Post Soviet Chaos And The New Capitalism Violence And Dispossession In Kazakhstan:

Post-Soviet Chaos Joma Nazpary, 2002 Leading Marxist thinkers re evaluate Trotsky's key theories an ideal introduction for students

Post-Soviet Chaos Joma Nazpary, 2001-11-20 In the 1990s the former states of the Soviet Union underwent dramatic and revolutionary changes As a result of enforced neoliberal reforms the fledgling republics were exposed to the familiar effects of globalised capital Focusing on Kazakhstan where violence and corruption are now facts of everyday life Joma Nazpary examines the impact of the new capitalism on the people of Central Asia Nazpary explores the responses of the dispossessed to their dispossession He uncovers the construction of imagined communities grounded in Soviet nostalgia which serve to resist the economic order as well as the more practical survival strategies especially of women often forced into prostitution where they are subject to violence and stigma By revealing the extent to which Kazakh society has disintegrated and the cultural responses to it Nazpary argues that dispossession has been a stronger unifying force than even ethnicity or religion Comparing the effects of neoliberal reforms in Kazakhstan with those in other regions he concludes that causes forms and consequences of dispossession in Kazakhstan are particular instances of a much wider global trend

A Micro-Level Perspective on the Dynamics of Conflict, Violence, and Development Patricia Justino, Tilman Brück, Philip Verwimp, 2013-12-12 This volume presents an innovative new analytical framework for understanding the dynamics of violent conflict and its impact on people and communities living in contexts of violence Bringing together the findings of MICROCON an influential five year research programme funded by the European Commission this book provides readers with the most current and comprehensive evidence available on violent conflict from a micro level perspective MICROCON was the largest programme on conflict analysis in Europe from 2007-2011 and its policy outreach has helped to influence EU development policy and supported policy capacity in many conflict affected countries Whilst traditional studies into conflict have been through an international regional lens with the state as the primary unit of analysis the micro level perspective offered by this volume places the individuals households groups and communities affected by conflict at the centre of analysis Studying how people behave in groups and communities and how they interact with the formal and informal institutions that manage local tensions is crucial to understanding the conflict cycle These micro foundations therefore provide a more in depth analysis of the causes and consequences of violent conflict By challenging the ways we think about conflict this book bridges the gap in evidence allowing for more specific and accurate policy interventions for conflict resolution and development processes to help reduce poverty in the lives of those affected by conflict This volume is divided into four parts Part I introduces the conceptual framework of MICROCON Part II focuses on individual and group motivations in conflict processes Part III highlights the micro level consequences of violent conflict The final section of this volume focuses on policy implications and future research agenda

Crisis of the State Bruce Kapferer, Bjørn Enge Bertelsen, 2009-04-01 Analyzing both historical contexts and geographical locations this volume explores the continuous reformation of state power and its potential in situations of violent conflict The state otherwise understood as an abstract and transcendent concept in many works on globalization in political philosophy is instead located and analyzed here as an embedded part of lived reality This relationship to the state is exposed as an integral factor to the formation of the social whether in Africa the Middle East South America or the United States Through the examination of these particular empirical settings of war or war like situations the book further argues for the continued importance of the state in shifting social and political circumstances In doing so the authors provide a critical contribution to debates within a broad spectrum of fields that are concerned with the future of the state the nature of sovereignty and globalization

Minorities in the Post-Soviet Space Thirty Years After the Dissolution of the USSR Paola Bocale,Daniele Brigadoi Cologna,Lino Panzeri,2023-03-24 When the Soviet Union broke apart in 1991 the Russian Federation and the newly independent republics of the Baltics the Caucasus and Central Asia engaged in redefining their national identity in a challenging regional and global context The stances and policies towards the minorities living in these countries became part of the striving towards national independence and identity formation Despite vastly different post Soviet nation building trajectories the development and implementation of state policies towards minorities had similar relevance and importance across the region Thirty years after the end of the USSR what is the situation of minorities and minority issues in the countries that emerged from that multi ethnic state How have the former republics including Russia dealt with their minorities and minority affairs To what protection and rights are minority communities entitled to Studies of the dissolution of the USSR and of nation building in the independent post Soviet states have flourished over the past decades However despite the relevance of the theme there is a dearth of specialist publications which address the many issues related to minority communities in the post Soviet space This volume attempts to fill this gap by providing a collection of essays covering some of the most relevant aspects of the contemporary status and situation of minorities in the area

Why They Don't Hate Us Mark LeVine,2013-10-01 Is the Muslim world really a seething mass of anti Western hatred or is the true situation more complicated than that In this important and ambitious new work Mark Levine presents a vivid and compelling picture of the human face behind the veil of the Axis of Evil and sets out an alternative roadmap for better relations between the West and the Muslim world Going beyond the stereotypes and below the media radar this book explains why contrary to the popular perception they don t hate us or at least not yet

