Post Adolescence A Selection Of Short Fiction:

Post-adolescence Robert McAlmon,1923 Poetry, Modernism, and an Imperfect World Sean Pryor,2017-03-06 This book shows how modernist poetry understood itself to be complicit in the social injustice and unhappiness of its time It will appeal to general readers with an interest in poetry to scholars and students interested in the theory of poetry and the history of the concept of poetry and to scholars and students working in modernist studies and on twentieth century literature Studies in Short Fiction ,1992 Reading Mina Loy's Autobiographies Sandeep Parmar,2013-06-06 Mina Loy is recognised today as one of the most innovative modernist poets numbering Gertrude Stein Marcel Duchamp Djuna Barnes and T S Eliot amongst her admirers Drawing on substantial new archival research this book challenges the existing critical myth of Loy as a modern woman through an analysis of her unpublished autobiographical prose Mina Loy s Autobiographies explores this major twentieth century writer s ideas about the modern and how they apply to the modernist writer based on her engagement with twentieth century avant garde aesthetics and charts how Loy herself uniquely defined modernity in her essays on literature and art Sandeep Parmar here shows how ultimately Loy s autobiographies extend the modernist project by rejecting earlier impressions of avant garde futurity and newness in favour of a late modernist aesthetic one that is more pessimistic inward and interested in the fragmentary interplay between the past and present The Correspondence of William Carlos Williams and Louis Zukofsky William Carlos Williams,Louis Zukofsky,2003-12-04 Table of contents

Modernist Women Writers and American Social Engagement Jody Cardinal,Deirdre E. Egan-Ryan,Julia Lisella,2019-03-15 Modernist Women Writers and American Social Engagement explores the role of social and political engagement by women writers in the development of American modernism Examining a diverse array of genres by both canonical modernists and underrepresented writers this collection uncovers an obscured strain of modernist activism Each chapter provides a detailed cultural and literary analysis revealing the ways in which modernists politically and socially engaged interventions shaped their writing Considering issues such as working class women s advocacy educational reform political radicalism and the global implications for American literary production this book examines the complexity of the relationship between creating art and fostering social change Ultimately this collection redefines the parameters of modernism while also broadening the conception of social engagement to include both readily acknowledged social movements as well as less recognizable forms of advocacy for social change The Nightinghous of Paris Robert McAlmon,2010-10-01 The Nightinghous of Paris is a thinly fictionalized memoir of the darker side of expatriate life in Paris Beginning in 1928 the story follows the changes undergone by Canadian youths John Glassco and his friend Graeme Taylor during their mis adventures in Paris while trying to become writers There they meet Robert McAlmon who guides them through the city s cafes bistros and nightclubs where they find writers and artists including Kay Boyle with whom Glassco has a fling Bill Bird Djuna Barnes Claude McKay Hilaire Hiler Peggy Guggenheim and Ernest Hemingway Fleeing France in late 1940 Robert McAlmon lost his notebook manuscripts and drafted The Nightinghousls of Paris from memory Till now it has existed solely as a typescript held by Yale University Unlike most memoirs of American expatriates in the 20s The Nightinghousls of Paris centers not only on writers but also encompasses the racial national and social m lange they encountered in everyday life Gay & Lesbian Literature Sharon Malinowski,Tom Pendergast,Sara Pendergast,1994 Biographical bibliographical and critical information on more than four hundred authors who have figured prominently in gay and lesbian literature and culture since 1900 Staging Modernist Lives Sasha Colby,2017-02-01 Three modernist women H D Hilda Doolittle 1886 1961 Mina Loy 1882 1966 and Nancy Cunard 1896 1965 came to define the interwar avant garde through their experimental writing and unconventional pursuits In Staging Modernist Lives Sasha Colby dramatizes these women s lives and writing in three new plays that traverse the origins of modernism Parisian literary circles two world wars the Spanish Civil War and race and gender relations in the first half of the twentieth century Leveraging each writer s autobiographical materials the plays explore the work of H D Loy and Cunard as artists publishers and activists their quests for self definition amid political and historical upheaval and their development as modernists among mentors detractors lovers and friends including Bryher Ellerman Ezra Pound Sigmund Freud Gertrude Stein Arthur Cravan D H Lawrence and Pablo Neruda Navigating the emerging field of research creation Staging Modernist Lives maps the critical terrain for dramatized literary inquiry Bridging scholarship and creative practice extant biographical drama and the possibilities of research theatre Staging Modernist Lives demonstrates how performance can deliver literary history to new audiences and how research in turn reinvigorates itself through performance Grasslands Grown Molly P. Rozum,2021-08 In Grasslands Grown Molly P Rozum explores the two related concepts of regional identity and sense of place by examining a single North American ecological region the U S Great Plains and the Canadian Prairie Provinces All or parts of modern day Alberta Montana Saskatchewan North Dakota South Dakota and Manitoba form the center of this transnational region As children the first postconquest generation of northern grasslands residents worked played and traveled with domestic and wild animals which introduced them to ecology and shaped sense of place rhythms As adults members of this generation of settler society worked to adapt to the northern grasslands by practicing both agricultural diversification and environmental conservation Rozum argues that environmental awareness including its ecological and cultural aspects is key to forming a sense of place and a regional identity The two concepts overlap and reinforce each other place is more local ecological and emotional sensual and region is more ideational national and geographic in tone This captivating study examines the growth of place and regional identities as they took shape within generations and over the life cycle The Mortal Passage
