Post Modern Use Of The Bible The Emergence Of Reader Oriented Criticism:

Postmodern Use of the Bible Edgar McKnight, 2005-12-01 Harry Emerson Fosdick's classic volume entitled The Modern Use of the Bible enabled readers in the first part of this century to make the pilgrimage into the modern era and to understand the Bible in an idiom informed by critical and historical assumptions and approaches. The exchange of the historical context for the dogmatic transformed biblical study into an exciting discipline both spiritually and intellectually. The critical distancing of the text in the historical approach however has gradually transformed biblical writings into museum pieces without contemporary relevance. For contemporary readers a satisfying approach cannot be uncritical but it must move beyond the critical. Postmodern Use of the Bible encourages a continual pilgrimage. In this book readers are provided resources to enable them to make sense for themselves in the light of challenges to major critical assumptions and strategies of The Modern Use of the Bible. The same goal is in mind to allow the Bible to speak in a contemporary idiom from the Introduction Contents Introduction 1 How Have We Made Sense of the Bible 2 Toward the Postmodern 3 Literary Perspectives and Resources for Postmodern Use Structures Codes and the Readers 4 The Role of the Reader Imaging the Sacred 5 The Role of the Reader Actualizing of Biblical Discourse Conclusion John, a Postmodern Gospel Patrick Chatelion Counet, 2021-11-15 This study deals with the postmodern philosophy of language as developed mainly by French authors as R Barthes J Derrida and J F Lyotard. The four chapters of the first part are theoretical and relate the literary concepts of postmodernity poststructuralism and deconstruction to the practice of biblical exegesis. One of the important conclusions is that deconstruction affects both diachronic and synchronic approaches of texts. Each chapter closes with not suggestions but implications for a postmodern deconstructive strategy of reading. The four chapters of the second part apply this postmodern deconstructive strategy of reading to the Fourth Gospel as a whole chapter five to John 6 chapter six to John 17 chapter seven and to John 21 24 25 chapter eight. This deconstructive reading shows the differential and apophatic character of Saint John's Gospel Hebrew Bible / Old Testament. III: From Modernism to Post-Modernism Magne Sæbø, Jean Louis Ska, Peter Machinist, 2014-12-10 The long and complex history of reception and interpretation of the Hebrew Bible Old Testament through the ages described in the HBOT Project focuses in this concluding volume III Part 2 on the multifarious research and the different methods used in the last century. Even this volume is written by Christian and Jewish scholars and takes its wider cultural and philosophical context into consideration. The perspective is worldwide and ecumenical. Its references to modern biblical scholarship on which it is based are extensive and updated. The indexes names topics references to biblical sources and a broad body of literature beyond are the key to the wealth of information provided. Women, the Family, and Policy Esther Ngan-ling Chow, Catherine White Berheide, 1994-06-07 The authors highlight how structural circumstances in countries with various degrees of industrialization are associated with specific policies The analyses of women's experiences reveal the variety of ways in which private patriarchy in families combines with public patriarchy in economies and states to create a system of domination which subordinates women The authors detail how gender is constructed under specific political economic and cultural circumstances and seek to understand how state policies with differing sensitivities to women's issues have produced mixed outcomes for women and their families in the process of economic development Interfigural Readings of the Gospel of John Ingrid Rosa Kitzberger, 2019-11-20 New and challenging readings of biblical characters This volume of collected essays introduces the concept of interfigurality the interrelations and interdependence between characters in the Gospel of John and in the Synoptic Gospels and the Hebrew Bible The essays are informed by a narrative critical reader response post feminist hermeneutics and an autobiographical approach to biblical texts This volume encourages transformative encounters between present day readers and the ancient biblical texts Features Previously unpublished conference papers and published essays A new perspective on the relation between New Testament and Hebrew Bible Foreword by Fernando F Segovia Ingrid Rosa Kitzberger is an independent scholar and the author of Transformative Encounters Jesus and Women Reviewed 1999 and the editor of The Personal Voice consumer products They were also as it turns out rightly suspicious that the powerful new mass media could be a seductive lure tricking people into the empty values of the consumer market culture Perhaps it is time for a rebirth of that ethic of simplicity that suspicion for the things for the world for which the early Pentecostals were so famous     A Hermeneutic of Curiosity and Readings of Psalm 61 W. H. Bellinger,1995     A Prophet in Debate Karl Möller,2003-01-01 An investigation of the literary structure and rhetorical challenge that prompted the book s production Moller argues that the book of Amos captures and presents the debate between Amos and his eighth century audience When read in the light of Israel s fall the presentation of Amos struggling and failing to convince his contemporaries of the imminent divine punishment functions as a powerful warning to subsequent Judaeen readers     Beginning the Good News Francis J. Moloney SDB,2006-12-01

Beginning the Good News Francis Moloney provides a narrative critical reading of Mark 1 1 13 Matthew 1 2 Luke 1 2 and John 1 1 18 to illustrate that the readings of the Gospels set up a tension in the reader who learns from the beginning but still cannot rest satisfied The Gospels beginnings promise the reader the great prize of understanding later     Reading with a Passion Jeffrey Staley,2002-06-01 In this strikingly personal account of recent literary approaches to the Bible Jeffrey Staley shows how people s life experiences relate to what they read in the Scriptures He illustrates his argument from theories of autobiography where recent literary and feminist critiques provide him with tools for reflecting upon his childhood on a Navajo reservation and his family s five generations of contact with the Navajo people in northern Arizona and New Mexico Using Tony Hillerman s popular detective novels as a lens to refract his own childhood memories Staley investigates how his cross cultural childhood and family history have contributed to his understanding of the Fourth Gospel By combining such diverse materials as popular fiction medieval passion plays cultural anthropology rhetorical studies and autobiographical reflection Staley takes his readers on a fascinating spiritual and intellectual journey through the Gospel of John