Contemporary Central Asia ,2004 The Sociology of Central Asian Youth Mohd.Aslam Bhat,2018-04-17 At the onset of the twenty first century youth studies emerged as a distinct field of inquisition Discourses and debates in the field have since become more sophisticated and the spectrum of analysis has likewise broadened However it is striking to note how little reference is made to young people of peripheral regions like Central Asia The Sociology of Central Asian Youth seeks to critically broaden the discussion on youth transitions discourse by moving beyond the geographical terrain of North America Britain Australia and Western Europe The work establishes an in depth understanding of young Central Asians with a special focus on those in Uzbekistan This is accomplished through the explanatory powers of the various forms of sociological theory and specifically by pursuing an ambitious aim to introduce the classic sociological debate about the relationship between structure and agency in social behaviour into the study of modern Central Asia Presenting the experiences of youth against the backdrop of contemporary socio economic and cultural changes in the post Soviet space this empirical monograph will appeal to postgraduate students and post doctoral researchers interested in fields such as Youth Studies Central Asian Studies Social Anthropology Cultural Studies and Sociology Forging Rights in a New Democracy Anna

Fournier, 2012-07-24 The last two decades have been marked by momentous changes in forms of governance throughout the post Soviet region Ukraine's political system like those of other formerly socialist states of Eastern Europe has often been characterized as being in transition moving from a Soviet system to one more closely aligned with Western models Anna Fournier challenges this view investigating what is increasingly recognized as a critical aspect of contemporary global rights discourse the active involvement of young people living in societies undergoing radical change Fournier delineates a generation simultaneously embracing various ideological stances in an attempt to make sense of social conditions marked by the disjuncture between democratic ideals and the everyday realities of growing economic inequality Based on extensive fieldwork in public and private schools in the Ukrainian capital city of Kyiv Forging Rights in a New Democracy explores high school aged students understanding of rights and justice and the ways they interpret and appropriate discourses of citizenship and civic values in the educational setting and beyond Fournier's rich ethnographic account assesses the impact on the making of citizens of both formal and informal pedagogical practices in schools and on the streets Chronicling her subjects encounters with state representatives and violent entrepreneurs as well as their involvement in peaceful protests alongside political activists Fournier demonstrates the extent to which young people both reproduce and challenge the liberal discourse of rights in ways that illuminate the everyday paradoxes of market democracy By tracking students active participation in larger contests about the nature of liberty and entitlement in the context of redefined rights her book provides insight into emergent configurations of citizenship in the New Europe Dispossession Catherine

Wanner, 2023-12-15 This volume examines Russia's war on Ukraine Scholars who have lived through the Russian invasion or who have conducted ethnographic research in the region for decades provide timely analysis of a war that will leave a lasting mark on the twenty first century Using the concept of dispossession this volume showcases some of the novel ways violence operates in the Russian Ukrainian war and the multiple means by which civilians within the conflict zone and beyond have become active participants in the war effort Anthropological perspectives on war provide on the ground insight historically informed analysis and theoretical engagement to depict the experiences of dispossession by war and the motivations that drive the responses of the dispossessed Such perspectives humanize the victims even as they depict the very inhumanity of war Dispossession is geared towards upper level undergraduate and graduate students scholars and the general reader who seeks to have a deeper understanding of the Russian Ukrainian war as it continues to impact geopolitics more broadly The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Post-Soviet Women Ann-Mari S  tre, Yulia Gradskaia, Vladislava Vladimirova, 2023-10-26 This volume explores how different post Soviet countries have reinterpreted and diverged from the Soviet gender roles and values It synthesizes results from multiple empirical studies that attend to increasingly conservative features of political governance in the region particularly the authoritarian regime in Russia The authors consider diverse enactments of ideologies policies and practices of gender equality and women's rights in crucial areas such as legislative institutions media and social activism The volume contributes to understanding post Soviet societal dynamics relevant to United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 5 which emphasizes gender equality as part of fundamental human rights

Labour, Mobility and Informal Practices in Russia, Central Asia and Eastern Europe Rano Turaeva, Rustamjon Urinboyev, 2021-05-26 This book explores the daily survival strategies of people within the context of failed states flourishing informal economies legal uncertainty increased mobility and globalization where many people who are forced by the circumstances to be innovative and transnational have found their niches outside formal processes and structures The book provides a thorough theoretical introduction to the link between labour mobility and informality and comprises convincing case studies from a wide range of post socialist countries Overall it highlights the importance of trust transnational networks and digital technologies in settings where the rules governing economic and social activities of mobile workers are often unclear and flexible

