Positive Preaching And Modern Mind 1907:

Positive Preaching and Modern Mind, Second Edition P. T. Forsyth, 2008-01-01 Peter Taylor Forsyth 1848 1921 preached and pastored for twenty five years before becoming principal of Hackney College in London where he taught Systematic Theology and Preaching Forsyth converted from theological liberalism to classical Christianity in the mid 1880s The theological transition was in his own words from a lover of love to an object of grace A theologian of the cross Forsyth is well known for his publications The Work of Christ Cruciality of the Cross and The Person and Place of Jesus Christ

Positive Preaching and Modern Mind P. T. Forsyth, 2014-03 This Is A New Release Of The Original 1907 Edition The Hibbert Journal ,1908 The Literary Year-book ,1909 The End of Words Richard Lischer, 2008-01-03 After the horrors and violence of the twentieth century words can seem futile In this reflection on the place of preaching today Richard Lischer recognizes that our mass communication culture is exhausted by words Facing up to language s disappointments and dead ends he opens a path to its true end With chapters on vocation interpretation narration and reconciliation The End of Words shows how faithful reading of Scripture rather than flashy performance paves the way for effective preaching Lischer challenges conventional storytelling with a deeper and more biblical view of narrative preaching The ultimate purpose of preaching he argues is to speak God s peace the message of reconciliation While Lischer s End of Words will surely be invaluable to pastors and preachers his honest readable style will appeal to anyone concerned with speaking Christianly

One for the Other Andrew P. Campbell, 2025-06-24 For two thousand years the cross of Christ has been the central point of Christian theologies of salvation However in recent years a variety of theologians such as Rosemary Radford Ruether Rita Nakashima Brock J Denny Weaver and Ren Girard united in their disdain for violence have abandoned any divine sanction or salvific significance for the cross of Christ Instead they frame atonement not in terms of Christ s death but his life formulating atonement theologies that address the need for an ethical concern for the oppressed and powerless Other This volume is dedicated to offering a fair account of their revisions identifying the ethical undertones that lead nonviolent theologians and thinkers to reform atonement theology examining their claims in light of those ethical foundations and exploring P T Forsyth as a viable alternative for contemporary theology The Literary Year-book Frederick George Aflalo, Joseph Jacobs, Herbert Arthur Morrah, Henry Gilbert, Basil Stewart, Mark Meredith, 1921 The London Quarterly Review William Lonsdale Watkinson, William Theophilus Davison, 1908 Eighth General Catalogue of the Yale Divinity School Yale University. Divinity School, 1922 Bulletin ... Ohio State Library, 1911 James Denney (1856-1917) James McMillan Gordon, 2006-06-01 James Denney is now best known though in increasingly restricted circles for his book The Death of Christ considered for over a century a lucid and standard exposition of objective atonement understood in substitutionary terms However there is breadth and depth to Denney s thought a richness and passion in his theological work an attractive integrity and spiritual immediacy in his writing that resists any reducing of his legacy to that of being an apologist for one aspect of Christian doctrine By exploring his early years growing up in Greenock Scotland following his intellectual development through university and college years in Glasgow and considering the impact of a long pastoral ministry in Broughty Ferry Dundee a context is created for studying the mind personality and faith that informed his mature theological writing For twenty years from 1897 1917 he taught biblical theology and exegesis in his denominational College in Glasgow developing his theology through articulation and then exploring and expounding the gospel of Christ as first and originally expressed in the apostolic experience and testimony embedded in the New Testament documents The theological work of Denney taken as a whole was both intellectually engaged and ecclesially focused as he sought to construct a secure basis for biblical faith His theology was offered in the service of the church his learning a self conscious discipleship of the intellect This is the major study of Denney to use the large corpus of Denney s unpublished theological papers and sermons held in New College Library in the University of Edinburgh These together with Denney s published work and wider biographical research form the basis of this study an intellectual and contextual biography of one of Scotland s most attractive and forceful theological personalities

A Theology of Preaching and Dialectic Aaron P. Edwards, 2018-07-12 How does the preacher know what God might say now based upon the many things God said then Preachers and theologians throughout Christian history have grappled with Scripture s diverse emphases alongside the urgent task of declaring the authoritative Word of God in the contemporary pulpit Aaron Edwards offers a new way of engaging with this problem by exploring the theological relationship between biblical dialectics and heraldic proclamation Edwards highlights the theological necessity of dialectical variety without forfeiting assertiveness in the prophetic moment of preaching A vast array of key voices from the theological tradition are drawn upon including Augustine Aquinas Eckhart Luther Calvin Hegel Kierkegaard Chesterton Barth Bultmann Tillich Ebeling and others to navigate the connection between Scriptural unity clarity and paradoxical plurivocality leading to a nuanced account of dialectic Applying this to the homiletically neglected concept of heraldic confidence in preaching Edwards examines the theological possibility of preaching in light of dialectical complexity via its prophetic dimension He shows how the uniquely revelatory relationship of Word and Spirit enables Scriptural illumination prophetic discernment and dialectical decisiveness in the momentary encounter which undergirds all Christian proclamation

