaspora studies postcolonial poetry and to students reading South Asian literature and culture

State Sponsored Literature Asha Rogers, 2020 This book tells the timely and much needed story of the state's interest in supporting literary production in post war Britain Working with unexamined sources it charts the forgotten record of state sponsorship into conversation with Britain's transformation into a successful multicultural democracy