Moral Anthropology Bruce Kapferer, Marina Gold, 2018-04-13 A development in anthropological theory characterized as the moral turn is gaining popularity and should be carefully considered In examining the context arguments and discourse that surrounds this trend this volume reconceptualizes the discipline of anthropology in a radical way Contributions from anthropologists from around the world from different theoretical traditions and with expertise in a multiplicity of ethnographic areas makes this collection a provocative contribution to larger discussions not only in anthropology but the social sciences more broadly

Russia and Development Charles Buxton, 2014-12-11 Unique and insightful this book takes a look at Russia's development through the Tsarist and Soviet periods Rather than make the more familiar comparisons between Russia and the West Russia and Development focuses on political and social mobilization in adjacent Central Asia It examines the role of local government and civil society in development as well as popular responses to the policies of Putin and Medvedev aimed at modernizing Russia and forging a new Eurasia alliance in Russia's development neighbourhood The book uses local sources and case studies to pose important questions about the role of empire revolution nationalism and democratization in the twenty first century With unique insider knowledge Charles Buxton ultimately places Russia's current development model in an international context where Russia is increasingly becoming a competitor to Western led development practices Essential reading for anyone interested in the region or development thought and practice Slow Anti-Americanism Edward Schatz,2021-01-26 Negative views of the United States abound but we know too little about how such views affect politics Drawing on careful research on post Soviet Central Asia Edward Schatz argues that anti Americanism is best seen not as a rising tide that swamps or as a conflagration that overwhelms Rather America is a symbolic resource that resides quietly in the mundane but always has potential value for social and political mobilizers Using a wide range of evidence and a novel analytic framework Schatz considers how Islamist movements human rights activists and labor mobilizers across Central Asia avail themselves of this fact thus changing their ability to pursue their respective agendas By refocusing our analytic gaze away from high politics he affords us a clearer view of the slower moving partially occluded and socially embedded processes that ground how America becomes political In turn we gain a nuanced appreciation of the downstream effects of US foreign policy choices and a sober sense of the challenges posed by the politics of traveling images Most treatments of anti Americanism focus on politics in the realm of presidential elections and foreign policies By focusing instead on symbols Schatz lays bare how changing public attitudes shift social relations in politically significant ways and considers how changing symbolic depictions of the United States recombine the raw material available for social mobilizers Just like sediment traveling along waterways before reaching its final destination the raw material that constitutes symbolic America can travel among various social groups and can settle into place to form the basis of new social meanings Symbolic America Schatz shows us matters for politics in Central Asia and beyond Sex, Love, and Migration Alexia Bloch,2017-12-15 Sex Love and Migration goes beyond a common narrative of women s exploitation as a feature of migration in the early twenty first century a story that features young women from poor countries who cross borders to work in low paid and often intimate labor Alexia Bloch argues that the mobility of women is marked not only by risks but also by personal and social transformation as migration fundamentally reshapes women s emotional worlds and aspirations Bloch documents how as women have crossed borders between the former Soviet Union and Turkey since the early 1990s they have forged new forms of intimacy in their households in Moldova Ukraine Belarus and Russia but also in Istanbul where they often work for years on end Sex Love and Migration takes as its subject the lives of post Soviet migrant women employed in three distinct spheres sex work the garment trade and domestic work Bloch challenges us to decouple images of women on the move from simple assumptions about danger victimization and trafficking She redirects our attention to the aspirations and lives of women who despite myriad impediments move between global capitalist centers and their home communities Staging Democracy Jessica Pisano,2022-07-15 Focusing on the experiences of people in Russia and Ukraine Staging Democracy shows how some national leaders seeming popularity rests on local economic compacts Jessica Pisano draws on long term research in rural communities and company towns analyzing how local political and business leaders seeking favor from incumbent politicians used salaries benefits and public infrastructure to pressure citizens to participate in command performances Pisano looks at elections whose outcome was known in advance protests for hire and smaller mises en sc ne to explain why people participate what differs from spectacle in totalitarian societies how political theater exists in both authoritarian and democratic systems and how such performances reshape understandings of the role of politics Staging Democracy moves beyond Russia and Ukraine to offer a novel economic argument for why some people support Putin and similar politicians Pisano suggests we can analyze politics in both democracies and authoritarian regimes using the same analytical lens of political theater History and Society in Central and Inner Asia Uradyn Erden Bulag, Michael Gervers, Gillian Long, 2005 What's Wrong with America? Jonathan Neale, 2004 For the 30 million people who marched against the war in Iraq there has long been a suspicion that all is not well with the world and in particular the USA Jonathan Neale s critique shows that what the US does to the rest of the world it is also doing to its own people The Anthropology of East Europe Review , 2007