The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions, Volume V Mark P. Hutchinson, 2018-10-18 The five volume Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions series is governed by a motif of migration out of England It first traces organized church traditions that arose in Britain and Ireland as Dissenters distanced themselves from a state church defined by diocesan episcopacy the Book of Common Prayer the Thirty Nine Articles and Royal Supremacy but then follows those traditions as they spread beyond Britain and Ireland and also analyses newer traditions that emerged downstream in other parts of the world from earlier forms of Dissent Secondly it does the same for the doctrines church practices stances toward state and society attitudes toward Scripture and characteristic patterns of organization that also originated in earlier British and Irish dissent but that have often defined a trajectory of influence independent of ecclesiastical organizations The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions Volume V follows the spatial cultural and intellectual changes in dissenting identity and practice in the twentieth century as these once European traditions globalized While in Europe dissent was often against the religious state dissent in a globalizing world could redefine itself against colonialism or other secular and religious monopolies The contributors trace the encounters of dissenting Protestant traditions with modernity and globalization changing imperial politics challenges to biblical denominational and pastoral authority local cultures and languages and some of the century's major themes such as race and gender new technologies and organizational change In so doing they identify a vast array of local and globalizing illustrations which will enliven conversations about the role of religion and in particular Christianity

Literary Year Book and Bookman's Directory ..., 1917 Testimony and Tradition Alan P.F. Sell, 2017-11-28 Internationally recognised for his scholarship in the philosophy of religion and Christian Doctrine and for his ecclesiastical connections as former Theological Secretary of the Geneva based World Alliance of Reformed Churches the Reformed theologian Alan Sell has an established reputation amongst theologians church and intellectual historians ecumenists and ministers of religion This collection of Alan Sell's work on the Reformed and Dissenting traditions which includes the Presbyterian Congregational and United Reformed Church spans key doctrinal philosophical ethical historical and ecumenical topics The author illuminates central themes within the history and thought of the Reformed and Dissenting traditions including the catholicity of the Church and danger of sectarianism the importance of church meeting the centrality of the Cross in Christian thought the need for a viable Christian apologetic Alan Sell also includes the only modern study of Henry Grove and papers on Andrew Fuller and P T Forsyth in whose work there is currently a revival of interest With growing interest world wide in the Reformed family which is the third largest Christian world communion this book offers an invaluable resource

A Legacy of Preaching, Volume Two---Enlightenment to the Present Day Zondervan, 2018-11-13 A Legacy of Preaching Volume Two Enlightenment to the Present Day explores the history and development of preaching through a biographical and theological examination of its most important preachers Instead of teaching the history of preaching from the perspective of movements and eras each contributor tells the story of a particular preacher in history allowing these preachers from the past to come alive and instruct us through their lives theologies and methods of preaching Each chapter introduces readers to a key figure in the history of preaching followed by an analysis of the theological views that shaped their preaching their methodology of sermon preparation and delivery and an appraisal of the significant contributions they have made to the history of preaching This diverse collection of familiar and lesser known individuals provides a detailed and fascinating look at what it has meant to communicate the gospel over the past two thousand years By looking at how the gospel has been communicated over time and across different cultures pastors scholars and homiletics students can enrich their own understanding and practice of

Pittsburgh Theological Monograph Series General Editor Dikran Y Hadidian One Ministry, Many Ministers Alan P.F. Sell, 2014-10-24 The heart of this book is the claim that the one church catholic comprises all who on the ground of Christ's saving work are called and gathered by God the Holy Spirit into a fellowship whose only Head is Christ himself and that all thus called are granted the high privilege of sharing in a variety of ways in the one ministry of Christ This is the vision of the Reformed churches past and present Alan Sell argues that far from being a parochial enquiry the nature of the ministry and the work and education of all the ministers are issues as relevant to the life and practice of particular local churches as they are to ecumenical discussions between the several Christian world communions Homiletics Johann Michael Reu, 1924

The Challenge of Preaching John Stott, 2015-09-30 Trim new edition of a modern evangelical classic on preaching Internationally esteemed as an expository preacher and evangelical spokesman John Stott edified thousands of Christian preachers and listeners during his lifetime His writings marked by a special clarity of expression continue to speak to readers around the world This book abridges and revises the text of Stott's Between Two Worlds The Challenge of Preaching Today first published in 1982 and updates it for our twenty first century context Through Greg Scharf's abridging and updating work John Stott's perspectives and insights on faithful relevant preaching of the Word of God will benefit a new generation of preachers and preachers to be
