

The Poems of
WILLIAM CANTON

WILLIAM CANTON was best known for his interpretations of childhood, and his poems about children have been often praised as the best things of the kind that we have in English. I admit their charm: but the greatest claim his poetry has upon us seems to me to rest on other poems.

Readers who are tired of verse that has no content, is ornament and nothing else, can buy this rich and crowded volume of poetry, and will always be glad that they did so."
